

HILL IS NOT WANTED

Kaiser intimates that American diplomat is persona non grata.

REAL REASON NOT UNDERSTOOD

Rumor that it is due to supposed slight to Prince Henry.

REPORT CAUSES SURPRISE

Dr. Hill is considered an able and efficient officer.

NOW MINISTER TO DUTCH GOVT

Last Fall When It Was Reported Dr. Hill Would Be Sent to Berlin.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The German government has declined to receive Dr. David Jayne Hill in the capacity of American ambassador to succeed Charlemagne Tower, whose resignation has been accepted to take effect upon the qualification of his successor.

The objection to Dr. Hill is one purely personal to Emperor William, who has simply caused it to be made known that the American diplomat is persona non grata to him.

A perplexing feature of the case is presented by the fact that last November the German government let it be known that Dr. Hill would be cordially received as American ambassador to Berlin.

Knickerbocker Trust company will re-open today, from $75,000 each being given receivers.

New colleries have been opened in Pennsylvania.

Stearns Salt company of Ludington, Mich., pleads guilty to accepting rebates.

Independent tobacco growers bid defiance to night riders in two Kentucky counties.

Senators are planning to wind up discussion of the Aldrich bill at an early date.

Democrat of Indiana hold first session of the state convention, with a large field of candidates for office.

Delegates gathered at Springfield for the state convention of republicans, came to select the endorsement.

Republicans of Tennessee engage in a flat fight at the state convention.

North Dakota democrat hold stormy session at Grand Forks.

Republicans of the house are opposed to the endorsement of the tariff.

Foreign.

Emperor Wilhelm reaches Venice in his journey to Corfu.

Emperor William sends notice to the State department of Washington that David Jayne Hill will be persona non grata at Berlin.

Business representatives of Omaha and Fremont direct the railway committee in opposition to any radical change in freight rates.

Local.

County commissioners will swing round the circle of St. Joseph, Kansas City and Chicago to learn new things about paying materials.

Arrival.

New York—Carmarina 700 miles east of Sandy Hook at 4 p. m.; will dock at 8:30 & m. Thursday.

Princess Helie Run to Earth.

Reporters succeed in locating Frenchman, but get scant satisfaction afterwards.

New York, March 25.—Princess Helie de Sagan, who has been stopping at a Philadelphia hotel, where he registered as Bertrand Dufrene in this city today, and, when questioned, declared that he was the prince.

Fat Fees Given Receivers.

Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars Each to Three Men in Charge of Knickerbocker.

Waltham, Mass., March 25.—Notice announcing a wage reduction of 10 per cent to take effect on April 4, were posted today at the cotton mills of the Boston Manufacturing company.

St. Louis, March 25.—It was announced here today that the Commonwealth Steel company will reach its big plant at Granite City, Ill., next Monday, after a month of idleness. One thousand men are affected.

SUMMARY OF THE BEE

Thursday, March 26, 1908.

Table showing a calendar for the month of March 1908, with days numbered 1 through 31.

THE WEATHER.

Weather forecast table with columns for time (Hour), wind (Wind), and temperature (Deg.).

DOMESTIC.

President Roosevelt sends a second special message to congress to emphasize the necessity of legislation amending the anti-trust law and enacting an employment law.

Effort made to blow up new Pennsylvania railroad bridge across the Racine river with dynamite at Perth Amboy.

United States judge at Shanghai will not be impeached, according to report of special committee.

Prince Helie de Sagan has been discovered by A. B. Smith, former Omaha, has been appointed general passenger agent of the New York, New Haven & Hartford road.

Knickerbocker Trust company will re-open today, from $75,000 each being given receivers.

New colleries have been opened in Pennsylvania.

Stearns Salt company of Ludington, Mich., pleads guilty to accepting rebates.

Independent tobacco growers bid defiance to night riders in two Kentucky counties.

Senators are planning to wind up discussion of the Aldrich bill at an early date.

Democrat of Indiana hold first session of the state convention, with a large field of candidates for office.

Delegates gathered at Springfield for the state convention of republicans, came to select the endorsement.

Republicans of Tennessee engage in a flat fight at the state convention.

North Dakota democrat hold stormy session at Grand Forks.

Republicans of the house are opposed to the endorsement of the tariff.

Foreign.

Emperor Wilhelm reaches Venice in his journey to Corfu.

Emperor William sends notice to the State department of Washington that David Jayne Hill will be persona non grata at Berlin.

Business representatives of Omaha and Fremont direct the railway committee in opposition to any radical change in freight rates.

