Phone Doug 1044 A. L. Root, Inc. Cheap System of Cold Storage. Popular Mechanics describes a cheap system of cold storage for use in the average house. The apparatus consists of an electric motor belted to a pump, which keeps a cooling solution moving through a set of pipes which are placed in the refrigerator. These pipes are similar to the steam or hot water radiators in the rooms, only they cool instead of heat the apartment. The machine is entirely automatic and constantly maintains whatever degree of cold is selected. The moment the thermometer rises above that point the machine starts up of itself and works until the apartment is sufficiently cooled; then it stops of itself. The whole affair is so simple as to require practically no attention, except an occasional oiling, which is no more difficult than to oil a sewing machine. An interesting detail can also fix up a basement room as a cold storage for large supplies, such as barrels of apples, jars of butter, sacks of potatoes, etc., which it is now impossible to keep in the average residence.

AFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Some Light on the Democratic Claim of Municipal Economy.

SOME LEAKS ARE POINTED OUT Number of Sinecures Created by Present Administration and Pay Granted to Inspector Who Does Not Inspect.

The democratic administration in South Omaha claims economy in the administration of affairs, but a comparison of the offices created by this administration would argue differently. The office of city weighmaster was created against the advice and consent of the present city attorney. He said he did not think the office was needed. This would also be indicated by the receipts in fees since the office was put on a salary basis. Mr. Vaughn turned in about $2 for the month of March for inspection fees. The salary of the office is $50. The office of superintendent of the city hall was created with a salary of $60, and the superintendent was given a janitor at $6. This would not be so unreasonable if the city had not already had a janitor provided in the court hall. The ordinance provides that the court hall should act as janitor to the city hall building. He has never, with the exception of one week, in his career attempted to assist in the janitor work. His present duty is to serve subpoenas in police court cases, when he may be found. If not, the work is done by patrolmen. He visits the police court daily at good morning to the judge. The office of telephone operator was created, also with a salary attached. The sidewalk inspector has been drawing his salary all the winter months, when he is supposed to be paid only for the time he actually puts in on the work. Everyone knows no sidewalks have been laid all winter. E. M. Rohrbaugh refused to sign the man's last voucher on the ground that the man had done no work and was entitled to no salary. Mayor Hoctor signed the voucher for the man instead of the engineer and he was allowed to draw pay. The city milk tester draws $5. The city physician gets $50 per month for his services. These sinecure holders who have in the cases mentioned been feeding at the public expense could easily be dispensed with. After that the claim of the dem-

Two Held for Robbery.

Charles Burcher and John Arnold were bound over to the district court yesterday on the charge of breaking and entering Humple's hotel. The men secured thirty pounds of butter, which they were trying to peddle on the streets when apprehended. They were caught by the officers with twelve pounds of the butter in their possession. In default of bail they were taken to the county jail to await trial.

All members are urged to attend. The funeral of Harry Schatzell will occur Saturday at 2 p. m. from the residence to Forest Lawn. The Grand Army of the Republic will have a large meeting.

The Good Government League has raised $50 by popular subscription to pay the expense of certain investigations into city affairs which are still in progress.

The Missionary society of the Baptist church will give a series of eight lessons on "Hamlet" at 8 p. m. on Tuesday evening. A limited number of who are not members wish to join. "Hamlet" may arrange to do so with Miss Jane H. Abbott at the city library.

Society of Women Doctors.

Mme. Sembrich. Valse—Voce of Primaveras.....J. Strauss. Mme Sembrich.

Madame Marcella Sembrich was greeted by a fine audience at the Boyd theater last night when she gave her recital, which a hungry and thirsty public had been waiting for with longing. It was distinctly the musical public that was there and many unfamiliar faces indicated in all parts of the house the presence of a goodly number of those out-of-town supporters of the best musical things, who are growing steadily in number. Seldom, if ever, has more heartfelt enthusiasm been displayed or more sincere and persistent appreciation tendered to a visiting artist or artist, for, indeed, Mr. Van Hoose and Mr. Zadora were not neglected. Musical Omaha is grateful to Madame Sembrich for the gracious memory of this her latest visit to the western metropolis and cannot too warmly express its thankfulness for the joy occasioned by her royal appearance.

