CONDITIONS OF OMAHA TRADE

Another Month of Spring Merchants' Meetines with Increased Sales.

OUTLOOK FOR SPRING RECORD

Wholesalers Expect Largest Business in Their History on Dry Goods, Shoes, Paints, Oils and Wall Paper.

Wholesalers of Omahs have just a month until the spring merchants meetings are at an end. The merchants have been coming to Omahs for almost six weeks. But the next four weeks will see the big buying as it is believed the weather will be mere settled.

It is now time to pack away the winter goods, or at least put them is the background and clear the decks for action in the spring trade line. The trade on spring goods will be beavy. It has picked up during the last week. The merchant who persistently continues to keep winter goods out in his windows in the hope of cleaning up will lose money according to the whole-salers.

ap will lose money according to the whole salers.

Within a few days the spring idea will be thoroughly in the minds of the people. They will not be interested in anything else. Worm and sunny days are coming and the trade during the week has indicated that the successful merchants will be ready to meet the damanda. The wholesalers have anticipated their customers wants and have been displaying the newest things in spring merchandise.

Formal Opening Soon.

Formal Opening Soon. Formal spring openings will not be an-nounced for several weeks, just before Easter perhaps, but the trend of trade is to prepare for the openings and put spring goods out every day between now and the big day.

Spring dress fabrics are selling fast with the dry goods wholesalers as they are usually the first thing to be put out in the windows of country merchants. The early showings in Omaha have led to large early showings in Omaha have led to large and early sales.

In the shoe line the spring goods are going out and the progressive merchant is putting them into the windows. The wholesalers are sending out special lists for March, covering almost every line.

The fact that Easter does not come until late this year will be an advantage in some ways. All the argument can be used as early as usual. The buying will continue longer in the country and sales will be some larger. Easter is sometimes the cut-off point between spring and summer and the spring goods will be well sold out by April 19.

Traveling men arrived in Omaha Saturday morning from all directions. They reported the best conditions in the country and merchants feeling good. They start out Monday with the very last of the spring samples and lines of summer goods.

Paints and Olis Early.

Paints and Olls Early.

Interest has been awakened in paints, oils and wall paper. The indications are that the spring demand for wall paper will be the heaviest in years. Some large orders for immediate delivery have been beened. booked.

One of the reasons for selling wall paper and paints early is the fact that many new buildings have been erected and finished during the winter. But few days have been lost. The carpenters have completed their work and the hundreds of new buildings have been completed. The painters and paper hangers will begin at once, and with continued good weather will consume a large amount of Omaha paint and wall paper before the usual time for beginning work.

wall paper before the usual time for beginning work.

The burning of a large heavy hardware house at Sloux City necessitates the cooperation of the Omaha dealers to assist in filling orders which had to be shipped at once. The Omaha dealers treated the Sloux City house with the greatest courtesy and all orders forwarded to Omaha were shipped Friday evening and Saturday
Many changes in prices have been made.

Grecers continue to sell good orders, with few changes in prices. The demand is heavy for the better class of goods, and cheap articles have little or no place in the lists.

Conditions of Grocery Trade. The following is the summary of the enditions during the week as an Omaha wholesale grocer; Sugar—Dull and easy, with eastern buy-ers shy and values 1-16 cent off. Locally the decline is 10 cents per cwt. Coffee—The eastern skuation on Rios is Coffee—The eastern skuation on Plos is altogether satisfactory. The bull interests are endeavoring to prop up values.

contending that general conditions warrant a strong market. However, the hears pushed Rio prices down 5010 points, aided by weak foreign advices. Santos prices held firm. Locally the market is steady and unchanged.

Teas—Despite the small visible supply and generally strong situation, prices of the better grades do not seem to make any headway toward an advance. The market continues steady at unchanged quotations, with the movement mostly in a small way. The medium and lower grades are having the call and are in lightest supply, some say scarce and hard to get.

Canned Fruits—Peaches and gallon apples have evinced a little more activity, during the last week. Other lines quiet, with no price changes. Until packers announce the 1208 prices there is not likely to be much change in quotations in the canned fruit line. Jobers report that the conservative buying of late is no different than other years at this season. No one wants to be overstocked at this late date will be.

Canned Vegetables—Peas are scarce and higher. Corn and tomatoes are being offered by eastern packers at sight concess.

higher. Corn and tomatoes are being of-fered by eastern packers at slight conces-sions, with the trading confined principally to small lots. Locally, goods are moving well at unchanged figures, except some odd-lots of corn that can be bought under the market.

well at unchanged figures, except some odd lots of corn that can be bought under the market.

Canned Fish—The firm tendency still continues, with holdings generally light. There is no special activity to report and prices are unchanged, but the Lenten and spring demands are expected to stimulate the canned fish business considerably.

Sait Fish—Herring of all kinds are very cheap, in fact they have not been so cheap before in years. With the Lenien season at hand, together with the economy argument, large quantities will doubtless be consumed during the next sixty days, so it looks as though herring at present quotations would be a safe purchase. Mackerel are firm, with a tendency to advancing prices. In fact, with the exceptions of herring, fish is not overly plentiful. The local price lists are unchanged.

enterprising German weekly has issued a souvenir number which is creditable to the city of Omaha as well as to the publishers of the paper. It is in magazine form, with a cover that is artistic indeed. On the front page is a fine sketch of the bustling industrial activities topped with a landscape photographic view of Sixteenth street with some of the representative buildings and the interior teems with excellent illustrations and reading matter. One of the features of the paper is a large collection of leading attorneys' photos grouped about that of the venerable dean of the profession, Judge Eleazer Wakeley, who at Si, has had his first picture taken in twenty years.
