RECONSIGNMENT CASE IS UP

Fight Resumed by Sunderland Bros. Against the Railroads.

LYON COMES FROM WASHINGTON

Special Examiner of Interstate Commerce Commission Will Be Here Saturday to Take the Testimony.

Special Examiner Lyon of the Interstate Commerce commission is scheduled to arrive in Omaha Saturday to take testimony in the case brought by Sunderland Bros. and others against the railroads to prevent the enforcement of the rule requiring dealers to pay $2 per car in making reconsignments.

But it is likely the rehearing will be postponed to give the petitioners more time to prepare for testimony. Rumors that the case has been dismissed and the petition withdrawn were denied Wednesday by Francis A. Brogan, attorney for the coal and lumber dealers, who says that the case will be pushed.

Since the petition was filed the railroads, for the most part, have withdrawn or modified the rule. Only one or two are attempting to collect the full fee.

The Northwestern and Washab are not charging any fee for reconsignment, while others are charging $2 to $5. But even the modification does not appear satisfactory to the coal and lumber dealers, according to their attorney. There should be no charge at all for reconsigning a car before it arrives at its first destination, and there should not be a charge for a car which is reconsigned at once upon its arrival.

The testimony which will be given by the coal and lumber dealers in the case will likely bring out other questions which may cause shippers to make a general attack on the local rates in Nebraska, which they declare to be excessive and unreasonable in comparison to the through rates to Omaha.

The fuel and material dealers admit that there should be an extra charge for reconsigning a car of lumber, coal or other material besides the demurrage, after the car has stood in the yards seventy-two hours or more, but the dealers and shippers should not be compelled to pay the sum of the two local rates on the car, which would make the cost of transportation excessive and if enforced would raise the price of coal in all interior points in the state dependent on Omaha for the fuel supply.

The case involves so many questions which have a close relation to the reconsignment charge that the shippers desire more time, and it is possible that Special Examiner Lyon will be asked to postpone his visit to Omaha.

NOW FOR THE BIG AUTO SHOW

Auditorium Being Put in Order for Display of the Horseless Vehicles.

Decorators, electricians, garage men, carpenters and half a hundred other workmen were busily engaged Tuesday afternoon changing the big building from an amphitheater for wrestling matches to a bower of beauty for the third annual show of the Omaha Automobile association.

Superintendent Franck had a large force of men at work all night after the wrestling match removing the chairs, wrestling platform, raised seats, cloak rooms and other evidences of past use of the auditorium that all might be in readiness for the big show which opens Thursday morning and holds forth for the balance of the week.

Purple and white are the shades used in the color scheme of decoration. Long stretches of pennants adorn the top of the building and considerable money is being spent to make the building beautiful. Additional electric lights are being installed that all parts of the machines may be examined at the evening performances.

The stage will be a new and moving picture exhibit, the huge white curtain being already in place. Booths will be separated by large enameled pillars, illuminated and thus visitors may pass from one booth to another.

Among the out-of-town exhibitors at the show will be Frank L. Woodard, manager of the Woodward & Burgess enterprises. Two Platin cars, a touring car with a limousine body and a runabout, made by the Delahaye-Platin company of Paris, will be shown by Mr. Woodard. He left Kansas City Wednesday morning to personally exhibit his cars, which arrived at first, but when it was decided to give a show at all dealers but one entered into the spirit of the game and have been hard at work for some weeks to make it a big success.

The show will be especially interesting to all owners and to dealers from the surrounding territory as well. Woodard will exhibit automobiles be shown, but also all the accompanying parts and accessories. Motorcycles will be shown, as well as a complete line of automobile clothing.

Building Permits. J. Sander, Twenty-fifth and Taylor streets, frame dwelling, $1,100; J. S. Klemme, Seventeenth and Laird streets.

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels. Old people constantly need them, and the need is a natural one.

You old people—Cascarets are particularly for you. You who don't exercise as much as you used to. You who like the easy chair. You whose steps are slow, and whose muscles are less elastic. You must realize that your bowels have also become less active. They need this gentle help every day.

Don't regard Cascarets as physic. They stimulate the bowels just as some foods will do; just as exercise would do, if you took enough of it. They are not harsh, like salts and cathartics. The help which they give to weak bowels is just as natural and gentle as the spur of youth.

When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with the bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive bowels mean that decaying food is clogged there. And the decay of the bowels sends its poisons into the blood. You can't feel well until this is corrected. But do it gently—not with a bowel irritant. And do it regularly—once Cascaret a day. Coax the weak bowels—don't drive them.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and Ten Cents per Box

C. E. CLAPP BURIED IN OHIO

Body Will Be Taken to Warren, Birthplace of Omaha Lawyer.

The funeral of Attorney Charles E. Clapp, who fell dead from apoplexy on the street in Council Bluffs Tuesday afternoon probably will be held Friday afternoon from his late home, 119 South Thirty-fourth street. The body probably will be taken to his former home in Warren, O., for interment.

