Corn Showed a Firm Tone and Held Stendy Despite the Heavy Selling at the Start of Trading.

OMAHA, Feb. 15, 1908. Light offerings encourage buying and values are sivanced slower. Cables came higher and much lighter Argentina expeciations were the leading factors. Wheat opened steady, with offerings much lighter and values worked slightly higher on buying, prompted by higher cables. Argentina shuments are expected to higher an buying, prompted by higher cabies. Argentina shipments are expected to be much smaller for the next three weeks and this became a buil factor. May when opened at 25%c and closed at 25%c.

Corn showed a firm tone and held steady,
despite some good selling at the start.

Buils succeeded in boosting values by using the firm cables and the light country arrivals as factors. May corn opened at 55 and closed at 55%c.

Outs were gradually run higher on heavy ouying, mostly by locals, and the influence foit in the strength shown by wheat and corn. May oaks opened at 48%c and closed at 48%c.

Primary wheat receipts were 445,000 bushes and shipments of 205,000 bushess, against receipts last year of 43,000 bushess and shipments of 245 bushess.

Corn receipts were 488,000 bushlis and shipments were 317,000 bushles, against reshipments were 317,000 bushles, against reshipments were 317,000 bushles, against reshipments. Corn receipts were 488,000 bushils and shipments were 317,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 512,000 bushels and shipments of 600,000 bushels.

Clearances were 237,000 bushels of corn, none of oats, and wheat and flour equal to 412,000 bushels.

Liverpoul closed %6,%d higher on wheat and 43d higher on corn.

Seaboard reported 50,000 bushels of wheat and 180,000 bushels of corn taken for caport.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—An advance in the price of wheat at foreign grain centers bad a strengthening effect today on the local wheat market, the May option closing at a gain of Ic. Corn was up $\frac{1}{2}$c, oats were $\frac{1}{2}$c higher and provisions were from $2\frac{1}{2}$c to $\frac{1}{2}$c' higher.

The wheat market opened easy on renewed selling by small houses, but prices soon ralked moderately and throughout the remainder of the day a firmer tone was manifested. The chief reason for the improved tone was the strength of wheat at the leading European markets. A decrease in the movement of wheat in the southwest however, induced some purchases. Shorts were the princeful hidders but the volume. Lincoln Local

The few odes and ends on saic were picked to the property of t seatled weather in the corn belt were the main streugthening factors. Offerings were scattered, but came largely from holders. The close was strong. May opened 16014c higher at 6014c05c, advanced to 614c and closed at 6114c. Local receipts were 60 cars, with one of contract grade.

Trade in oats was again of very small volume. The market was firm in sympathy with the strength of corn. A decrease in receipts, due to wet weather, also had a bullish effect. May opened a shade higher at 603c, cold off to 524,6723c and then advanced to 53c. The close was at 524c. Local receipts were 197 cars.

Provisions were rather weak early in the day, owing to free selling of pork by local longs. Later the market made a substantial rally on buying by puckers, based on a 19c advance in live hogs. At the close May pork was up 2565c at $11274c01120; lard was 5673c higher at $12.5 and ribs were fee higher at $12.5 cars; hogs.

CATTLE—As usual on saturday there were practically no fresh receipts of cattle. The few odds and ends on sale were picked up at just about steady figures. Hoceipts for the week are about 18,500 head, showing an increase of nearly 1,600 head over the previous week and fully 8,000 head over, the second week of February a year ago. Quits a few very good, long-fed cattle are coming but the big buik of the offerings show that feeders are economizing on high priced corn.

common to fair stockers and feeders, ELOGY LOGS—There was a very fair run of hogs
here today for a Saturday and no material change in the general quality of the offerings. In fact, there was very little change in the general conditions surrounding the trade, and for the most part prices were just about in Friday's notches. The demand from packers was possibly a little better than on yesterday, and some of the more destrable grades, showing weight and quality, were a shade to be higher than Friday, but on the light and mixed stuff
there was no material change.

Receipts this week have been liberal,
about 61,600 head, or only a few thousand
less than last week, and some 13,000 head
more than for the same week last year.
The market has been somewhat humpbacked, the high point being on Wednesday and the low spot on Friday. With a week ago prices are now about 15000e lower and pretty close to the low point of the year. Packers have been taking the bogs very freely, considering the excessive supplies, but very little improvement need be expected in the general market until there are indications of a material decrease in receipts.

Receipts for the week foot up in round.

Receipts for the week foot up in round numbers 25.000 head, as against 25.000 head for last week and 25.000 head a year ago. The market has shown very little change throughout the week. On Monday prices declined about 10c on fat lambs, especially those carrying much weight, but since that time the market has improved gradually, so that prices at the close are about 10gHz higher on handy grades of mutton sheep and lambs.

ewes sold up to E. also showing a fair advance over the preceding week.

