GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Liquidation is Extremely Heavy and Ruling is Heavy.

WHEAT, CORN AND OATS LONG

All Come Stendily-Liverpool Shows More Firmness and Indications Are Big Holdovers Are Sold Out.

OMAHA, Feb. 1, 1908. OMAHA, Feb. 1, 1998.

Liquidation has been extremely heavy.

Agas wheat, corn and oats came out steadily and the market ruled heavy. However, Liverpool shows more firmness and the ndications are that the big lines that have been held over are about sold out.

Wheat showed some strength at the start his morning and oversed steady. On heavy Meat showed some strength at the start this morning and opened steady. On heavy selling by the crowd the early firmness did not last and she break that followed was sharp and May option was dropped to the lowest level of the season. The crowd oversold themselves in the rush and on the let-up wheat values were bid back to near the opening prices. May wheat some strength at the start this morning and opened steady. On heavy selling by the crowd the early firmness did not last and she break that followed was sharp and May option was dropped to the season. The crowd oversold themselves in the rush and on the let-up wheat values were bid back to near the opening prices. May wheat spend at fixe and closed at $25%c.

Corn opened casy and sold off readily on the soft spots for several fractions. The market has been unable to withstand the rush of long corn that has been put out and the general opinion is it will sell lower. May corn opened at 53%c and closed at $3%c.

standstill.
Little or no demand has developed and the support has not been sufficient to hold the prices from sagging with wheat and

May oats opened at 49c and closed at 485 c.

Primary wheat receipts were 402,000 bushels and shipments were 252,000 bushels, against receipts hast year of 420,000 bushels and shipments were 510,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were 510,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,041,000 bushels and shipments were 510,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,041,000 bushels and shipments of 462,000 bushels.

Clearances were 317,000 bushels of corn, 3,000 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 402,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed unchanged to 14d lower on wheat and 45d lower on corn.

Scaboard reported 162,000 bushels of wheat and 40,000 bushels of corn taken for export. Local range of options:

Totals ... CATTLE-Something unusual happened today. Saturday is practically a holiday in the cattle trade, no one expecting receipts of any consequence on that day, but still there are always a few cars reported in. Phis morning, however, for the first in. This morning, however, for the first time in a great while not a single car of cattle was reported early. The receipts for the week have been quite liberal, the total being about the same as for last week and very little short of last year's figures. The receipts for the finish of January show a very heavy falling off as compared with the corresponding month of last year, but with the single exception of last year they were the largest for the month of January in the history of the yards and were larger than any month, since last October.

Beef steers began the week with a good sharp advance, the trade on Monday being showing a large gain over last week and heing about on a par with the record of a year ago. However the receipts for the month which closed yesterday were the smallest for a January since 1992. In spite of liberal receipts the market started out the week under very favorable conditions. Prices tended upward and were as good 26 higher for Menday and Tuesday. During the latter part of the week the tendency was downward under the influence of large receipts at all selling points accompanied by a very severe break at eastern markets. The condition of the trade cast-ward reduced the buying demand at this point very materially, with the result that prices slid downward rapidly and at the close of the week all of the advance has been wined out. In other words the market is now about where it was at the close of last week.

Operators on the market are still very confident regarding the future of the sheep trade. While sharp breaks are to be expected as well as advances, the general feeling seems to be that there is no apparent reason why good prices should not prevail for both sheep and lambs throughout the season.

Something for nothing.

It isn't at all surprising that some people are saddest when they sing.

Of course there are things you can't understand—but then there are others.

A Parrable for the Times. How the World Grows.

A Parable for the Times.

Once there was a man who benght a beautiful gold brick, for which he paid the sum of $10 or $15, although it looked exactly as if it were worth ten or fifteen exactly as if it were worth ten or fifteen thousand.

Then he took it home and opening his ledger made an entry which materially swelled his assets.

Then he mortgased his home and bought an automobile and a season ticket for the opera and gave a large dinner at Shefry's. And why should he not, for was he not a rich man, and could he not prove it by his ledger?

And then one day it occurred to blim to examine his gold brick a little more closely. Whereupon he found that it was worth only 10 or 15 cents.

He lost confidence immediately, and the effort he made to get rid of the brick brought on a severe panic.—Puck.

Appetites of Woodsmen.

Here are some figures from a lumber camp up in Greenwood which give an idea as to the appetite of husky woodsmen. There are tultry-five men in this crew, and the cook reports that he makes each day 300 large biscuits, 150 doughnuts, 36 pies, bakes six quarts of dry beans, with potatoes, vegetables, etc. in proportion. A large beef creature is eaten every five days. There is something to be explained in that item of thirty-six pies daily for thirty-five men. Probably the boss gets the extra one.—Kennebec Journal.