These arrangements, however, are not definite. Final arrangements will be made Thursday morning, when the relatives from out of the city arrive. The father of the deceased, M. F. Clapp, is of Warren, O., and his brother, Ford M. Clapp of Cleveland, O., will reach Omaha Thursday morning. Mrs. Clapp's sister, Mrs. J. B. McMahon of Fort Riley, Tex., will also arrive on Thursday.

Mrs. Clapp, who was ill at the time of her husband's sudden death, is still in a serious condition, though resting easily.

Announcements of the Theaters. "Way Down East" will be the attraction at the Krug theater for the remainder of the week starting tonight.

Tonight Omaha is to have the first chance to see "Brown of Harvard," the college play that has been so much talked of in the east during the last two seasons, and which the west has so patiently waited for. The patience is to be rewarded by the appearance of Henry Woodruff and the original cast in the play, which will be put on with all its details. The engagement lasts until after Saturday night, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

"A Knight for a Day," the latest and greatest of the Whitney successes, has only been seen in New York and Chicago so far, but Omaha is to have an opportunity to enjoy this combination of music and comedy and hilarious fun. Beginning on Sunday evening it will be at the Boyd theater until after Wednesday night, with a matinee on Wednesday afternoon. Seats are now on sale.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sautter at Rest.—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Sautter, who, with her husband, Christian Sautter, settled on the present site of Albright in 1866, and who died Monday evening, was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home, 284 Poppleton avenue, Rev. More Arrests for Hauling Dust.—Three more arrests were made Wednesday of men who were sweeping their sidewalks after the hour of 8 a. m. which is against the rule passed by the city council recently. The men arrested last Saturday for fracturing this ordinance were discharged with a warning, but offenders who are brought up in the future will be fined.

Asphalt Bids Are Lower.—While the specifications call for one-fourth inch more "binding" and one-fourth inch more "topping," the bids for asphalt paving opened by the city clerk before the council Monday evening were 4 cents lower than what was bid on the last work let. Asphalt paving contractors bid $1.39 for paving Hamilton street, brick, however, being designated, but Monday evening the lowest bids were for $1.85.

Out of One Trap Into Another.—Jim Conroy, a Greek, who operates a restaurant at 1615 Howard street, was discharged in police court Wednesday morning after the hearing of the case against him charging him with selling liquor on Sunday. But as he turned away he found a United States marshal at his elbow, who immediately served a warrant on him from the federal court charging him with selling liquor without a license.

Just Come to Spend the Night.—J. B. Walter, bowed with the burden of years, explained to Police Judge Crawford that he had merely come in to the station to spend the night. He said he had no home, but had been "traveling around." Asked what he did for a living, he did not beat around the bush, nor did he disguise the ugly word by any euphemism. He cheerfully admitted that he begged for a living. Then was the saying illustrated that honesty is the best policy. Walter was discharged.

Two Women Have Fight.—The husband of Mrs. Mary Peterson called on City Prosecutor Daniel Wednesday morning and filed a complaint against Mrs. Adam Prucker for assault. The Petersons and the Pruckers occupy different floors of the same house at 1521 North Eighteenth street. Both housewives started Tuesday morning to do their washing. Mrs. Peterson, it seems, had her clothes ready first and pre-empted the clothes line and yard space, which, being observed by Mrs. Prucker, it is alleged, she said Mrs. Prucker struck Mrs. Peterson with a broomstick.

WOMAN SERIOUSLY BURNED

Tank on Gasoline Stove Explodes Setting Her Clothing on Fire.

Mrs. Jacob Hoffman of 2322 Rees street, was probably fatally burned Tuesday afternoon by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the kitchen of the residence. Mrs. Hoffman was cooking in the kitchen when she noticed that the gasoline stove was not burning as it should. While she was attempting to fix the stove the gasoline tank exploded and she was instantly covered with flames. A 17-year-old son of the woman, who was in the rear yard, heard his mother's screams and he rushed into the house and succeeded in extinguishing the flames by the use of a heavy rug, not however, before Mrs. Hoffman had been severely burned about the body, hands, face and limbs, and he was badly burned about the hands and arms.

Mrs. Hoffman and her son were attended by Police Surgeon Fitzgibbons and Dr. Tyler and she was later removed to the St. Joseph hospital in the police ambulance.

Dr. Lord reports her condition serious, but she will probably recover unless complications set in.

ANNUAL BANQUET NOT HELD

Function of Real Estate Exchange Canceled Because of A. G. Charlton's Death.

As a result of the death of Alexander G. Charlton, one of the officers and members of the Omaha Real Estate Exchange, the annual banquet, which had been planned for Tuesday evening, March 24, has been indefinitely postponed and probably will not be held this year.

At the annual banquet of the exchange Mr. Charlton was always one of the merry makers and assisted in making it a regular jollification meeting of the dealers in real estate. His death, coming but a short time before the time set, a resolution was passed at the meeting Wednesday asking that the banquet be called off.

A committee, consisting of G. G. Wallace, E. A. Benson and A. P. Tukey, was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions on the death of Mr. Charlton and present them at the meeting of the exchange next Wednesday.
