Matters in District Court.

The long-drawn-out Colorado mining suit of James Doyle against James F. Burns former president of the Portland Gold Mining company, may not be retried at this term of district court, although counsel for the plaintiff filed the regular trial notice. It was omitted from the assignment of jury cases made by Judge Thornell Tuesday for the reason that counsel for Burns announced that a petition for a rehearing before the supreme court was being prepared and would be filed. This petition for a rehearing is expected to come up before the supreme court in March. Counsel for Doyle state they are determined to have the case retired as soon as possible.

C. A. SCOTT GETS PLACE AT AMES Forester at Iowa State College

Brought from Nebraska. AMES, Ia., Jan. 16 .- (Special.) -- At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Iowa State college C. A. Scott of the United States forest service was elected to the chair of forestry to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. H. P. Baker, who accepted a more lucrative position at the Pennsylvania State college, Mr. Scott is a graduate of the Kansas State Agricultural college and a student of the Yale college of forestry. Mr. Scott has been continuously in the employment during this period of seven years has gradually advanced through all stages of the work, from that of student assistant to forest supervisor, which position he resigned to accept the chair of forestry at the Iowa State college. His work has been largely confined to the middle west and the Rocky mountain states, hence he has the advantage of being familiar with the forestry conditions of the upper Mississippi valley. Since its origin he has had charge of the extensive forest nurseries and plantings of the Dismal river national forest. During the last three years he has given a special course of lectures before the University of Nebraska forestry students and during the winters has also rendered assistance as a lecturer at the farmers' institutes of Nebraska. In 1906 he was elected to membership in the Society of American Foresters, a professional organization, which is limited the Iowa State college.
