EVENTS ON THE RUNNING TRACKS

Miss Strome, 2 to 1, Wins the Fifth Race at New Orleans, NEW YORK. Feb. 28.—Like that of the American league, the National league season will open April 14, but will close one day carlier, October 7. Each club, however, will play 154 games. As arranged in the American schedule, the eastern and western clubs of the Nationals will open in their own territory, Boston playing at Brooklyn, New York at Philadelphia, Chicago at Cincinnati and Pittsburg at St.

In their own territory, Hoston playing at Brooklyn, New York at Philadelphia, Chicago at Cincinnati and Pittsburg at St. Louis. Holiday dates have been nicely determined by the schedule committee, Cincinnati being the only place to which it was found impossible to allot one. Some recompener for shartcomings in this respect is made, however, by giving Cincinnati sixteen Sunday games at home.

The two leagues finished their business seasions and adjourned today and the National commission also ended its work by adopting the amended rules relating to the purchase of players which were suggested at the meeting in Cincinnati last month. At the less sealon of the National league it was decided that all admission tickets to games this season must bear the union label, and a resolution was adopted approving the action taken by the American league and the National commission on the question of invasion of territory.

The preorgative, previously beld only by a pitcher, to soil a ball before it was put into play, received its death thrust at the hands of the joint rules committee. As the rule now stands, a pitcher may not rub a ball on the ground or any portlen of his ciothing and may only soil it with hands.

It was decided also that "a sacrifice hit was decided also that "a sacrifice hit was processed and may only soil it with his hands.

They don't know him, but are willing to take him on his rep. He is said to have held off big Hack for an hour. Passing that by, it probably is safe to say he's one of the best and his match with Gotch on the eve of the latter's meeting with the Russian Lion, whom Bransfield will train, will be sufficient to fill the Auditorium. There may be argument in the theory of changing the batting order to improve the team hitting and run getting, but there certainly is argument on the other side. Note the Cubs' lineur, which has won two straight pennants: Slagle. Sheckard, Schulte, Chance, Steinfeldt, Tinker, Evers, Kling and pitcher, And that is the way they will bat this year, too.

BANQUET AT STOCK EXCHANGE

Three Hundred from School of Agriculture Given Practical Insight Into the Ment Packing

Industry.

Nearly 300 students of the University of Nbraska School of Agriculture paid day. The body arrived on a spacial train the advance Spring Styles that were about 9 o'clock and immediately divided about 9 o'clock and immediately divided 594 into three squads for the greater con-474 venience in visiting the yards. Omaha Live Stock exchange. The work in the school during the year and the objects of the visit to South Omaha has shown considerable departure from the objects of former years. is due to the fact that the university is emphasizing the value of a complete knowledge of the animal diseases. This is one of the far-reaching results of the Tot. 597 government reforms in inspection and methods in slaughter houses. It is hoped that the instruction at the sch take the question back to its source and clean up the farms and herds. In this 2,774 direction special exhibits were laid out at Swift and Company's plant. Twelve head of cattle known to be diseased were sent to the house several days ago under the direction of Dr. A. T. Peters and these had been slaughtered and the diseased parts made into an exhibit. Besides these several diseased hogs and sheep were shown for the instruction of the young men. The packing companies made full exhibits of the various products of the packing industry with a view to showing the clean and up-to-date methods and the conomy of waste. Swift and Company, which company has entertained the students for many years on these annual trips, took special pains to provide guides and show all points of interest.

The young men have looked forward to this trip for many months. It was said this year has been one of the most encouraging in the history of the school. During the afternoon many of the stu-NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—It is announced that Henry J. Danells of Chicago, is on his way to New York to meet Charles M. Danells in a series of match swimming races at distances up to 300 yards to take place at the Sportsman's show at Madison Square dents visited Omaha. They returned to finish of ice cream. All of these were served in entirely informal style, much like the home table. The reason for this was the limited time for the enjoyment. Short Talks at Banquet.

Prof. H. R. Smith introduced the speakers with appropriate remarks. The first speaker was Prof. Jones of the Iowa Agricultural school, who is now working up the international corn show to be held in Omaha next fall. He spoke for several minutes on the subject of corn and its value in agriculture. He introduced his remarks with some good stories. In the increased value of land, he saw the great necessity for the farmer to intensify his methods and at the same time to save the fertility of the soil. He suggested that the present discrepancy between the high price of corn and the comparatively low price of hogs was due to greater varieties of uses to which corn is being put in the food products. There are at present 150 varieties of foods made from corn. He closed with a plea for co-operation in the exposition of all the problems in corn production to be presented, such as climate, latitude, altitude, which are to be illustrated in the coming exposition. Following him, Bruce McCulloch of the Journal-Stockman emphasized the need of a market and the fact that the packing industry had been builded upon the things which were formerly lost. He quoted figures to show the volume of business in South Omaha during the last twenty-five years. The yards have received 18,000,000 cattle, 59,000,000 hoge, 19,099,000 sheep and 500,000 horses. The value of the live stock last year was $100,000,000 on the hoof.

Peter Jansen, known as the "sheep king" of the state, made an address which was very greatly applauded. He said: "I know of nothing which appeals to me more than a body of young men. I have not forgotten how to be young yet." After remarks on the necessity for clean men and clean methods in agriculture he spent some time on the topic of sheep raising on the farm. He said the breeding of sheep had a strange effect on the people engaged in the occupation. "No one can raise sheep who will not be moved to more gentle impulses." He advised the young men to stick to farming and increase the raising of stock. Everett Buckingham of the Union Stock Yards company invited the students to return and make themselves welcome at any time. The excursion returned to Lincoln at 8:30 p. m.