There has been a very fair country demand for feeding sheep and lambs. Wethers sold up to E. I ambs up to E. 259E. So and yearlings up to E.

In a circular to their customers one firm says: "With the large runs of hogs it would look as if the packers are going to get pienty of pork, and they can produce beef cheaper than they can mutton, and we cansut see where, unless we get extremely light receipts, there will be much change in the market in the near future. However, we think for the lare spring market we will see good prices, as we believe hoth perk and beef will be higher then." Quotations on good to choice fed sheep and lambs: Lambs, M. CONDITION OF OMAHA TRADE

Spring Sales of Omaha Milliners Exceed the Volume of Last Year.

BUYERS ARE OUT IN FORCE

Merchants, with Stocks Low, Place Orders and Activity is Resumed in All Lines-Just Like Last Year.

That the trade of the northwest is on That the trade of the northwest is on the high road to normal conditions was shown during the week by reports of the wholesalers of Omaha.

On every hand it is agreed that the depression during the financial flurry of last tail is a thing of the past and that the cition is for an increasing tolume of basiness until hormal conditions have been reached.

reached. In some branches of trade prosperity is a full measure and other lines show an improvement that promises some satisfactors records at the close of the season. Following the end of the stringency and sell. It also has been demonstrated completely that the average country merchant escaped time effects of the fourly. The people have cash with which to supply their needs and their needs are but as great as ever. More factories are resuming operation every day and the number of unemployed is decreasing and it is believed before long the life, mill and the short force will be the exception.

The feature of the week has been the arrival of the milliners. M. Spiesberger & Son company came to Omaha six years ago from Keekuk, in. It has erected a large three-story building at Elevenia and Farnam streets and occupies every foot of it. It has made the business in Omaha and carleads of the fair dealers in millinery goods have arrived during the week to buy spring goods. Said Mr. Spiesberger Saturday: "We find that from Omaha we have been able to retain all our clif trade and have secured hundreds of new customers. Milliners are now cuming from the Mussissippi river terrifery to omaha and extend to the heart of Colorade. The Dascotas are supplied by Omaha, as well as Nebraska and a part of Kansas."

All this has gine to show that Omaha is the ideal location for wholesale houses, and, deeplie the fact that the jobbers in millinery do not offer to pay the fallroad fare of the customers, as some of the dealers are doing, they are securing the trade because of price concessions which cannot be secured in other markets.

Omaha wholesalers report that the country merchants are coming in with their orders in greater numbers than a year ago, in almost every case they say their stocks are low and must be replenished immediately to care for the demands of their custamers.

E. H. Allen of Alien Bros, said concerning the trade on groceries, which has been normal alnce November 1:

"There have been no new developments to affect trade generally, nor the outlook, but the trade is good, and we understand that on the whole the trade on groceries is from 30 to 30 per cent larger than last year."

on the whole the trade on groceries is from 30 to 30 per cent larger than last While some items seem high in the gro-cery line, some of them are exceedingly hard to get. The condition by items is about as follows: Sugar-Quiet and unchanged, with an easier tone. During the last week raws sold in the east in a few instances at a shade off.

from the activity of a week ago to a de-cided duliness and prices were barely sus-tained. Locally there is an easier tone, with no change in quotations.

Teas—The conditions that characterized the tea market a week ago continue. Everything points to higher prices, with the cheaper grades being actively sought at stiff quotations. All grades are in fair demand at unchanged values.

Spices—The tendency is to firmness, with the market rather quiet. No change quotations.

Rice-Strong and active in sympathy with the advances in the south. The medium and better grades are hard to get at an advance of timic per pound. Farinaceous Goods-Dullness is the feature, with bulk catment selling at 30c per barrel off, due, however, to the mills be-ing overstocked on bulk goods rather than to a material decline in oats.

Taploca—Looking upward; prices firm and unchanged.

Canned Vegetables—There is little change in the general situation. Future peas are higher in the east. Locally the cheaper higher in the east. Locally the grades of peas are hard to get. packers are more persistently than ever en-deavoring to maintain prices all along the line, while the jobbers are just as offlish about buying except in a small way. Strictly standard tomatoes are firmly held there at Soc. Locally there is no change in the quotations.

Canned Fruits—Canned peaches are becoming scarce, Gallon apples continue weak. All lines are moving exceedingly well. No price changes to report.

Canned Fish—Everything firm except. cysters; movement rather slow, at quotas-tions which are unchanged.

Canned Meats—Corned beef 5c up. No other changes; movement only fair.

Dried Fruits—Prunes and raisins easier.
