All Forfeited Games Hereafter Are to Be Scored I to 6-Offended Teams May Decline Penalties.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.-Important changes, in the rule governing the forward pass play, which will prove of advantage to weaker teams, and other foot ball legislation, were made by the intercollegiate/foot ball rules committee, which concluded its session here tonight.

The new rule on the play of the forward. pass covers particularly the illegal touching of the ball. When illegally touched the side making the illegal play loses the ball to its opponents on the spot from which the pass was made. According to the new rule, only the man of the passer's side who first legally touched the ball may thereafter recover it until it has been touched by an opponent. If the forward pass is legally touched and then free and is then ouched by another player of the passer's side, the ball goes to the opponents at the

LAWSON WINS BICYCLE RACE Yankee Rider Finishes Few Inches In Front of Fogler.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 34.-Sprinting with all the energy he could command, and exerting every muscle to defeat his opponent, who appeared equally as confident of Yankee team, in a remarkable burst of speed last night won the six-day bicycle race from Joe Fogler by so short a distance that It was almost impossible to pick the winner. The world's record for forty-eight hours, in Madison Square garden, was shattered. With but a few minutes until the end of the race left, all the teams but the two leaders were withdrawn, and Ivor Lawson and Jee Fogler went in for a real riding duel. Around the track they went and at the end of the mile were absolutely so close together that it was almost impossible to decide which one had won. The referee finally decided in favor of Lawson. Then followed a wrangling match between the members of the two contending tean. which lasted over a half hour, at the end of which Lawson was declared to be the
