FRUIT SHOW OVER THE RIVER

Herticulture Congress in Council Bluffs, with Corn in Omaha.

PLANS FOR THIS NOW ON FOOT

Pottawattamic and Douglas Only Counties to Have Own Exhibits at the Auditorium in December.

Pottawattamie county, Iowa, and Dougas county, Nebrasks, will be the only counties with exhibits of their own at the National Cern exposition in Omaha next December. Prof. P. G. Helden and Prof. J. Wilkes Jones will meet the business men of Council Bluffs and leaders in agriculture of Pottawattamie county in Council Bluffs Tuesday evening.

Besides arranging for the exhibit from the big lows county across the river there are plans for holding the Herticultural congress, which is to be in connection with the corn show, in Council Bluffs. . The original plan was to have a fruit display with the corn show in the Auditorium of Omaha, but the state exhibits are asking for space and Council Bluffs has many interested in hortfcultural exhibits. It is possible the fruit display will be in the armory across the river and a program arranged, which will be given in the Pottawattamie county court house. Luther Burbank, probably the greatest horticulturist in the world, will either attend the congress or send a large exhibit from his California farm, while others who will assist in the big show will be Prof. L. H. Bailey of Cornell college, C. H. Harpurpose of leaning money on jewelry, rison of York and Peter Youngers of

> Following the lineup of the Iowa agriculturists announced by Governor Cummins Saturday the management of the corn exposition has received word from John Fields, vice president of the National Corn association, that Oklahoma will be at Omaha with a big exhibit. Mr. Fields is editor of the Oklahoma Farm Journal at Oklahoma City and his been preminently identified with the national corn shows in years past.

The states now interested in the corn show are:

Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado, Minnesota Kentucky, Indiana, Wisconsin with exhibits at Omaha are:

and Nebraska

States which will likely be represented

Pennsylvania, California, New York, Wyoming. Idaho, Montana. The Canadian government has already promised an exhibit, while it is expected that the Canadian farmers who will enter exhibits of grain will exceed the number from any state of the union except the City Engineer Resewater talked to the business men and again assured them of his willingness to co-operate. The street cleaning department will be the next to receive attention and the council will be asked to pay less money and get better workers.

GORST SCORES THE MAYOR Methodist Presiding Elder Declares Him to Be Violator of the Law.

"Mayor Dahlman is a violator of the law," said Rev. William Gorst, presiding elder of the Omaha district of the Methodist church, after the meeting of the Ministerial union at the Young Men's Christian association rooms Monday morning. "No matter what the supreme court may decide in reference to the blue laws, the law is now on the statutes and has been held to be right, and when they are not enforced these charged with their enforcement are violators of the law."

Considerable discussion was had at the meeting as to whether the Ministerial union should back up its committee in the communication which was sent to the mayor and city council last week. The question was decided by the union adopting the report of the committee. The report of the committee was that it had sent the following communication to Mayor Dahlman:

To His Honor, Mayer James C. Dahlman, Omaha, Nebraska: Dear Sir-There is on the statute books of the state of Nebraska, a law prohibiting unnecessary labor on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday.

This law has been and is violated by some of the citizens of Omaha, which fact has been called to your attention and you have instructed your police officers to make ar-rests and enforce this law.

There is at this time a case in the supreme court of the state, appealed from Douglas county, where a complaint was made against a violator of the statute and he was found

Pending the decision of the court in this case your police officers have relaxed their efforts to enforce the law, which, in our opinion, is a procedure unwarranted.

We, therefore, demand that you exercise your authority as mayor of the city and use the power of your office to close such places of business and pleasures as grocery stores, barber shops, theaters, etc., and all places where unnecessary labor is employed. To this end we pledge our hearty support, B. F. FEILLMAN JOHN F. FOUCHER DAVID R. TURNBULL H. J. KIRSCHSTEIN F. W. LEAVITT NEWMAN H. BURDICK. Committee on social service, Omaha Minis-

Committee on social service, Omaha Minis-terial union, Omaha, March 7. It was decided to continue the committee. Mayor Dahlman states his position in "I have issued one order for a rigid enforcement of these laws. Under that order some 20 complaints have been issued. Now, until these complaints are tested in the court and we get a ruling on them what is the use to issue another order and continue to pile up complaints? Can't we afford to be same and reasonable? This is nothing over which good men should lose their tempers and call each other bad names.

Nature has instilled in man an appetite for a stimulant. Since the beginning of time man has used some kind of stimulating beverage. Today we use coffee, tea. beer and ardent spirits. From every reasonable standpoint there is no denying the fact that pure beer is the most desirable of all. It is the only beverage that has food value and contains such a small amount of acohol as to make it helpful instead of dangerous to the human system. Thinking people are beginning to advocate more liberal laws governing the sale of beer as being the only solution of the temperance question. Good beer (Storz Blue Ribbon Beer) is a better stimulating heverage than ten or coffee. Its moderate use will assist instead of hindering you in building up a robust constitution.
