MAGNATE'S DAUGHTER BRIDE

Marriage of Miss Cornelia Harriman to Robert L. Gerry.

ESSENTIALLY AMERICAN MATCH

Ceremony Performed by Rev. Dr. W. R. Huntington, Pastor of Grace Episcopal Church, New York City.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Miss Cornelia Harriman, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harriman, was married at noon today to Robert Livingston Gerry, son of Commodore and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry, of New York. The ceremony was at Grace Episcopal church and the wedding was one of the most brilliant of the many notable ones which have marked the New York social season.

The beautiful old church, whose graceful spire and quaint gables close make a picturesque break in the crowded shopping and business district at Broadway and Tenth street, was thronged with members of the social and financial world of the metropolis and superbly decorated with greens, almond and peach blossoms and pink roses.

The bride was given away by her father and the officiating clergyman was the Rev. W. R. Huntington, pastor of Grace church, assisted by the Rev. J. H. McGuinness of Arden, where Mr. Harriman's country place is located, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rt. Rev. W. C. Doane, the bishop of Albany.

Attendants and Grooms. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Harriman, the bride's sister and the bridesmaids were the Misses Ruth Averill, Marlon A. Clark, Margaret Dix, Elsie Howland and Anita Peabody. The bride's gown was of white satin, trimmed with point lace of Del Venin, and she wore a Louis XV veil of point applique. The color scheme of the wedding was pink, the bridesmaids between gowned in peach colored chiffon over tulle silk of the same hue, the brown plumes of their brown hats being tipped with peach. Mrs. Harriman wore a superb costume of pale mauve chiffon, embroidered with hat of the same color. The best man was Peter Goebl Gerry and the ushers were Robert Goebl, Bradlee G. Johnson, William Stackpole, Frederick Kermoehan, Munson Morris, William Averill Harriman, all of New York, and A. Arion Davis and John S. Ames of Boston.

After the ceremony, a breakfast and reception was held at the Harriman residences and there the scheme of decorations was yellow, consisting largely of delicate forsythia and yellow rose, while the illumination scheme was arranged as to give the effect of softened sunlight.

The union of these two prominent families is given peculiar interest by the fact that it is essentially an American marriage. There have been no foreign intermarriages in either family for more than a 100 years.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 3.—Governor Hughes today sent to the assembly a message declining to give the name of the alleged gambler, whose letter, published yesterday morning, implied that money would be used to prevent the enactment of anti-race track gambling bills.

"I gave no credence to any report that the members of your honorable body would be deflected from their manifest duty by any attempt, if any such were made, on the part of those who have vast interest at stake in the matter, to corrupt the judgment," says the message. "I have implicit confidence that the legislature will carry into effect the mandate and will purge our state of this source of misery and vice, which exists only because of the will of the people flatly declared in the fundamental law has not been carried into effect."

Without comment the message was laid on the table.

Under its terms they agree to complete a spur from the property to the Northwestern road before September 1, 1908, and to pay not more than $50,000 tons of coal per annum until at least 5,000,000 tons of coal has been mined. RAILROADS MUST STAND TRIAL

Second Count of Bill in Utah Coal Conspiracy Case Upheld by Court.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 3.—The most interesting result of the investigation made by the Interstate Commerce commission in 1906 of an alleged combination to control the marketing of coal was the indictment of the Utah coal companies, the Utah Pacific Railroad company, the Union Pacific Railroad company, the Oregon Short Line Railroad company and others for conspiracy. The jury found that the defendants had refused to deliver coal to D. J. Sharp, a Salt Lake dealer, presumably because Sharp had made a contract with the retail price. The defendants demurred to this count of the indictment and the demurrer was sustained today by Judge Marshall. On a second count, that of combining to fix prices in violation of the Sherman law, the demurrer was overruled and the defendants held to trial.

DRAGNET FOR ANARCHISTS

Companion of Averbuch Secured by Chicago Detectives.

DEAD MAN'S SISTER TELLS STORY

Her Family is of Orthodox Jewish Descent and Never Implicated in Revolutionary Matters Before.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The possibility of deporting avowed anarchists was brought to the attention of the United States District Attorney Sims today after it had been discussed by city officials gathered at Chief Shipley's home. The federal official declared himself willing to take any steps warranted by evidence which may be presented to him, and added that the reopening of the federal grand jury this morning makes that body available for any action that may be necessary to hasten possible cases.

Harry Goldstein, secretary to the Edelstadt group, whose headquarters at 427-1/2 Union street were raided yesterday, was arrested at Hill street and West Fourteenth streets this afternoon.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Leodore Maron, 20 years old, a Russian Jew, known as the "curly haired boy," companion of Lazarus Averbuch, the anarchist, who was shot and killed yesterday in an attempt to assassinate Chief of Police George M. Shipley, was arrested today near Averbuch's home by Detectives O'Connell and O'Brien of the chief's office.

Maron is the young man who is known by the police to have attended an anarchist meeting at Workman's hall with Averbuch last Sunday night, and who is declared by the police to have been the slain assassin's most intimate companion. Maron and Averbuch were together throughout the meeting and are said to have left the hall together after the meeting was over. After his arrest Maron was taken to the Maxwell street police station and closely questioned. For a time he refused to admit his identity, but finally acknowledged that he had known Averbuch for some time and that they had attended anarchist meetings together. A considerable anarchist literature was found in his possession when he was searched at the station.

According to Detectives O'Brien and O'Connell, Maron went to the homes of a number of persons living in the immediate vicinity of Averbuch's home early today and made inquiries as to Averbuch. Maron, the police say, cannot read English and speaks the language badly. After he had been questioned at the Maxwell street police station, Chief of Police Shipley and Assistant Chief Schuetter were notified of his arrest, and they ordered that the man be taken at once to the city hall. A patrol wagon was immediately called and Maron was quickly transferred to Assistant Chief Schuetter's office.

FOUR PERSONS UNDER ARREST

In addition to Maron, three other persons are being held by the police in connection with the attempted assassination of Chief Shipley.

Their names are Olga Averbuch, 22 years old, a sister of Chief Shipley's assassin; Theodor Kontorov, a bartender in the employment of the Mary Adams and Edward Berman, 40 years old, a cobbler. Berman, with William D. Siegel, a business partner, was arrested early today after the police had intercepted a telephone message. A sergeant was using the telephone when he was told by Olga Averbuch, the sister of the dead assassin, is being held at the woman's quarters at the Harrison street police station. She slept but little during the night, crying most of the time. Detectives worked all night in a futile attempt to get some trace of the young anarchist who was killed at the residence of Chief of Police Shipley yesterday, was questioned by the police this morning regarding her brother's habits and companions.

According to attendants at Augustana hospital where Harry Shipley was taken yesterday after having been shot by Averbuch, the young man passed a good night. His condition had improved slightly during the night and he was resting quite comfortably. He slept two hours during the early morning.

Joseph Freedman, a Jew, 25 years, was arrested on Yap Buren street car at State street this morning because he remarked to a fellow passenger: "I see they tried to kill the chief. They ought to kill him and a lot more like him." Olga Averbuch, the young girl, was an anarchist who was killed at the residence of Chief of Police Shipley yesterday, was questioned by the police this morning regarding her brother's habits and companions.
