A south office on the third floor. There is only one room, facing the south, in the whole Bee building, that is vacant. This is an opportunity seldom offered and there is no probability that this chance will be open long. If you are interested in a good sized office for reasonable rent now is the the time to make application, before someone else snaps it up. THE BEE BUILDING. There are four other offices in the building which are vacant, ranging in price from $10 to $27.50 per month. It so happens that there are among these, several particularly desirable outside rooms. If you are thinking of changing your office this is the time to look around, as it is probable that in a few weeks we will have none vacant. Room 100. R. W. Baker, Supt. Bee Building
