MACHINE AND FILMS RUINED AND OPERATOR SEVERELY BURNED. A crowd at the scenic Moving Picture theater on Pearl street opposite the Grand Hotel was treated to a realistic fire scene last night on one of the canvases which was intended. The operator was to run on a series of pictures depicting the run of a fire department in response to an alarm, when the film caught fire and exploded.

PAIR OF LARABEES FOR OFFICE. John MacVicar Brings Suit for Libel for Article Published on the Eve of Des Moines Municipal Election. (From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, March 29.—(Special.)—Two of the most dangerous railroad grade crossings in Postawattamie county are to be abolished and an overhead crossing put in their place. The crossings are about four miles from Neola on the Chicago Great Western, and one person has been killed as a result of their being there. Furthermore, a new road across the Rock Island in section 29 of township 7, range 4, is to be made an overhead crossing. These are the result of an order made by the railroad commission today.

Establish New Church. Bishop Davis of Davenport, in charge of this diocese of the Catholic church, has asked the Rector of St. Francis church to establish a church in northeast Des Moines, and it is understood that if the order is complied with the church will be a boys' academy. There are five Catholic churches in Des Moines now.

Miners to Furnish Men. It is not yet settled whether there will be a shutdown of the coal mines of Iowa on April 1, but the conference of the United Mine Workers and the miners has agreed to furnish men to take care of the mines and machinery in case there is a shutdown. The miners have offered to continue at the old scale till a new scale is agreed upon.

Cashier Short in Accounts. ONAWA, Ia., March 29.—(Special.)—Ben Shaw, cashier of the Northwestern at Onawa, was checked up by an auditor and found short in his accounts to the amount of $1,000. He failed to raise the money and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $600. He gave bond and was released. There seems to be a hoodoo over the Onawa section when it comes to shortages and several recent agents have been in the same condition.

Accident May Prove Fatal. IOWA FALLS, Ia., March 29.—(Special.)—Miss Hattie Dahlquist, living near Forest city, was a victim of what may prove a fatal accident the first of the week. While assisting her mother in burning the dead grass along the fence about their home, the young lady's clothes caught fire and before the flames could be extinguished her lower limbs were severely burned. The attending physician considered the injuries dangerous.

Maple Valley Firemen's Tourney. ONAWA, Ia., March 29.—(Special.)—The meeting of the Maple Valley Firemen's tournament association at Wall Lake on Wednesday was well attended, most of the towns in the district being represented. The next tournament was voted to Onawa. Only four votes being cast for Lake City. The time will not be fixed until the date of the state tournament is known, as it is desired to hold the Maple Valley tournament one week before the state tournament, as several towns will attend both. These officers were elected: Ed E. Connel, Lake City, president; A. W. Burgess, Onawa, secretary; Charles Harvey, Logan, treasurer. The midwinter meeting next year will be on the third Wednesday in March.

STORM SWEEPS TWO STATES. Heavy Damage is Reported in Parts of Illinois and Indiana. HOUSES AND BARNES DESTROYED. Several Persons Injured and Many Have Almost Miraculous Escapes from Death—Stock Killed by Lightning.

DEER CREEK, Ill., March 28.—Coming into Illinois last evening about 8 o'clock near Burlington, a storm never equaled in the history of the state swept a narrow path over half way across the state and left in its track damage running close to $50,000 in ruined houses, barns and out-buildings. There were no deaths from the storm, the number of escapes is boundless, and while there were three persons injured, none will die. The storm was accompanied by torrents of rain.

The path of the storm at Warren county was wide and the force so great that houses were torn from their foundations and dropped at a distance from the inmates, they fell about the heads of the inmates, inflicting injuries of various degrees. Huge barns, filled with farm implements, hay and stock, were treated as balloons and many presented but piles of rubbish from which injured stock was moaning piteously. The severe force of the storm was felt east of Merton the storm struck the houses of Carl Schick and completely demolished it. The hired man was sleeping upstairs and his wife and child downstairs. The man was lifted with his bed and carried a distance of 100 yards and deposited still lying on the mattress, in the middle of an oat field. He escaped without an injury. The wife and child were carried into the yard by the wind, and also escaped injury. Further east the storm struck the house of Gus Herman and demolished it. Herman was lifted from the room and landed in a grove some distance from the house. The wife, three children and the hired man were all carried in different directions, but none was injured. Mrs. Otto Rich, living near Eureka, was so severely injured that it was at first thought that she would die, but last reports show her to be not dangerously hurt.

Heavy Damage in Indiana. INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—One of the most severe storms known for years swept over portions of Indiana and eastern Illinois today, prostrating telephone and telegraph wires and causing damage to property. At Frankfort, Ind., the roof of the City Flouring mills was carried away. The rain destroyed a quantity of flour. The loss is placed at $2,600. The roofs of the federal cannery factory and several other buildings were blown off, the property loss in the lower being estimated at $5,000. The storm was tornadillo in its effect. At Muncie, Ind., a number of houses were wrecked and plate glass windows were shattered. From various points come reports of stock being killed by lightning. The damage done in eastern Illinois was greatest at Pekin, where the loss was $100,000.

Fatal in Missouri. WARSHAW, March 29.—It was a destructive tornado swept the country near Warshawville, twenty miles northeast last night, blowing away several farm houses and killing two persons. The home of Lawson Harrison was wrecked and his child killed. Several members of the Harrison family were injured. J. M. Greenleaf, who was afflicted with paralysis, died from the shock soon after the storm passed. Telephone and telegraph wires are down and it is difficult to get details from the surrounding country.

DEAD BURGLAR IS IDENTIFIED. Man Killed by Biloxi, Miss., Police Probably C. A. Riddle of Des Moines. BILOXI, Miss., March 29.—Much of the mystery surrounding the burglar killed by the police yesterday morning was solved by an identification of the body as that of C. A. Riddle, believed to be from Des Moines, Ia. He is looked upon as a gentleman burglar, wearing good clothes and stopping at the best hotels. His room at the Hotel Hamilton in Biloxi was searched in the afternoon, and much evidence, including the body, was found in the room.

PLEADS GUILTY TO FORGERY. Denver Man Hides Mail Box and Gets Caught. FREDMONT, Neb., March 29.—(Special.)—Warren T. Montgomery, who gives Denver as his place of residence, is under arrest here on the charge of forging the name of Clyde Foster to a draft on the Standard Life and Accident Insurance company of Denver. The company sent the draft to Foster in settlement of an accident claim, by mail, addressed in care of the Brunswick restaurant. It was discovered early in the evening that the mail box had been rifled and suspicion rested upon Montgomery, who had been looting around town, as he had on a new suit of clothes and some money. He was arrested, and it was found he had bought the outfit at Freden's store, endorsed the draft and received the balance in cash. He pleaded guilty, and in default of bail was committed to the county jail.

What makes good bread? Flour ground very fine, even, so the absorption is uniform, complete—the dough perfect. Gold Medal Flour passes through twenty sets of rolls. That's one reason why it always makes good bread.

There is only one room, facing the south, in the whole Bee building, that is vacant. This is an opportunity seldom offered and there is no probability that this chance will be open long. If you are interested in a good sized office for reasonable rent now is the time to make application, before someone else snaps it up.
