DANIEL IS HARD TO MOVE

Gets Evidence Handed to Him and Calmly Says He "May Act."

CONDUCT ASTOUNDS THE POLICE

Unable to Account for City Prosecutor Sighting By and Deliberately Passing Up Knowledge of Offense.

Though twenty men appeared in the office of City Prosecutor Daniel Thursday afternoon and accused W. Walls Abbott, president of the Guarantee Reference and Surety company, of defrauding them of $2 each and though Abbott admitted that he had been conducting a fraudulent business, he was allowed to go after promising to pay back to those who appeared the $2 which he had received from them.

Abbott's concern does business with an imposing looking letter head which states the fact it is a "Brain Hunter." The office is on the sixth floor of the Brandeis building.

It is said that more than 100 men applied for positions and paid the $2 fee last week with this agency. Some of those who appeared before the city prosecutor said they had been waiting three weeks for a job. A sample letter in the hands of the city prosecutor reads:

"This will introduce you to Mr. DeLay." Most of Them Had Such Letter. Most of the applicants carried this letter of introduction to C. A. Burns, 1115 Farnam street. They were told he had a large factory on South Twentieth street and was a heavy employer of labor. Burns, incidentally, is secretary and treasurer of the Guarantee Reference and Surety company. Other letters of introduction were to the Jewel Tea company, though these concern say they never sought to get men through the agency.

Abbott said he had bought the business of the employment agency only last December. He left the office of the city prosecutor, accompanied by the men, and later in the afternoon he handed each the $2 in cash which he had received from them.

The nonchalant way in which Daniel has treated this case of open-handed graft, in view of his unbounded zeal in playing the role of detective in recent cases where the man Martin, against whom, it is said, certain officials have some special grudge, was concerned, has simply astounded police authorities. They are unable to account for the course of a city prosecutor, who, when undisputed evidence of a serious offense is handed to him without an effort on his part, indifferently turns and says, "I may file a complaint against these men."

"The Making of a Millennium." Read it! STRAWBERRIES ARE NO MORE Only Few Special Orders In and They Are Sixty to Eighty Cents a Quart.

After the plentiful supply of last week, except for a few crates, the local market was destitute of strawberries Friday morning. The few boxes in were special orders and sold from 90 to 80 cents a quart. The recent rains will have a tendency to advance the price of oranges a little, but the price may not keep up long for March always brings heavy shipments from California and the price drops accordingly. At present oranges are selling from 15 to 25 cents a dozen. It is estimated that the fruit dealers of Omaha will lose from $1500 to $2000 this week on bananas as a result of the cold snap. The result will be that the fruit will be plentiful on the street and it will be cheap.

An unexpected carload of sweet potatoes from Kansas came in this week and they are selling about 5 or 6 cents a pound. Irish potatoes are selling from 75 cents to $1 a bushel. Tomatoes are scarce and of poor quality just now. It being between the Cuban and Florida seasons. They are selling for 75 cents a five-pound basket. All the green stuff is plentiful as usual and there is little change in price.

"Fine young 'broilers' are in market now and they wholesale for $5 a dozen. They will weigh about two pounds each. "Springs" chickens, are selling wholesale for 32 and 124 cents a pound; ducks for 12 cents; geese for 11 cents and turkeys for 18 cents. Guinea hens are the nearest approach to game in market now and sell for 35 cents each.

The best eggs sell from 25 to 30 cents a dozen. Ask for Red Cross - Cough Drops. For sale everywhere. 5 cents per box.

BEST OF WHEAT WEATHER

Nine So Good in Years Has Come to Nebraska, Say Grain Dealers.

Grain dealers of Omaha declare the weather conditions have not been so favorable for many years for wheat as at present. The snow of Thursday night was cheered on the Omaha Grain exchange, and a dealer said:

"The winter rains of the week have been ideal for wheat and this snow and continued mild weather is the making of a wheat crop. In a few days cold weather may come without much damage. We do not want it right away. The snow, if it has been general, is the best thing which could happen. It covers the ground and keeps the soil warm. I think we will have a bumper wheat crop in the west this coming season."