Local.

County commissioners will swing round the circle of St. Joseph, Kansas City and Chicago to learn new things about paying materials.

Arrival.

New York—Carmarina 700 miles east of Sandy Hook at 4 p. m.; will dock at 8:30 & m. Thursday.

Princess Helie Run to Earth.

Reporters succeed in locating Frenchman, but get scant satisfaction afterwards.

New York, March 25.—Princess Helie de Sagan, who has been stopping at a Philadelphia hotel, where he registered as Bertrand Dufrene in this city today, and, when questioned, declared that he was the prince.

Fat Fees Given Receivers.

Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars Each to Three Men in Charge of Knickerbocker.

Waltham, Mass., March 25.—Notice announcing a wage reduction of 10 per cent to take effect on April 4, were posted today at the cotton mills of the Boston Manufacturing company.

St. Louis, March 25.—It was announced here today that the Commonwealth Steel company will reach its big plant at Granite City, Ill., next Monday, after a month of idleness. One thousand men are affected.

FOR BRYAN AND TAGGART

Indiana Democrats Lining Up for Former Leaders.

ONLY ONE NOTE OF DISCORD

Chairman loses control of Home District Caucus and His Supporters Withdraw and Name Contesting Delegation.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 25.—The delegates to the state democratic convention this afternoon selected by districts twenty-six delegates to the national convention at Denver, and the committee on rules selected four delegates at large. All of the thirty national delegates will vote for William J. Bryan and the credential committee of them will vote for the re-election of National Chairman Thomas Taggart as the Indiana member of the national committee. This will be done at Denver.

Will Attack State Laws.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

Chicago, March 25.—The Record-Herald says this morning that a conference of presidents of railroads centering in Chicago is to be held soon to consider plans for attacking a number of state laws which prevent railroads from competing in the interstate commerce.

VANDERBILTS HAVE TROUBLE

Mrs. Alfred G. Paels Up and Leaves Her Husband's Roof at Newport.

NEW YORK, March 25.—It became known here today that Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt has removed her personal effects from Oakland farm, Newport, her husband's country home. Her home during the summer, it is understood, will be at the residence of her brother, Amos Tuck French, at Thruway, Mr. Vanderbilt, who recently came to New York from London, is now at the Hotel Plaza. It is said he will return to London soon and occupy a house he has rented for the season.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture. These, he said, have brought it into the ranks of the great and important cultural activities in the United States, but with the corresponding agricultural activities of almost every country in the world.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

POLLARD'S WORDS OF PRAISE

Nebraska Congressman Tells Story of Agricultural Department.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, March 25.—In a speech of more than an hour during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill today, Congressman Pollard gave a graphic picture of the development of the activities of the Department of Agriculture.

AVOCA SWEPT BY BIG FIRE

Number of Buildings Destroyed and Aid Asked of Surrounding Towns.

AVOCA, La., March 25.—(Special Telegram.)—A disastrous fire is in progress here. There is a high wind blowing and the entire business section of the town is threatened. Aid has been asked of the fire departments of surrounding towns.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Impachment proceedings will not be instituted in the United States senate against Leobus R. Wilfley, judge of the United States court for China, as a result of the charges of misbehavior in office brought against him by Lorin Andrews and other American lawyers resident in Shanghai. The report of the special committee, consisting of Representatives Moon of Pennsylvania, Well of North Carolina and Dickema of Michigan, appointed by Speaker Cannon to determine whether the charges were founded upon facts sufficient to warrant impeachment, was today submitted to the house committee on the judiciary.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A special message from the president was read in both houses of congress soon after convening today and in both it was closely followed. In the house the declaration that the tariff elicited handclapping on the part of the democratic members. A special approval also was given by way of pronouncing assent to the suggestion that congress could with advantage forthwith remove the tariff on wool pulp, with a corresponding reduction on paper made from wood pulp.

NEW LAWS NEEDED

President Roosevelt Sends Another Special Message to Congress.

President Roosevelt sends a second special message to congress to emphasize the necessity of legislation amending the anti-trust law and enacting an employment law.

President Roosevelt sends a second special message to congress to emphasize the necessity of legislation amending the anti-trust law and enacting an employment law.

President Roosevelt sends a second special message to congress to emphasize the necessity of legislation amending the anti-trust law and enacting an employment law.

President Roosevelt sends a second special message to congress to emphasize the necessity of legislation amending the anti-trust law and enacting an employment law.

President Roosevelt sends a second special message to congress to emphasize the necessity of legislation am