

PEACE ONLY TO SAVE BRYAN

Jack's Regret That Involves Compromise with Dahlmanism.

LATTER UNSOUND AND OBNOXIOUS

Smith Declares Jim's Started Fight and Jack's End It for Bryan's Sake, Much as They Hate Jimism.

Regretting peace involves compromise with Dahlmanism, which he characterizes as "unsound and obnoxious," saying it "stands for open and unblushing defiance of law..."

The Dahlman Democracy started the trouble. They insisted upon taking two and giving one, and then attempted to dictate whom that one should be. We did not decline to fight for this in any sense. It was different, however, with Rogers. He was regarded as a "dred in the wood" of law and equity of the party...

To fight this we did not think could possibly be construed into an attack on Mr. Bryan, or his policy, or his position as a man. The fact that many of us have been in Mr. Bryan's every battle which he has fought, inside and outside of the party, for the last eighteen years. We thought we could make the ground of our opposition to Dahlmanism...

Regret Losing Mr. Hayden. We regret exceedingly that Mr. Hayden could not be present at the conference. We know that he was selected by the Dahlman Democracy, not because he regarded himself as a "dred in the wood" of law and equity...

MRS. G. E. PRITCHETT IS DEAD

Fatality is Traced to Runaway Accident Four Years Ago.

NEVER WELL SINCE THAT DAY

Funeral Services Will Be Held at the Family Residence Thursday Afternoon—End Comes After Month of Illness.

After an illness confining her to her room for a little more than a month, Mrs. G. E. Pritchett died at the family residence, 2214 Cass street, at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. The funeral services will be held at the home at 3 p. m. Thursday, Dean Beecher of Trinity cathedral conducting the service.

It is believed Mrs. Pritchett's death, at the age of 42 years, was caused indirectly by a runaway accident, which occurred on the Missouri river bridge some four years ago, when she was severely injured. Her friends say she has never been well since and only her strength of will enabled her to be around among her friends and in her regular places during the four years which have elapsed since the runaway.

During the month Mrs. Pritchett's life had been in danger her son, Harold L., was called home from his school in New Hampshire, while a week ago her sister, Virginia C. Hanson, arrived from New York City. Mrs. Pritchett was Harriet G. Hanson, daughter of Andrew J. Hanson, who died in New York almost a year ago and whose name is inseparably connected with the early history of Omaha and Nebraska.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Pritchett are: Marguerite, who is Mrs. John L. Kennedy; George H., whose home is in Wyoming; and Harold L., yet in college. Her brother, Duane Hanson, lives in California, and Virginia C. Hanson, her only sister, in New York City.

Funeral services at the Pritchett home will be simple and informal with the Prospect Hill cemetery, where two children of Mr. and Mrs. Pritchett, who died in infancy, are buried. The pallbearers will be H. W. Yates, J. H. Millard, John C. Kavin, E. A. Cadamy, Luther Drake, F. H. Davis, Major Thomas Swobe and M. T. Barlow.

SHOWDOWN IN SIGHT

The house, however, refused to accept the amendment. In a vigorous speech Mr. Harrison of New York condemned Secretary of State Bryan for his manner of handling the negotiations with Russia regarding the ports of Russian Hebrew citizens of the United States...

Mr. Crumpacker (Ind.) asserted that in extra constitutional and legal matters the president did have authority to incur expenses of this character and he cited the anthracite coal strike commission.

Repeating to Mr. Fitzgerald (N. Y.), Mr. Crumpacker said he assumed the commissioners had not been paid. "But they have been paid," insisted Mr. Fitzgerald. "And it is possible to ascertain from what fund?"

Mr. Tawney challenged Mr. Crumpacker on the strength of his statement as to why the government should pay the expenses of the commission, but Mr. Crumpacker asserted that he was not claiming that the government should pay those expenses.

BABY DIES FROM STARVATION

Lack of Attention for Blundering of Mother.

YORK, Neb., Feb. 11.—(Special.)—Some one of the government's officials or those connected with a hospital in New York City is the cause of the death of a child through starvation, of Mrs. Henry Haver, now a resident of this city, and sister of Mrs. Haver, who died in New York City. FARMER CLAIMS HE IS MAD

Year After Bite of Dog He Insists Influence of Infection is Active.

HERMAN, Neb., Feb. 11.—(Special.)—About a year ago George Tyson, a well-to-do farmer living about five miles south of Herman, was bitten by a dog on the hand. Afterward he went mad and Mr. Tyson came to Dr. Clarke in Herman, who advised him to go to Chicago and take treatment. He started to do this and got as far as Omaha and consulted another doctor, who told him he did not think the poison would amount to much. Tyson took the view and did nothing further about it. Recently he was taken very ill, frothing at the mouth and became afraid of water. He has not eaten anything since last Wednesday night and will not touch a drop of water and if anyone mentions water to him he falls in a fit. Dr. Clarke says he thinks the man has thought about the injury so much and was so sure that he would have trouble from the bite that it has deranged his mind until he now has part of the symptoms of hydrophobia. Dr. Clarke tries to make him think that he has the right in a few days, but Tyson will not listen to the physician.

Repeating to Mr. Fitzgerald (N. Y.), Mr. Crumpacker said he assumed the commissioners had not been paid. "But they have been paid," insisted Mr. Fitzgerald. "And it is possible to ascertain from what fund?"

OPHEUM. I take great pleasure in telling you what a great help it was for me to use Cuticura. I had been suffering for many years with Eczema on my face and neck. I was suffering from that terrible torture, eczema. It was all over my face and neck and it was so bad that I could not hold anything. She cried and scratched all the time and could not sleep. I had been to many doctors and had tried everything. I had her under the doctor's care for a year and a half and he seemed to do her no good. I took her to the best doctor in the city and she stood it that she would have the sores until she was six years old. But if I had depended on the doctor my baby would have lost her mind and died from the want of aid.
