FIVE DIE IN LODGING HOUSE

Flames Overcome Many Asleep During Fire in Kansas City.

WOMAN GIVES ALARM, LOSSES LIFE

Place Without Fire Escapes, So Firemen Could Not Rescue Women, Trapped, with Stairway Ablaze.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 1.—Five persons were burned to death and five others were injured in a fire in a three-story rooming house at 1215 Broadway street, near the business center this morning.

The dead: Mrs. Jennie Bert, aged 29 years, Harrisville, Mo., waitress; Mabel Porter, aged 18 years, waitress; Mabel Graves, aged 18 years, waitress; Peter Rooney, aged 15 years, cook; Charles Johnson, aged 23 years, cook.

The injured received slight burns and cuts and none are in a dangerous condition. All of the dead, except Mrs. Bert, lived in Kansas City. The injured were taken to the emergency hospital. A partial list follows:

George Nagasenu, Japanese, kitchen helper.

Clauddo Folger, aged 20 years, bell boy, Kansas City hotel.

M. W. Stoner, aged 19 years, student at Kansas college.

Owen Connors, kitchen man.

John Geanenti, second cook, Sexton street, Kansas City.

The fire started from an explosion of natural gas in the basement at 5 o'clock this morning. The flames and dense smoke spread quickly throughout the building and before the alarm could be given all means of escape by the ordinary exits had been shut off. The five persons who lost their lives were asleep on the third floor and all save Mrs. Bert were burned to death in their rooms. Evidently they had been suffocated and none apparently had been making an attempt to escape. Before the fire department arrived the building was a mass of flames and the rooms on the upper floors could not be entered. Mabel Porter and Nina Graves, two of the dead, occupied a room together. The injured slept on the lower floors and in the basement.

All this has come about because each faction wants the prestige of controlling the March state convention to select national delegates. Each wants a name to conjure with. Roosevelt is the chosen commoner for South Dakota voters, for about three out of four of them were for him at the last election. But when Roosevelt insisted on staying out it was necessary to cast about for another standard-bearer. As Taft was seemingly Roosevelt's choice neither faction dared take chances of offending the big Roosevelt sentiment by supporting any other. So it happens that each faction is marking time by the formation of Roosevelt-Taft clubs all over the state.

deep red as Foreman Gremmels stated that a verdict had been reached.

She was confident, however, and when the jury announced their verdict she smiled quickly at her husband and smiled enthusiastically.

Thaw was recalled from the custody of his Tombs guard when Justice Dowling granted the delay in executing the order of commitment. Mrs. Thaw had brought his luncheon down to him in her automobile and it had been spread in the Tombs as usual. The report was sent for and Thaw and his wife ate together in an ante-room of the court chamber, where he had twice stood trial for his life, the first jury having disagreed, 7 to 5, for conviction.

Besides saying informally that she was pleased a verdict would be handed, Thaw made no statement at the court house. Thaw said, fighting his way through the flames and smoke. The firemen were able to rescue them from the burning building.

Mrs. Bert a Heroine.

Mrs. Bert lost her life in trying to arouse the inmates. The dense smoke, pouring up the stairs, and the hallways, she entered the rooms. Mrs. Bert's room, on the third floor, was close to the landing, and it was one of the first to be entered by the smoke. She was awakened and hurried down the hallway on the floor and attempted to awaken the sleeping roomers. The smoke was so thick that she could not see. She tried to repeat her effort at giving an alarm. The smoke and flames, however, now crowded her so closely that she was compelled to desert and sought escape by the stairway. At the top of the second floor she stumbled and fell, falling headlong down the stairs, landed in the thickest of the flames. At the bottom her charred remains were later found by the firemen. The body was almost unrecognizable.

There were twenty-two persons in the building when the fire broke out. Most of the roomers worked the night as waitresses and cooks at nearby hotels and restaurants. Most of them had retired only a short time previous and they were deep in sleep. This fact doubtless accounts for the inability of Mrs. Bert to awaken them.

Bodies Found in Beds.

The bodies of the victims were found in their beds. Each had been terribly burned and the limbs dropped from one of them as the remains were later carried from the house.

The alarm of fire was turned in by Colonel Willis Wood, a capitalist, formerly of St. Louis, who is now in Colorado. Leslie R. Clay was a man 25 years of age, nearly six feet tall, large, with smooth shaven face and weight 190 pounds. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge and an active worker. No good reason can be offered for his disappearance except the kick received on his temple Saturday evening.

BILL IN EQUITY FILED

government, represented in court by C. A. Severance of St. Paul, special assistant to the attorney general of the United States, prayed for permission to serve subpoenas on nonresident witnesses, a formal motion, which was allowed by Judge John Marshall.

Mr. Severance would venture no opinion as to the date when the issues will be joined and the actual trial of the case commenced. The defendants, all but three of whom live outside of Utah, are entitled to twenty days from the date of service to make answer. If they are served before March 1, the answer should be handed in not later than March 29.

IT'S TAFT IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Both Factions of Republicans Seek Control, Using His Name as Slogan.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Feb. 1.—(Special.)—Secretary Taft could not possibly avoid getting the support of South Dakota in the Chicago convention. In all seriousness the statement is made that it is doubtful if there is any way by which Taft could win the support of South Dakota in the Chicago convention.

"WE WON'T HURT YOU"

So many people have an erroneous idea that the Alveolar Method of restoring missing teeth involves a surgical operation. We are constantly getting letters asking whether the "operation" is painful or not.

There is nothing about this work that is in the slightest degree related to an "operation." You have nothing to fear or dread.

The constructive part of the work is done in the laboratory. It is not even a tedious job for the patient.

BRYAN COMMENTS ON MESSAGE

Nebraska Says Friends of Reform Have Now Reason to Rejoice.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 31.—William Jennings Bryan tonight issued a statement bearing on the president's message sent to congress today. In prefacing the statement he said he recognized the moral courage of Roosevelt in fighting against the opposition he has to contend with. Referring to the Wall Street methods, the speaker said that it would be a disgrace after the president's message of today the financiers would see that they could place no dependence on Roosevelt as a friend of the system. His statement on the president's message follows:

It is a brave message and needed at this time. All friends of reform have reason to rejoice that the president has used his high position to call attention to the situation. He has done this in our national history. He has done this in our national history. He has done this in our national history.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Chancellor James R. Day of Syracuse university, discussing President Roosevelt's message, said:

"Of the president's message, if I am entirely honest and frank, I am compelled to say that much of it reads like the ravings of a disordered mind, and other portions, in which appeal is made to class prejudice and excitement, is large with the suggestion of the idiot and cunning, the stunted, but reckless demagogue."
