At the time of the Collins trial in Topeka, in May, 1898. I was in the Kansas state prison. Therefore, I was not able to give any definite facts in relation to his case or to impart to the public the secret which I presume that each and every living souls will feel very fain to believe.

I was afraid to communicate with young Collins while I was in the penitentiary from the mere fact that he had forced the world to believe he was guilty and I was afraid that if I revealed anything to the warden that he would think I had gone crasy about the case. Therefore the warden and some of the guards might have caused it to go pretty hard with me. My colored people told me before I went to the penitentiary that after they got John Collins in the penitentiary if I attempted to reveal the scheme the public would ignore me and put me in the insane asylum. So I kept mum. No one knows how old man Collins left this world except my colored people and myself. My colored people told me before Collins death of the evidence on which they would send the wrong man to prison and I intend to do my part in having him released on the same evidence.

BOMB FOR BULKELEY WELLS

Former Adjutant General of Colorado Narrowly Escapes Death.

BLOWN OUT BED WITH DYNAMITE

Side of House Demolished at Telluride, but Beyond Severe Bruises He Was Not Hart-Well Laid Plot.

TELLURIDE, Colo., March 28.-Eluding he night guard stationed at the Smugglerof Telluride and the searchlight which is constantly thrown about the premises during the night from the high tower of the mill as a precautionary measure, an unknown person gained access to the restdence of General Bulkley Wells, general manager of the Smuggler-Union Mining company, last night and planted dynamite under his bed. The dynamite was exploded by igniting a fuse in the outside of the building about 2 o'clock this morning when the intended victim was asleep. He was hurled against the celling and alighted under a mass of debris, but escaped with some scratches and bruises and impaired bearing.

Although a systematic search has been made by Sheriff Fitzpatrick and deputies, aided by hundreds of citizens, no clew has been found to the perpetrator of the deed. One man who is charged with having said that Wells should be killed has been arrested on suspicion.

In the same building where the attempt to kill General Wells was made, Arthur L. Collins, predecessor of General Wells as general manager, was assassinated six years ago while playing a game of cards with a number of friends at night. The man who killed Collins fired a heavy load of buckshot through the window into his back. Steve Adams, Harry Orchard's alleged accomplice in the morder of ex-Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, now in fail in Telluride, will soon be placed on trial on the charge of murdering Collins. Wells is chiefly responsible for Adams being brought back to Colorado on this charge.

No Trace of Dynamiters. When news of the explosion reached Telluride the sheriff, with a corps of deputies, hurried to the scene. The neighborhood for miles around was thoroughly scoured, but no trace of the dynamiters was found. The bomb or dynamite stick had evidently been placed under the bed some time yesterday and set off at the time desired by the use of clockwork or a time fuse. Every nook and corner about the house and in the vicinity was searched in an effort to find machinery of some sort, and the fallure to discover anything of the kind has caused the office on the first floor of the building KAISER WILL HAVE LESSON | liberties of Finland against the cers to believe that an odorless fuse had notified Sheriff Figspatrick at Tellubeen attached to the explosive.

That Wells had a most miraculous escape is evidenced by the damage done to the room and its contents. Every window was blown out, a huge hole was torn in the floor, plaster was jarred from the celling and side walls and nearly every window light in the house was cracked. The wire springs on the couch on which the general slept were twisted and broken. General Wells is a graduate of Harvard dynamite under my bed. This ladder had university and is a prominent clubman. He was alone in his house last night.