Musical Omaha is thankful for more than this, for Madame Sembrich was generous enough to bring with her two articles, one of which was here before under less favorable circumstances as regards acoustics, and the other of whom will always be a favorite.

Of Madame Sembrich and her singing, what cannot be said? That is, in the way of praise. She is a queen of song, but she is more, she is a Master singer. She has a voice of rare beauty and of absolute truth intonation. Her tone-production is so spontaneous that one does not stop to notice how it is done. Her upper tones are brilliant to the highest degree, and yet they never approach the first suspicion of harshness.

Her execution is flawless, her interpretations are clear and her manner is graciously regal, sincerely charming and without affectation in the slightest point. The remarkable freshness and glorious youth of the voice is a clear indication that she has a correct and complete foundation.

But be it remembered, Madame Marcella Sembrich is first, last and all the time a musician. Her musicianship is the secret of her wonderful attainments. For without that the best voice and the highest training are but shadow without substance. Madame Sembrich was a pianist and a violinist before she began to sing.

Mr. Ellison Van Hoose, the tenor, brought much gladness to the audience with his fine tenor voice and his exquisite work. He sings with finish and with artistic spirit. One of his songs, "When the Roses Bloom" (written away back in 1774), was a revelation. Mr. Van Hoose gave to its wonderful beauty a most faithful and temperamental interpretation, and was compelled to repeat it.

Mr. Zadora was a choice surprise. Here is a man who treats the piano as a musical instrument and breathes into it the breath of life. Such poetic and artistic playing is Miss Gerald was a member of the company that opened the Burwood, and made many friends during the time she was there. She last played in Omaha as Mrs. Rossmore, in the first company to present "The Lion and the Mouse" at the Boyd. Edith Spencer is an Omaha girl, and was at the Burwood during the last few weeks of its last season under the management of the Woodward & Burgess company. The other members of the company are more or less strangers to Omaha, but come well recommended.

HOME COMFORTS AT SE

Kansas Gets What He Was Looking for and Expressed Satisfaction.

The chronic tornado in Kansas led William G. King of Kansas City to tell of his experience of a Kansas crossing the Atlantic in rough weather.

"One morning," began Mr. King, "the Kansas went out on deck when a big gal was blowing. Nobody was in sight except the captain.

"Go below there!" the captain shouted. "The passenger looked around to see I whom he was talking.

"You mean me?" he yelled back, when he saw there was no one else in sight.

"Of course, I do; go below," and the captain came alongside.

"Well I guess not," protested the Kansas; "I'm up here to see how one of you mountain-high waves and terrific gales compares with what we have in Kansas in the way of cyclones. This ain't a patch to what I've seen out our way."

"A big wave broke over the deck, sweeping the Kansas aft. They picked him up with a broken leg, a twisted shoulder, sprained wrist and his face looking as if it had been dragged backward through briar patch. When he came to he saw I captain.

"By grave, cap," he said, feebly, "this reminded me of home, only it was a damn sight witer."—St. Louis Republic.

OTHERS WILL COST AS MUCH BUT NOT CURE INDIGESTION AS QUICK

The following tells why every thing eaten will be promptly digested and not left in your stomach to ferment and sour.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep a case of Disapepsin in the home handy. This harmless blessing is prepared in the form of 22-trian Triangles, and are eaten like candy, but they will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and regulate a sour stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Page's Disapepsin, then you will readily see why they cure indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, and prevent at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of Sour undigested food, Nausea, Headache, Dizziness, Constipation and other Stomach Disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion with the common every-day cures advertised that they have made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe their is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest. Instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefy the entire digestive tract and intestines and, besides, poison the blood with noxious odors.

A hearty appetite, with through digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to get a 50-cent case of Page's Disapepsin. One Triangle taken after eating will promptly digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood 3,000 grains of food, and is so absolutely harmless and pleasant that no one could realize they were taking such a bliss!
