MACY IS IN A RECEPTIVE MOOD

Will Make No Effort to Secure a Renomination, but Will Take It If Tendered to Him by Convention.

According to Edward Mills of Red Oak, who was in Council Bluffs yesterday, R. W. Beeson of Red Oak will be Montgomery county's candidate for the republican nomination for judge of the district court to succeed Judge Macy. Mr. Beeson was a candidate before the republican judicial convention eight years ago, when Judge Wheeler was nominated after a contest lasting through nearly 100 ballots.
 J. B. Tucker, fellow of Atlantic, Cass county, and Thomas Arthur of Logan, Harrison county, are also avowed candidates for the nomination. J. S. Dewell of Missouri Valley is also spoken of as another candidate from Harrison county.

Matters in District Court.

The trial of the personal injury damage suit of C. C. Williams against the Consolidated Construction company of this city was begun yesterday morning in district court before Judge Thornhill. The case was commenced at the last term but nearing the close of the plaintiff's testimony it was found there was an imperfect record and the trial was brought to a sudden close. It being impracticable to secure another jury at that time, the case went over until this term. Williams seeks damages for injury received by the alleged negligence of employees of the defendant company, allowing a board to drop on his head.
 County Attorney Hess has served notice at the trial of W. P. Jackson, alleged accomplice of Marion Hedgcock in the blowing of the safe of the Council Bluffs Transfer & Storage company, he will introduce as a witness for the state. C. H. Johnson, now serving a term in the Fort Madison penitentiary. Johnson, the notice states, is expected to testify that while he and Jackson were both inmates of the county jail, Jackson said to him that this was the best job he and Hedgcock had intended to do before they went west and that it was bad luck that they had been caught.
 Suit for divorce was begun yesterday by Mrs. L. Lenore Clawson against William Clawson. Desertion is alleged. The petition states the parties were married at Atlantic, Ia., March 30, 1888.
 In suing for divorce from George B. DeMars, to whom she was married April 7, 1897, at Dakota City, Neb., Mrs. Lovina DeMars makes statutory charges against her husband.

Gypsies in Police Court.

There was a motley array of gypsies of both sexes and of all ages in police court yesterday morning when twelve members of the band charged with the theft of $1,500 from Amelio Mitchell, the head man of the camp, quartered in the western part of the city, were arraigned. In reply to an inquiry from Judge Snyder as to their right names, Melio Marino and Dimitri Owano, Joe Marino, the eldest of the three under arrest, is 46 years of age, and is the father of Melio Marino and Duclen Marino, the latter being the alleged kidnaper of Amelio Mitchell's daughter, Maria. Joe Marino was believed to be with the band of gypsies in Alexandria, Va., but could not be located when Deputy Sheriff McCaffrey reached there. Duclen Marino is the one who is said to have taken away Mitchell's daughter.

Owano, who speaks English fairly well, acted as interpreter. According to the story of the elder Marino, Mitchell's emmity toward him and his boys lies in the fact that his son, Duclen, married the Mitchell girl. He said that if necessary he could produce fifty witnesses to prove that Mitchell had not only not lost the money but knows where it is.

After the preliminaries had been gone through and Assistant County Attorney Ross had filed an information against the three defendants, Judge Snyder continued the hearing until the morning, holding the three men under $500 bail each.

BRYAN MEN BEATEN IN IOWA

Enemies on State Committee Take Convention from Des Moines.

ADVANTAGE ONLY TEMPORARY

C. G. Saunders of Council Bluffs Comes to Des Moines to Plead Case for Negro Once Slave of His Father.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 DES MOINES, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Anti-Bryan men won at the meeting of the state central committee of the democratic party today and fixed the date of the two conventions. The first democratic state convention to select delegates to the national convention is fixed for Cedar Rapids, March 24, with Claude R. Porter temporary chairman. The second convention is fixed for Sioux City July 2, with Representative Tim Clary of New Hampton as temporary chairman. A resolution of endorsement was telegraphed by the state central committee to Bryan. All members were present except Sears of the Eleventh and Kelly of the Sixth.

Bryan men were fighting to keep both in Des Moines. Especially they wanted the first convention to be held there. The first convention will select delegates to the national convention. The Bryan men have already arranged to hold the annual Jefferson day banquet in this city April 2 and had nearly completed arrangements to have Bryan as one of the chief speakers. They planned to hold the first state convention the day following and select the delegates to the national convention. With Bryan on the ground they felt sure that every delegate from Iowa would be a Bryan man. They felt sure that Bryan will carry the state, but the action of the committee admittedly frustrates them.

