Count's Debts Yet Unpaid.

The formal application for the order of authorization was made in person by Judge Dillon, who presented a petition signed by Mme. Gould asking that such order be ssued. Judge Lacombe's order authorizes George J. Gould and Helen M. Gould, as eceivers of the surplus income of Anna Sould, to turn over to George Gould $50,000 in the recent issue of 4 per cent gold Missouri Pacific bonds belonging to the former counters. The order of the court made in accordance with the trusteeship instituted n the suit originally brought in 1901, when the creditors of Count Boni de Castellane were pressing him for settlement. At that time a compromise was effected by the appointment of George J. and Helen M. ti Gould as receivers of their slater's income, they to turn over $400,000 a year to the creditors until the count's debts had been paid. As these debts have not yet been paid in full, Mme. Gould's income is still under the control of the federal courts.

INDIANA IS FOR REVISION

Dear Mr. Overstreet: There seems to be no division of opinion among republicans with respect to the questions which are to be embodied in the state platform except possibly with regard to the time when the tariff should be revised.

I venture, therefore, to submit to you, and through you, to the committee on resolutions, briefly my views upon this subject.

The sentiment in favor of a revision of the tariff has so far crystallized as to make it reasonably certain that evision will be undertaken at no distant date. It is morally certain that both of the loading political parties will deglare in favor of some form of revision in their national platforms. It has been frequently suggested that revision should be undertaken at a special session of congress, to be convened immediately after the inauguration of the next resident.

vened immediately after the inauguration of the next president. A number of republican state conventions have already made declaration to this effect.

The time when revision should be made is second only in importance to revision itself. It is obvious that there is a wrong and a right time to attempt it. If revision had been entered upon during the past few months, incalculable injury would have been inflicted upon the country. To have superimposed the uncertainty and strain of revision upon the acute, nervous financial conditions we have experienced would have aggravated immeasurably the distress. The parade will take place wednesday, May 20, at 10 a.m. under the direction of Chief of Staff A. W. Taylor.

State associations will meet in Grand Army of the Republic hall Wednesday, May 20, at 11 a.m.

The committee on credentials comprises Assistant Adjutant General A. M. Trimble, Comrades Jonathan Edwards, Post No. 7; George F. Humphreys, Post No. 11: Brad P. Cook, Post No. 24, and M. H. Hinman, Post No. 4. Delegates and members of the encampment will report promptly on their ress.

It is well understood that revision is atended with more or less business dis-It is well understood that revision is attended with more or less oueness distended with more or less oueness disturbance. Pending the consideration of new schedules, manufacturers, merchants and consumers will hesitate. They will make no contracts for the future beyond their immediate necessities, for the reason that a change in duty may affect the basis upon which their business is done. It is, therefore, important that the period of uncertainty be reduced to the minimum, in order that business may speedily resume its normal activity, and complete resumption will not occur before the schedules are definitely determined.
