Totals.... . 158 16,435 CATTLE—The week closes with the usual small run and there was very little stock in the yards hold over from Friday so that there was nothing doing in the cattle market. Receipts for the week foot up 18,400 head or substantially the same as last week and some 5,500 head less than for the third week of February a year ago. The general quality of the offerings has continued very fair with a liberal percentage of rather desirable beeves and comparatively few strictly poor cattle.

During the first half of the week the trend of values was higher owing to the moderate offerings and the rough weather. Local dressed beef men were all good buyers and prices advanced fully 10215c the first three days of the week. During the latter half of the week with unexpectedly heavy supplies and blockaded roads east, the market weakened off again and practically all of the advance of the fors part of the week was fost. HOGS—Receipts of hogs were unusually liberal for the last of the week and this fact was largely responsible for a drop of about 16c in prices. Eastern markets were heavily supplied and reports from there were decidedly bearish, while the weakness in provisions and the prospects of liberal supplies next week had a very depressing influence on the trade. Receipts for the week, 63,690 head, average up very nearly as large as a week ago and several thousand head heavier than for the corresponding week of last year. Prices have fluctuated considerably during the past six days, but the fluctations have been within a comparatively narrow range and at the close of the week the market is generally signed lower than at the close of last week. Heavy hogs still command a good premium with the inferior, light and underweight loads selling at a discount of sognic. For good hogs of all weights, however, the range is not very wide. Tops sold up to $4.15 today, as against $4.25 yesterday, and the bulk of the trading was at $3.9064.00, as against $4.00. Av. Sh. Pr. No. Av. Sh. Pr.

SHEEP—The week closes with nothing on sale in the sheep division. Receipts for the week number 23,407 head, as against 26,857 head for inst week, and 41,729 head for a year agh. The market, although fluctuating considerably, continued in very fair shape throughout the week. Early in the week prices declined moderately, but later with a decrease in receipts a rather strong bulgs appeared on certain grades only to again be lost toward the close of the week.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Kansas City, Kan, and St. Joseph, Mo., are still without representation in the Western Base Ball league through the fallare today of L. C. Connor and T. T. (Ted) Sullivan to accept today the franchises for those cities granted provisionally at the meeting of the league officials in Omaha on February 19. At that meeting authority was given for the issuance of a franchise to Connor for the Kansas City, Kan, club and to Sullivan for the St. Joseph Mo, club on condition that they should each appear in Chicago today and deposit $2,500 as a guarantee that they would play out the Western league schedule in their territory. Sullivan met the committee, composed of Joseph Cantillon, George Tebeau and N. L. O'Neill, and announced that he did not care to qualify. Connor failed to put in an appearance.

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 21.-(Special.)-Athletics at Wisconsin have again come into their own after the two weeks' rest during examination week. The men who will represent the Badgers have fared protty well, there being fewer conditions than ever and the outlook is now bright for a prosperous year.

The bringing of the Chicago game to Wisconsin is the one topic of conversation among the students, there is great rejoicing as a result. Last year, when the possibilis ties of the Chicago game were discussed, it was generally believed that this "plum" would be plucked on Marshall field, so that the announcement came as quite a surprise. Wisconsin will meet Minnesota at Minneapella on November 7, the Chicago game following a week later. Some criticism was heard in regard to the arranging of two games within eight days, but it was the the same period.

It is not likely that more than conference college game will be scheduled colleges. Negotiations are now under way for a game with Coach Catlin's eleven at Iowa, but nothing has been definitely setbe given a whack at the Badgers, although the thing is still hanging in the air. The students here are hoping that a game can be arranged with the Catholic Institution. for they are tired of the taunts of equality that emanate from Milwaukee. Wisconsin could not hope to gain any prestige from the game, for it is commonly accepted that Marquette does not make any pretense of adhering to the eligibility rule.

Seven-Game Schedule.

It is hoped here that the seven-game schedule goes through, although the members of the faculty of the Badger institution are reticent about the matter. The possible switching of Chicago may decide the balance in favor of the adoption of the seven games. It is not likely that the faculty here will change their vote, how-

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 22.—(Special.)—
It is believed here that the lowa High School Athletic association is in imminent danger of dispution unloss a local Bismarck shall arise to control the situation. Ida Grove, Sloux City and LeMars are involved in a dispute which has already resulted in the withdrawal of LeMars from the state association, and which involves serious charges of breaches of the eligibility rules by the Sloux City authorities. Last fall "Pat" Coffey left LeMars college to attend the Sloux City High school, and, entering in the middle of the semester, immediately began playing on the foot ball team. Ida Grove, winners of most of the state championships on the gridiron and track for the last three years, preferred charges of professionalism against Coffey and charged the Sloux City nuthorities with sanctioning the matter. This was taken up at the meeting, of the board of control of the association and was denied by Principal Whitley of Shoux City, who said that Coffey was a regularly enrolled student and was still in attendance on the high school board, so LeMars slleges, and no action taken. The incident attracted state-wide interest, and the members of the high school board, so LeMars slleges, and no action taken.