Bill Worries Des Moines.

The bill now in congress to abolish the suspension agencies over the country is worrying the city of Des Moines, as it will keep about $2,000 away from Des Moines, as that amount is regularly spent here in salaries to the employees of the Iowa-Nebraska station.

Host for Adel Man.

James Wilson of Adel sold his livery stable and farm and with the money left town. His wife has lost track of him since and has asked the Des Moines police to search for him.

Contest at Mount Pleasant.

The state oratorical contest is to take place at Mount Pleasant, Ia., March 8, and Governor Cummins, Auditor Carroll and W. W. Baldwin have been named as the judges, and it is probable that Judge Deemer and G. Walter Barr will be named for the other two judges. All the larger colleges of the state will be represented in the contest.

Picket Candidate for Congress.

IOWA FALLS, Ia., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Hon. Charles E. Pickett of Waterloo is in the city last evening, calling on personal friends and incidentally feeling the political pulse. When asked regarding his aspirations to a seat in the lower house of congress, Mr. Pickett said, emphatically, he was a candidate for congress and was in the race to stay. Mr. Pickett takes a broad-minded view of the situation and to your correspondent stated his views, as follows:

I consider the office of representative in congress from the Third district quite sufficient dignity and importance to be divided on its own merits alone, and that as to all other contests, including the senatorial contest, I shall maintain my neutrality. This position, as stated to my republican friends in Waterloo before and at the time I announced my candidacy and it shall be strictly adhered to.

Guardians in Quandary.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Because the city council has rented the armory for March 17 the officers of Company H, Fifty-sixth regiment, are fearful of a clash with the state, because that date has been announced as the time for the annual inspection of the troops. The itinerary of the inspection officials has been arranged and to change the date for Sioux City will probably necessitate a complete rearrangement of their schedule.

NEBRASKA FROM DAY TO DAY

Quiet and Curious Features of Life in a Rapidly Growing State.

A Present from a Horse Thief—The Anti-Horse Thief association has certainly been effective in the vicinity of Norfolk. A year or so ago farmers around here used to wake up in the morning to find their best teams missing. Obed Raach woke up Tuesday morning of this week to find a team in the barn that he had never seen. It pays to organize when you get that kind of results.—Norfolk News.

Ames—Now for that new depot uptown, and spur leading to it. It can be done and ought to be done. The track could be laid up Cedar street to Fourth avenue and the depot could be located in the 34th street lot, just north of the Fourth avenue hotel. We have no doubt that if the people would build the depot but what the Burlington would put the track uptown. The Commercial club might see if this could be done. At least it would be a nice thing for the city of Red Cloud.—Red Cloud Commercial Advertiser.

The Wolf is Going—Several of our local sports indulged in a wolf hunt last Saturday, but were unable to discover the remotest sign of a wolf. The sport is not dead if it used to be, remarked an old-timer to a Herald reporter, Monday. Twenty-two or three years ago a wolf chase on the Missouri bottom could be participated in without the interference of wire fences and ditches, and it was a common occurrence to see O. N. Hunt, who lived four miles

American Railway Association Favors a Reduction to Twenty-Five Cents.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—The American Railway association at an executive session here today decided to submit to the various roads of the country a proposition to reduce the per diem charge on freight cars to 25 cents instead of 50 cents as at present. A letter vote will be taken on the proposal, which is designed to lessen the heavy expense which the roads claim they are now incurring because of the large surplus of cars in the country. As evidence of the necessity for the change it was stated that the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, for example, had 11,000 cars idle, the Chicago & North western, 4,000 idle cars, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy 12,000 and the Atchafalpa, Topoka & Santa Fe 7,600.

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels.

Old people constantly need them, and the need is a natural one.

You old people—Cascarets are particularly for you. You who don't exercise as much as you used to. You who like the easy chair.

You whose steps are slow, and whose muscles are less elastic. You must realize that your bowels have also become less active.

They need this gentle help every day.

Don't regard Cascarets as physic. They stimulate the bowels just as some foods will do; just as exercise would do, if you took enough of it.

They are not harsh, like salts and cathartics. The help which they give to weak bowels is just as natural and gentle as the spur of youth.

When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with the bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important.

Costive bowels mean that decaying food is clogged there. And the ducts of the bowels sack its poisons into the blood.

You can't feel well until this is corrected. But do it gently—not with a bowel irritant. And do it regularly—once a Cascaret a day.

Coax the weak bowels—don't drive them.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and
