

HARRIMAN MAY BUILD NOW
Union Pacific, Railroaders Believe, Will Erect Headquarters.
RESULT OF DEFEAT OF MR. FISH Triumph of Harriman Over Former Illinois Central President is Received with Great Interest by Omaha Railroad Men.

"It will be a good thing for Omaha," was the spontaneous expression with which one prominent railroad man received the news that Harriman had announced his latest fight with the Illinois Central, the Illinois Central, a piece of news which has aroused more local interest than any railroad event of recent occurrence.

"It will help Omaha in this way, that certain improvements projected by Mr.
Harriman in this city will now be carried out. You think once of the headquarters building. Well, I believe it is not too much to say that Mr. Harriman will now proceed with his plans for the erection of his new Union Pacific headquarters in Omaha. I happen to know, though I am not at liberty to say so, that in this connection, that he was holding back on this project to see where he was at."

The news of the Harriman-Fish decision was received with much interest at the local Illinois Central and Union Pacific headquarters. Officials at the Illinois Central, it is believed, are not too pleased with the result, that it gave them pleasure.
"Well, Harriman won't want the Chicago Great Western," was one expression. "He won't dare dissolve traffic relations with the Milwaukee and Northwestern and tie up entirely with the Illinois Central, for he can't afford to lose the business from the Northwestern and Milwaukee which he can't get through the Illinois Central," was another expression.

An Absolute Outlet.
The winning of the fight gives Mr. Harriman an assured outlet for his Union Pacific road to Chicago, although, as a matter of policy, it may be years before Mr.
Harriman may want to use that outlet more than he does at the present time.
The Union Pacific is the main artery to the west from Omaha and must rely upon other roads to feed it at Omaha. This the Milwaukee, Northwestern, Chicago Great Western and Illinois Central, all will

HOW TO ADVERTISE OMAHA Stereoscopic Views of City and State —Make City What You Claim.
"One man with a good exhibit of Nebraska products, stereoscopic views of Omaha and other cities and towns of the state, making a tour of the thickly settled sections of the United States, would be the ideal way to advertise and bring results." This is the advertising idea of A. L. Reed, president of the Byron Reed company, whose firm has brought hundreds to Nebraska, perhaps thousands, and done as much to advertise Omaha in many ways as any other firm in the city.

Will Resign That Job at Chadron and Leave the Service of United States Marshal.
Earl Mathews will resign that job of deputy United States marshal up at Chadron and leave the government service entirely March 1.
This information is no surprise to friends of Mr. Mathews, who predicted when he was shifted from the position of chief deputy in Omaha to a field deputyship at Chadron a few weeks ago he would not retain the latter job long.

Who will succeed Mr. Mathews cannot be learned now, as Marshall Warner will say nothing on the subject.

COASTING

Now that the time for coasting and other Winter Sports is at hand, we want to speak a word of WARNING with particular reference to COASTING.
On all streets on which there are street car tracks and on all hills which cross or terminate on streets having street car tracks there is CONSTANT DANGER to those indulging in the exhilarating sport of coasting.
Men and Women, as well as boys and girls, have lost their lives or have been seriously injured by dashing into moving or standing cars on their sleds or travelers.
PARENTS: Why jeopardize the lives of your children by allowing them to coast where the hazard is so great, when there are so many places in this city of hills where this sport may be indulged in with perfect safety?
