Sargent Sunday School in City—The annual banquet of officers of the Sunday school of the Cathedral Street Presbyterian church was held Wednesday evening. Mrs. Towle of the Detention home says the sole authority given the probation officers by the law in the serving of summons on parents of incorrigible children to bring their children into court and the gathering of evidence for the state in juvenile cases set for trial, but does not give the officers the authority to punish children. Bids for Street-Cleaning Machines—April 15 is the date set for the opening of bids for street cleaning machines for the city and, according to council resolution, samples of the new machines to be purchased were to be tried for thirty days before the opening of the bids, but as yet no machines have been sent on approval. Street Commissioner Flynn believes the best thing to be done is to send a committee of the council, together with the street commissioner, to Marshalltown, Lincoln and a few other nearby cities where machines of later day make are in use and inspect them while in operation and decide what is best for Omaha. Peculiar Demand for Old Hats. "Oh, yes, I am always in the market for second-hand derbies and silk hats. They sell better than anything else." The old clothes dealer pointed to a room filled with shocking fates. "There's not half enough there to meet my demand," he said. "If you was to bring me a carload of old hats this morning I'd take 'em all." "There's such a demand, eh?" "You bet there's a demand. Especially among old maids and widows that live alone. They buy these hats and hang a couple on the hall rack. Then, when a tramp or tramp sets too rambunctious at the door, they turn and say, 'George, if you come down and turn this rascal away.' "Then the tramp sneaks, thinking there's a man in the house. "Restaurants, when they open up new stands, generally lay in twenty-five or thirty hats. They hang them in the lobby to make people think business is brisk." Philadelphia Record. The Foolish Wife. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, at the National Civic Federation's banquet, speaks strenuously against the proposed reduction of wages throughout the country. "To reduce wages," said Mr. Gompers, "will not relieve the situation, but make it worse, for a reduction of wages means a reduction of consuming power." Mr. Gompers paused and smiled. "They who propose relief through wage reduction remind me of the wife of a young blacksmith of Washington," he said. "Did you see that button on my coat?" this blacksmith asked his wife one morning. "No, dear, the wife answered, 'I couldn't find the button, but I sewed up the button-hole, so it's all right.'" Philadelphia Record. They Cure Colds in One Day. Red Cross Cough Drops, 5c per box. A Bachelor's Reflections. A girl likes to write a love letter so the circuit court and the rate will remain 30 cents on live stock products from the Missouri river to Chicago and 25 cents on live stock. Mr. McVann organized the Missouri river cities to fight the lowering of the rate on live stock between the Missouri river and Chicago and the Interstate Commerce Commission ruled with the Chicago complainants and issued an order lowering the rate to 20 cents. The railroad refused to establish the rate and the Interstate Commerce Commission appealed to the United States circuit court. The circuit court stood by the railroad and the Missouri river cities and held that they had the right to reduce the freight rate on live stock products without making a similar reduction on the live stock itself. When the case came up before the United States supreme court on an appeal taken by the commission, the supreme court affirmed the decision of the circuit court and the rate will remain 30 cents on live stock products from the Missouri river to Chicago and 25 cents on live stock. Mr. McVann won the case, as the perfect organization of interests which he secured presented the matter through competent attorneys in such manner as to settle it forever. A Bachelor's Reflections. OMAHA GAINS BY DECISION Secures Advantage in Live Stock Through "Meat Cases." GETS STOCK AWAY FROM CHICAGO McVann, Pioneer in This Fight, is Given Much Credit for the Ultimate Transmississippi Victory. By deciding in favor of the Chicago, Great Western Railroad company and against the Interstate Commerce commission in the case instigated by Chicago commission and live stock dealers, known as the "meat cases," the supreme court of the United States has enabled the Omaha market to retain an advantage which amounts to thousands of head of cattle and hogs annually being sold in Omaha, which would otherwise go to Chicago. This is the opinion of live stock dealers of Omaha, who received the decision with something akin to enthusiasm and a burst of applause. Soon after the Great Western pushed into Omaha a rate of 30 cents per 100 was put into effect on packing house products from the Missouri river to Chicago. Other roads met the rate, but the rate of 25 cents on live stock from the Missouri river to Chicago remained in force. Chicago commission merchants attacked the rate because it enabled the finished product of the packers to be shipped to Chicago at a lower rate than the live stock. McVann Old in the Fight. B. J. McVann, now secretary of the Omaha Grain exchange, was