WHAT CLUB WOMEN ARE DOING
Warm Contest Expected in Woman's Club Over Election of President.

CLUBS ADJOURN FOR THE SUMMER
Study Courses and Work About Finished for the Year—Annual Meetings and Election of Officers the Order.

The annual election of officers of the Omaha Woman's club, which will take place tomorrow afternoon, promises to be one of the most spirited in years. The contest centers about the presidency and two of the most prominent women in the club are candidates for the office. Little seems to be heard about the other officers, although all but three of the places on the executive board will have to be refilled. The contest for the first office is something more than the preference of friends, it indicates a revival of two factions in the club known as the "old" and the "young." If the ranks of the "olds" are enlisted many of the women who were instrumental in the founding of the club and who were among its early officers. The other faction includes many women who were charter members, but who represent the younger element in the organization and who have been rather more in evidence in the administration of the club's affairs for several years past. Mrs. J. H. Dumont is the candidate of the older faction and Mrs. Edward Johnson that of the younger. Both women have been prominent in the club for years and both have had part in most of the movements for women in Omaha.

Mrs. Dumont has for the last year served as vice president of the club and twice before, during the administration of Mrs. George Tilden as president, she held the same office. For some time, also, she served as a member of the club's educational committee and also as an assistant leader of the oratory department. Mrs. Dumont has been prominent in the woman's work of the First Baptist church and was for some time a member of the board of directors of the Young Women's Christian association.

Mrs. Johnson's Service.
Mrs. Johnson's service to the club has been almost continuous since she became a member in 1902. Under two administrations she served as corresponding secretary and under two others as recording secretary of the club. Until the last year she has been a continuous worker in the literature department, which she served for some time as secretary and to which she contributed much. She has also been a worker in the musical and current topics departments and in several other departments. Mrs. Johnson is a member of the Board of Directors of the Young Women's Christian association and is secretary of the board of the Women's Christian association operating the Peoples' store. For some time she served as president of the woman's society of the First Baptist church and for the last year she has occupied the office of vice president of the Second district of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs. She has also served as secretary of the Society of Fine Arts.

Whatever the outcome of the election may be the club is insured a good administration. The rivalry between the two factions, although strong, is of a wholesome character and the membership, in spite of its individual preferences, has the interest of the club too much at heart to allow the personnel of the executive board to make any difference in its support. As a working organization and in the strength and seriousness of its departments the Omaha Woman's club has never been in better shape than it is at present.

Society of Fine Arts.
The Society of Fine Arts will hold its annual meeting Thursday morning at the public library at 10 o'clock. A full report of the year's work will be made by the secretary, Mrs. Edward Johnson. Mrs. W. H. Garratt will have charge of the lesson of the morning, Holstein and Menges to be the artists. Mrs. Garratt will be assisted in the description of the pictures, which will be furnished by means of stereopticon. At the recent election the following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, Mrs. W. H. Garratt; first vice president, Mrs. A. W. Bowman; second vice president, Miss Jessie Millard; secretary, Mrs. E. A. Benson; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Brandeis; membership chairman, Mrs. Clement Chase; advisory chairman, Mrs. Warren S. Blackwell.

Art Department Elects.
The club year is drawing to a close and the department of the Omaha Woman's club will conclude this year's program this week. The art department held its last meeting Thursday morning and elected the following officers for next year: Leader, Mrs. W. W. Grigor; first assistant, Miss P. R. Davis; second assistant, Miss Mary Sumner; secretary, Mrs. G. P. Bonner; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Hancock. "The City of Rome" will be the subject for next year's study, the department having planned to study its history, literature and art, and members are looking forward to a program as one of the best yet arranged.

Child Labor Legislation.
In compliance with the request of the National Child Labor committee, the Omaha Woman's club will be asked at Monday afternoon's meeting to endorse the bill now before congress pertaining to child labor in the District of Columbia. The bill has received the approval of United States Labor Commissioner O'Neill and many others, including Senator O'Neill of Iowa, who is chairman of the committee in congress that has recently asked its immediate consideration that the conditions existing in Washington at present may be promptly corrected.

W. C. T. U. Notes.
The Omaha Woman's Christian Temperance Union at its meeting this week, decided to begin at once the work of the Loyal Temperance Legion in Omaha. Several applications for membership were received and acted upon and it is hoped to make the work among the nurses one of the strongest departments. Easter will be observed by the union at the county jail as usual, a text card and a flower to be given to each of the inmates.

STOLEN HORSE RUNS HOME
Broke Away from Thieves and Pounded on Stable Door Until Admitted.

Dandy Jim, a 15-year-old pet horse belonging to the Moffett Livery company, Chicago, returned to his box stall after escaping from thieves.

