The New Cosmetic-A Wood River girl Griffiths Why in Texas she would think we know anything about it beats us, but it just so happens that we do. Here's the real thing: Grab a basket of freshly washed clothes, stick two clothes pins in the right hand corner of your mouth, three in the other and one in the middle. Go out to the clothes line and hang out seven out to the clothes line and hang out seven sheets, while the wind is blowing twenty-seven miles an hour, without saying a naughty word, and if you don't have a could do was 584, which was a remarkable accomplexion that will make a Madam Yale heartsick with fealousy, try a cake of Score: heartsick with jealousy, try a cake of soap and some sandpaper.-Shelton Clipper.

Prize Porker-We had an item in the paper a few months ago in regard to a hog Jay owned by Tom Grenier, eating 196 cars of corn per day. Well, Tom butchered that hog the other day and it weighed over 1,000 pounds and measured three feet and seven inches high, eight feet and four inches around the chest and seven feet and four inches long and its head after being severed from the body weighed fortyeight pounds. The hog was large enough so it would stand and cat corn out of the high end of a wagon box when the scoop endgate was let down. Now, this is no fish story, it is a hog story. Tom Grenier, Joe Patras and Dave Duncan will all vouch for its authenticity. Who's next? UNION STATION-10th AND MARCY. Clearwater Record.

Not Running a Benefit-George Roman, the butcher, is a mighty mean man, that is some people think so, but strange to say. George don't feel bad about their opininion, but rather enjoys himself over what he calls a good joke. He put a dam into the little creek that runs by his slaughter house this winter intending to put up all the ice he needed for himself and then sell the surplus to help pay for the cost of his dam. Other parties seeing that the best ice had formed on land over which George had no control, proceeded to harvest it without so much as saying thank you for the dam. This didn't just agree with George's idea of the proper thing to do, so after he had finished filling his own ice house he hitched a team to a plug in the bottom of his dam and in about 'steen minutes the ice harvest was over in that neck of the woods. George laughs so hard every time you mention ice to him that he nearly busts a button, and he says the bottom has dropped out of the ice business down by the slaughter house.-Crofton Journal.

GOLD BRICKS PROVE TO BE BOGUS

Pacific Express Company Admits it Bft on the Old Game. SIDNEY, Neb., Peb. 11.-(Special Telegram.)-The two gold bricks which were found in the ruins of the Tobin building and last week sent to St. Louis by Superin tendent George Patterson of the Pacific Express company, under the impression that these gold bricks were stolen in the robbery of the express office in March. 1880, were returned here today and have Chicago Limited 3 300 am at 1:05 pm been pronounced bogus. The whole proceeding is now looked upon as a huge joke and shows how gullible the Pacific Express company was in assuming that these CORNHUSKERS GIG BACK ON GAME Nebraska Says it Cannot Play Creighton Next Fall.

Athletic managers at Creighton university have received word from Manager Eager of the University of Nebraska that he does not think he can give Creighton a foot ball game this fall, as he does not care for any more hard games."

The athletic managers at Creighton resent the imputation that they are trying to arrange a game for Creighton for Omaha for Thankagiving day to keep the Cornhuskers from arranging a game in Omaha. They maintain that at the close of the game with Haskell Indians Thankagiving day they practically agreed for another game with the same team for next Thankagiving day and that the announcement was so made so that there is in no manner any spite work in the arrangements for that game. The Nebraska management has given out the statement that it is trying to arrange for a game at Omaha Thankagiving day between Wabash or some other team and the Cornhuskers and has implied the Creighton management is trying to block that game by announcing a game with the Haskell Indians.

Father Weiss, the Iaculty manager of athletics at Creighton university, says they would like to see the Cornhuskers play in Omaha next fall, as it would go a long ways toward boosting athletios in Omaha and especially at Creighton, but he thinks the game should be agranged for some other day than Thankagiving day, when the Creighton expects to have its new athletic field in conditions for the feel of the content of of the content

Creighton team has a game assured for that day.

Creighton expects to have its new athietic fleid in readiness for the foot ball season. The University of Nebraska wanted a base ball game with Creighton this spring, but that university will have no base ball team, for the reason that the field is torn to pleces and undergoing enlargement and repairs. All efforts will be centered upon foot ball in the fall.

CORNELL AND PRINCETON BREAK Universities Are Unable to Agree on

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. II.—Following disagreements covering a period of several years. Cornell university and Princeton have severed foot ball relations. A statement to this effect was made public here tonight.

