Sixteen Men Selected for Douglas County and Instructed.

ALLMACK CASE IS

County Attorney English Indicates He Will Ask for Death Penalty by His Jurer Examinations.

Peter Daveney, 173 South Twenty-second street, South Omaha; Fred Krebs, jr., 483 Rallroad avenue, South Omaha; A. Love, Benson, Neb.; Thomas Dec, 2005 N street, South Omaha; R. R. Carlin, 4530 North Fortieth street; G. S. Lee, 913 North Twenty-first street; George A. Powell, 2507 Franklin street; C. Hanson, 1311 South Twenty-fifth street; Charles Call, 2324 North Twenty-eighth avenue; P. J. Gaughn, 3419 P street, South Omaha; Ben Jacobson, Vaffey: J. H. Peterson, 1421 South Sixth street; Andrew Jensen, 238 North Twentyfourth street; J. E. Gibbons, 406 North Thirty-ninth street; Henry F. Stoltenberg, Florence: W. H. Crary, 1622 Spencer street. These sixteen men were selected as the county grand jury in Judge Sear's court Monday afternoon. W. H. Crary, a real estate man living at 1623 Spencer, was chosen foreman by Judge Sears and E. M. Robinson was appointed special bailiff.

Judge Sears read his instructions as required by law. Thirteen of the petit jury panel failed to report for duty and Monday afternoon Judge Sears issued an order that they be brought into court forthwith. The delinquent ones are as follows: Henry Jones, A. F. Fagler, H. Poff, L. V. Haskell, W. H. Champenoy, W. M. Karney, E. F. Bachr. A. N. Anderson, E. E. Davis, G. W. Wareham, F. L. Flagg, W. S. ron, Joseph Oster. Allmack's Gloomy Outlook.

That County Attorney English will ask that the death penalty be inflicted on Willis Allmack, who is charged with being an accomplice of Charles Pumphrey and Basil Mullen in the murder of Ham Pak. is indicated by the questions he asked of prospective jurors Monday afternoon. Each uror was asked if he was opposed to the death penalty. If the answer was in the affirmative the juror was promptly excused. A number were allowed to go because their answers were not satisfactory. Several more were excused because they had prejudice against the Chinese race.

The trial of the case was started Monday afternoon and it is hoped the work of selecting the jury will be completed some time Tuesday. T. A. Hollister and W. W. Dodge are defending Allmack.

The charge of Judge Sears to the grand jury was short and contained no startling instructions. After warning the jury to remember the oath of secrecy the court

"You should not allow any one to approach you on the subject of your service or as to any pending matter or any matter that may be called to your attention except in such regular way, that no thought of corruption or of hypnotic suggestion, if I may use the term, could be inferred if it were publicly known. If any attempt should be made to corrupt you from the path of duty you will know it, and it then becomes your duty to report the same to the court."

Judge Sears further, says he knows of no extraordinary reason for the summoning of the grand jury, but he instructs the jury that matters of law breaking are no more under its jurisdiction than matter of non-enforcement of law. Both, he says, should be inquired into.

What the Jury Will Do. The jury is instructed to inquire these matters: The conduct of ferries, elevators in public and other buildings, steam engines and other engineering appliances that affect public safety.

How municipal and city authorities have performed their duties. Whether there are men living in the community who subsist off the earnings women from vice and control such women in a species of slavery. Whether there has grown up a policy of toleration of the presence of chronic offenders with the understanding no offenses shall be committed by them this community during their stay. To what extent pawn brokers are receiving articles known to have been stolen.

Better law enforcement. Bargain Day at Court.

With a new term of district court open ing full blast, a grand jury reporting for service and a petit jury to be impanelled the court house took on the appearance of a department store during a Monday morning fire sale, except the crowds were made up of men instead of women bargain hunters. All forenoon the corridors were crowded with prospective jurors, lawyers

There was no evidence of hard times in the rush of the petit jurors for excuses when Judge Sears called on those who wanted to get away to come forward. Half the panel begged to get off, but only few were successful. Ralph Kitchen of the Paxton hotel was one of these. He presented a physician's certificate that his health was bad.

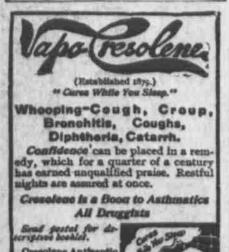

The grand jury will hold its sessions in a room on the second floor of the Bee

MYSTERY IN SHOOTING OF BOY Edward Hoden Says Detectives Shot Him, Captain Savage Says Not.

Louis Hoden, a teamster who lives at 2717 South Fifteenth street, is at the Omaha States circuit and district courts for the General hospital with a builet wound through his shoulder. He says he was shot by detectives who made a raid Sunday on a crowd of youths who have been accustomed to spend Sunday afternoons shooting craps at Fifteenth and Boulevard streets.

Chief of Detectives Savage said he did not believe the young man was shot by the detectives. The latter only shot into the air for the purpose of scaring the youths, he says. He believes the boy was shot in some other way and sought to pass it off by blaming it on the detectives.

Edward Hoden, also a teamster and father of the youth, declares it is an outrage that the officers shot his son. He has called on the chief and at the police station. Young Hoden says he was on his way to skate in Riverview park when he was shot by the officers.