commissioner of the Sioux City Commercial club and traffic manager of the Sioux City Stock Yards company at the time the complaint was filed before the Interstate Commerce commission in 1902. Mr. McVann at once realized that if the rate on live stock was cut 25 cents between the Missouri river and Chicago, it would not only cut off shippers sending cattle and hogs from Iowa points in a strip seventy-five miles wide, but it would enable stock men shipping to Missouri river markets to try the market in Omaha, Sioux City and Kansas City and forward stuff to Chicago at a much lower rate than exists. Mr. McVann organized the Missouri river cities to fight the lowering of the rate on live stock between the Missouri river and Chicago and the Interstate Commerce Commission ruled with the Chicago complainants and issued an order lowering the rate to 20 cents. The railroad refused to establish the rate and the Interstate Commerce Commission appealed to the United States circuit court. The circuit court stood by the railroad and the Missouri river cities and held that they had the right to reduce the freight rate on live stock products without making a similar reduction on the live stock itself. ONE FIRM GETS ALL BONDS R. L. Day & Co. of Boston Buy Half Million of Municipal Securities. Frank A. Furay, city and county treasurer, will recommend to the city council that the entire issue of municipal bonds in the sum of $10,000, bids for which were opened yesterday, be sold to R. L. Day & Co. of Boston, despite the fact that the bid of this firm was one of the lowest. Day & Co., however, was the only firm bidding on the entire issue, including the street improvement bonds, and unless its bid is accepted the street improvement bonds, which run for but seven years, must go begging. The Day bid is $109.150 on each $100 of bonds. Estabrook & Co. of Boston, Blodgett, Merritt & Co. of Boston, E. H. Rowlands & Son of Chicago, Kountze Bros. of New York, Mackay & Co. of New York, William R. Compton Bond and Mortgage company of St. Louis, W. M. Halsey & Co. and Rudolph Kleyboldt & Co. of Cincinnati jointly, and N. W. Harris of Chicago all bid for the bonds with the exception of the street improvement bonds, the issue being for $729,000. The Estabrook bid was $107.07, the Blodgett-Merritt bid was $107.150, the Rowlands bid was $107.25, the Kountze bid was $107.77, the Mackay bid was $111.90, the Compton bid was $112.91, the Halsey and Rudolph Kleyboldt bid was $112.43 and the Harris bid was $112.17. W. N. Coler & Co. of New York bid $102.50 for the $200,000 of the bonds, the entire issue with the exception of the engine house, sewer and street improvement bonds. John N. Frenzer, agent, Omaha, bid $112.30 for the $50,000 intersection paving bonds, $101 for the sewer bonds. Charles Metz of Omaha bid $101.06 for the $20,000 engine house bonds, and Well, Roth & Co. of Cincinnati bid $100.70 for the same issue. Seasongood & Mayer of Cincinnati bid $101.30 for the $20,000 intersection paving bonds. S. A. Keen & Co. of Chicago submitted a bid, but as it was not accompanied by a check, was not considered. "Bolivia is the only country that ever wiped England off the map," said Frank Roberson. "If come about this way: The British ambassador several years ago gave a dinner for the official and social people of Bolivia. When they arrived at the embassy they found that he was not married to the woman seated at the head of the table and they left. In the name of his government he demanded an apology, whereupon the government gave him twenty-four hours to get out of the country. Inasmuch as Little Bolivia is way off the ocean and practically lost in the ternal mountains Great Britain could not, by guns, get the retraction that it wanted. But her map makers got revenge by issuing maps wholly eliminating Bolivia. Finally, this information reached Bolivia, whereupon, with a stroke of the pen, new maps were ordered for the Bolivian government and the Bolivian schools. They showed more ocean than any other maps ever printed. The British Isles had been sunk into the sea. And so far as the people and school children of Bolivia are concerned there is no Great Britain."—Indianapolis News. Warner Jury Disgraced. ST. LOUIS, March 27.—The jury in the case of Fred Warner, member of the house of delegates, charged with bribery, disgraced and was disbanded today. The jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

The Strong Man

In this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST Dr. William Lee Howard discusses muscular development. He tells what, in his opinion, is the worst form of exercise; why much modern physical culture is a fallacy, why the three-mile boat race is better than the four-mile, what "warming up" really signifies, how pugilists are beaten by a liver, and the meaning of fatigue poisons. "Memories of Authors," in this same issue, form the continuation of William Winter's reminiscences. He speaks charmingly of his Boston Bohemian friends—including a verbal duel, in bed, between Fitz-James O'Brien and Donald McLeod, on the relative merits of the Scotch and Irish races. At the News-stands, 5 cents. $1.50 yearly by mail. THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY PHILADELPHIA Our Boys Are Everywhere Copies will be delivered to any address by Eric Nelson, 1618 Capitol Avenue, Omaha.