Fresident Frank Irvine of the Athletic council, in the statement issued tonight said. 'It is true there wil be no foot ball game between Cornell and Princeton next fail. A three years agreement, made in 1905 has expired. Under this, one game was placed in Princeton, one in New York and one in Ithaca. Princeton had the option of renewing this agreement, but declined to do so. Cornell proposed a home and home agreement, the first Poot Ball Schedule.

meeting to be in Princeton, but Princeton declined to play again in Ithaca at any time and proposed first a one-year and then a two-year agreement for games in New York or Princeton.

"The Cornell faculty and athletic council both oppose contests in large cities on grounds not belonging to the competing universities. For this reason and because Princeton's proposal was deemed by Cornell and admitted by Princeton to be inequitable, it was declined."

Constitution and By-Laws Adopted and Schedule is Incubating. A constitution and by-laws were adopted at a meeting of the Tri-City Base Bail league held Monday night. The constitution was elaborate and covered all points of regulation under which the new league will be conducted. The schedule presented by a committee did not meet with the satisfaction of all the managers present and it was referred back to the committee for correction and transfer of a number of dates. All the managers of the clubs appeared elated over the bright outlook for the success of the venture and many of them presented a number of courracts containing the signatures of promising youngsters who presented a number of contracts containing the signatures of promising youngsters who had been signed for the coming season.

Under the constitution the number of players allowed to each club will be limited to twelve and the names of these must be in the hands of the searctary one week prior to the opening of the season.

The Victor base ball was accepted as the official ball to be used by the league.

It is expected that at the next meeting the schedule will be adopted, after which everything will be in readiness to open the season at the tap of the bell.

Files Suit to Resist Payment of Liquor License Fee.

SEEKS TO ENJOIN OFFICERS Action is Brought as Result of General Order by Fire and Police

> Board Requiring Payment,

To test the right of the authorities to club started a test case in district court Tuesday morning in which the court is asked to enjoin County Attorney English. Chief of Police Donahue and City utor Daniel from interfering with the ouffet department at the club. The suit is the result of the order made by the Board of Fire and Police commissioners last fall, in which it was held clubs must provide themselves with a regular liquor license in order to dispense intoxicating liquors. The petition was filed by E. M. Morseman and George W. Shields, as attorneys for the club.

The petition states in detail the membership and entertainment rules of the club and points out its membership is limited to 500 active members, and that it is a hard matter to get into the organization.

The club, it states, is organized to provide a club house and grounds for social and recreative purposes and the furnishing at Carsonville, near here, was shot and of liquor is incidental and for the convenience of members and not for the purpose of sale or barter or for profit. The money paid for liquor, it is asserted, is put buffet. Under these circumstances, the fill, petition says, the club is not liable for a license fee.

It says, however, the police are threatening to invade the privacy of the club house, make a search for liquor and arrest the officers and employes of the club. Owing to these threats the officers have refused to serve liquor to the members. Ar injunction is asked to prevent the police. the county attorney or Chief Donahue from interfering in any way with the furnishing of liquor at the club house.

The rule of the fire and police board, against which the suit is directed, caused considerable interest when it was adopted last fall. At that time it was estimated fifty clubs in Omaha would have to take out licenses if the rule was enforced. A number of the prominent clubs, including the Omaha club, have decided not to resist the order and have taken out licenses. At that time it was stated by members that

DR. STUART PLEASES CROWD Tennesseean Delivers Interesting Lee ture at Hanscom Park

The last of the series of lectures given inder the auspices of the Baraca club of Hanscom Park Methodist Episcopal church was given at that church Monday evening before a large audience. The ngs, speaker was Dr. George R. Stuart of Tennessee, for about fifteen years a coworker with the late Rev. Sam Jones. The lecture was preceded with a musical selection by the First Congregational church quartet, "Good Night Beloved." The subject of Dr. Stuart's lecture was "Lop Sided Folks." FREDRICKSON ASKED TO GO Invited in Strong Words by Leading Auto Dealers to Leave Their Meeting.

H. E. Fredrickson was invited to "get out of the house" by the leading automobile dealers of Omaha at their meeting Monday night when they were planning for the auto show. He refused to go and there was strong talk of "putting him out." He has taken it on himself, he says, to 'knock the show," and became so loud n his opposition at the meeting the dealers felt they had to take some action to save the meeting from diagrace. Predrickson insisted that the Kansas City show was a failure, but as he had not been there, and Millard D. Hosford of the John Deers Plow company attended the show and reported a large crowd present, with plenty of sales and no sign ;

Fredrickson stated to The Bee Tuesday morning that he was against the show on general principles and would do what he could to prevent it from being held.

The dates decided upon for the show are March 19, 30 and 21 and the place the Audie torium. The fifteen leading local dealers decided to give the show and divide the expense pro rata and the profits the same way. Committees were appointed and these went to work Tuesday morning to report back to a general meeting February 71.
