BUCHTEL TALKS OF AMERICANISM Colorado's Governor Lectures to the Assembled Teachers. Friday night's program at the Teachers' association was confined to three numbers, a musical number for the opening and closing and Governor Henry A. Buchtel of Colorado. The first music was by Mrs. J. W. Gamble of Plattsmouth, "O, Come to Me, Mayourneen," by Frank Lynes. Prof. C. W. Weeks of Fremont rendered "The Bondolerio" in a bass of great power and precision. Mrz. Gamble was a pure soprano.

N. M. Graham introduced the governor. Governor Buchtel's discourse was on the history. Governor Buchtel has a remarkably clear and resonant voice and not a word was lost to his audience

EXPLANATION NEW WEBER PIANOS SOLD ONLY BY MATTHEWS.

The name Weber on a piano stands today for higher musical quality and finish than ever before. All piano dealers know this fact, and the persistency with which some of our competitors [who claim to be reliable dealers] advertise the name Weber as their regular line, call forth this warning to the public. We are closing out all new Weber pianos at reductions impossible to duplicate, and until our contract expires, new Weber pianos will not be found elsewhere in Omaha.
