BARGAIN MARRIAGES SCORED

Mr. McGavin Denounces Sacrifice of Women on Altar of Snobbery.

MR. BRYAN VISITS THE HOUSE

Day Spent Largely in General Debate Growing Out of the Urgent Deficiency Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—National politics, international marriages and government expenditures formed the themes of discussion in the house today.

The urgent deficiency bill was up for consideration, but in several instances it was ignored under the license of general debate.

International marriages of American heiresses to titled foreigners were denounced by Mr. McGavin of Illinois.

No amendments of any consequence were made to the urgent deficiency bill, and it was still pending when the house at 5:30 p. m. adjourned.

McGavin on Titled Marriages.

In the house Representative McGavin (Ill.) attacked the custom of American heiresses marrying European noblemen.

He asserted that almost every day there is a bargain day in New York where you can buy anything from a yard of ribbon to a pound of flesh.

Mr. McGavin was speaking on the bill of his colleague, Mr. Sabath, to tax all divorces and titled husbands.

The house, he said, was in committee of the whole on the state of the union, but he wanted to know whether the present tariff schedule included duties, carriages, and counts.

He wondered what the early pioneers would think if they knew that the women of this country were "sacrificing their souls and honor upon the altar of snobbery and vice."

Dr. Porter announced that a bill will be introduced in the legislature making mandatory registration of all contagious diseases.

Mr. McGavin said he was curious to be aroused to know the right committee to which the bill should have gone.

Mr. McGavin said the United States triumphantly had referred to the fact that as between it and other nations the balance of trade was in its favor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(Special Telegram)—It is no sure thing that a successor to Elmer H. Stephenson will be selected at the meeting of the Nebraska delegation next Saturday.

Already there is a stern brewing for the report of the committee on the plan, consisting of Senator Burdett, chairman; Congressman Norton and Boyd.

There are several meetings and in the main have agreed to the proposition which they will submit to the delegation on Saturday for ratification.

The report contemplates that the state be divided into districts along congressional lines, and really make the patronage into what is called the "patronage plan."

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—A large number of delegates assembled here today in attendance upon the fourth annual convention of the American Breeders' association.

The object of the association, whose membership embraces scientific breeders to the number of about 1,300, is the improvement of animal and plant life.

The animal breeders are endeavoring to breed a better class of horses, cows that will yield better milk, etc., while the plant breeders are working for wheat that will yield finer flour and more of it, corn that will contain more protein, plants that will resist blight and the attacks of rust and smut, cereals that will flourish in spite of drought, fruits that will grow far north and flowers that will bloom all summer.

The convention was called to order by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, president of the association, who made an address.

At this morning's session reports of committees on the subjects of animal and plant production—"Animal Hybridizing," "Breeding for Dairy Production," "Breeding for Meat Production," "Co-Operative Work on Animal Breeding," "Co-Operative Work on Plant Breeding"—were made.

What probably will prove to be one of the most interesting reports will be that by David Starr Jordan on "Eugenics, or the Science of Improving Stock, Whether Human or Animal."

Address will be made by C. M. Winslow of Brandon, Vt., on "Methods Used by the Yorkshire Breeders' Association in Perfecting the Breed."

Methods Used by the American Jersey Cattle Club in Perfecting the Breed," by J. J. Hittingway of New York City; "Methods Used by the Holstein-Friesian Association in Perfecting the Breed," by F. L. Houghton of Brattleboro, Vt.; and "Breeding Hybrid Cattle," by W. J. Kennedy of Ames, Ia.

LOUISIANA PRIMARY TODAY

Next Governor of State to Be Selected in Battle of Ballots in State.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 28.—The next governor of Louisiana will be selected today in the democratic primary election.

There are two candidates, J. Y. Sanders, at present lieutenant governor, and Theodore S. Wilkinson, a sugar planter. The state election will be held on April 20.

The primary campaign has been the cause of a special session of the legislature and of two personal controversies between prominent men in which the preliminary steps of the dueling code were retraced.

The special session of the legislature received word of the messages from Governor Blanchard and from Lieutenant Governor Sanders, the latter having been communicated during the governor's absence.

The combined effect of these communications on the eve of election was to plan Louisiana well among the leaders of southern states in corporation reform legislation and to save the state many thousands of dollars annually by great reductions in the revenues of certain political offices, principally the tax collector.

Prohibition, the continuance of horse racing and more stringent laws regulating dealing in cotton futures are also among the problems with which this campaign has dealt, without, however, the drawing of sharply defined lines for or against such reforms.

WOMAN MOST AFFECTIONATE

Testimony in McDonald Case that Defendant Thought Much of Guerin.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Mrs. Avis Guerin, the wife of the brother of Webster Guerin, for whose murder Mrs. Dora McDonald is now on trial, was on the witness stand throughout the greater part of today.

Mrs. Guerin was the young woman whom it is claimed by the state, that she was jealous. Since the murder she has married Archibald Guerin. She testified that Mrs. McDonald had accused her of trying to win Webster Guerin away from her and declared that she could not do it.

Mrs. Guerin told of threats made by Mrs. McDonald against the man whom she affectionately loved.

The cross-examination of Mrs. Guerin was exceedingly severe and several times Brittan interfered to protect the witness from what he considered improper questions.

On redirect examination, Mrs. Guerin described a supper at the home of Richard Banahan, 20 Warren avenue, saying that Mrs. McDonald "was loving Webster nearly all the time."

"What do you mean by loving?" asked Assistant State Attorney Hittenson.

Mrs. Guerin said she was around him and was kissing him all the time; was the reply.

BECKHAM DEFECTION BEGINS

Another Vote Leaves Former Governor and He Is Claimed Here.

FLANKPORT, Ky., Jan. 28.—Former Governor Beckham left another vote in today's ballot for United States senator, taken in joint session.

The ballot resulted: Beckham, 22; Bradley, 11; McCrea, 2; Representative Klair, 1; John B. Allen, 2.

In reply to the presentation of the case for Omaha, Mr. McCrea stated that he would have to look at the matter from the position point of view and would make a recommendation on the bill later.
