The fun-ing of Austrian shipments for the ori-ing of Austrian shipments for the seek was also a strong bear argument. Late in the day there was heavy selling for profit, the rush of selling orders carrying every-thing before it. The market closed weak, and near the low point of the day. May wheat opened unchanged at $1.023, sold between $1.00 and $1.023, and closed at $1.045. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 465,000 bushels against 538,000 bushels on the same day last year. Min-uenpoils, Duluth and Chicago reported re-ceipts were 602,000 bushels against 538,000 bushels on the same day last year. Min-uenpoils, Duluth and Chicago reported re-ceipts of 330 cars against 529 cars last week and 217 cars a year ago. The corn market was relatively stronger than wheat, but, the market sold off in sympathy with wheat and was generally demand was generally dull, but on the whole the shippers are not getting much corn in this section of the country. The continued coid weather in the northwest opened is to ic lower to a shade higher at 51% to 61%c, sold between 60%c and closed at 60%00%c. Local receipts were 268 cars, with one of contract grade. The oats market was dull all day and prices shumped off chiefly because of the de-cline in wheat and corn. The cash de-mand was moor.