With his velvety bay coat covered with foam and with no harness on him, the animal appeared at the door of the barn last night and whinnied. Then he rapped on the door with his hoof and awakened the night foreman of the barn and an officer of the company. They opened the door and with a switch of his tail and a happy kick, Dan ran up stairs and delved into his hay rack.

According to Mr. Harney the horse and light top buggy, to which the animal was attached, were stolen from in front of a residence at West Van Buren street, while he was inside. The horse's absence was mourned by the livery employes, for Dan is the best of stevedores. He is never "held out," and is used only by the officials of the company. It is believed that while the thieves were endeavoring to change the harness and hitch him to another rig, Dan rebelled and broke away. The buggy was later recovered at West Van Buren street and Western avenue, and it is believed that it was near this place that Dan escaped from his captors.—Chicago News.

The marriage of Miss Blanche Grote, daughter of Mrs. A. Martin, and Mr. Arthur Landauer of Lincoln, Ill., was solemnized Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, 2304 Howard street. Rabbi Frederick Cohn performing the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of pale grey voile over white silk, trimmed in lace applique and embroidered in grey. A white lace picture hat with a large white willow plume completed the costume. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mr. Henry Goette, a brother of the bride, was best man and Mr. Arthur Grote, another brother, gave her away. Throughout the rooms a decoration of lilies and ferns were used, while in the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, was a background of palms and ferns. The wedding march and several musical numbers were given by a stringed orchestra. After the wedding a small reception was held and the intimate friends of the bride assisted.

In the dining room, where refreshments were served, a pretty decoration of green and white prevailed, the table having for a centerpiece a large mound of ferns and Easter lilies. Mr. and Mrs. Landauer have gone for an eastern wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Lincoln, Ill.

VETERANS ARE UP IN ARMS
Denounce Holding of University Track Meet Memorial Day.

WOULD IMPEACH THE REGENTS
Statements that Members of Board Sanctioned Date Especially Arouses Ire of the Old Soldiers.

Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska:
Section 1. Any person or persons who shall on the thirtieth day of May, commonly known as Decoration day, engage in horse racing, ball playing or in any game of sport which may tend to disturb the public peace on the thirtieth day of May shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment for thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court upon conviction thereof.

Such is the law of Nebraska relative to the desecration of Decoration or Memorial day.

A telegram to The Bee recently announced that the annual track meet between the universities of Nebraska and Minnesota would be held in Lincoln, May 30. The dispatch concluded as follows:

Before scheduling the meet for that day, Manager Kaser went to some members of the Board of Regents and other officials and the information he secured from them in regard to the advisability of holding the meet on Decoration day encouraged him to decide on that date. He was told to schedule the contest for that date and not for the day after, the thirtieth. He was given to understand that the track meet would not be an offense under the law, and that he need not be concerned. He declared that every effort will be made to pull off the meet on Memorial day.

The alleged advice given to Manager Kaser by the unnamed members of the Board of Regents has given rise to the liveliest indignation in Grand Army circles and an effort will be made to compel an enforcement of the law.

Department Commander Thomas A. Craig, Past Department Commander Captain H. E. Palmer, Judge Leo Estelle and Major R. S. Wilcox of Omaha, John A. Ehrhardt of Stanton and Claire E. Adams of Superior are very outspoken in their denunciation of the advice attributed to members of the State Board of Regents.

Would Impach Regents.
Captain Adams said: "It has come to a pretty pass when the members of the Board of Regents of the Nebraska university would counsel a defiance of the law. The old soldier is rapidly passing away. All that is left to us is Decoration day. It was not instituted to elaborate upon the achievements of the veterans of the union army of the civil war, but simply to perpetuate the memories of those who have gone to that bourne to which we all must go in a very few years and to instill into the minds of our people a loyal reverence for their sacrifices and patriotism. I am astounded and chagrined as a loyal and long time citizen of Nebraska to think that the controlling powers of our day should be kicked into the river."

Major R. S. Wilcox: "It is an outrage, if the regents of the university are quoted correctly. If they are so determined to proceed with this desecration of Memorial day it is high time that Governor Sheldon should take up the big stick for the enforcement of the law. The Board of Regents is given correctly that should be the last persons in the world to counsel a violation of law. My understanding of their functions is, to counsel an enforcement of law rather than its evasion. If their advice is given correctly that should be impeached. I am willing to stand back of any measure that may be necessary to see that this Memorial law is enforced and to assist in the impeachment of such members of the university faculty that recommend its violation."

Commander Creigh indignant.
Commander Creigh said: "I cannot believe that the official heads of our great educational institution would be guilty of so great an indiscretion as to sanction the evasion of the law as to advise the desecration of Memorial day. If it is true that they have done so they should be impeached as unworthy of holding office in such an institution."

Captain Harry E. Palmer: "I can hardly suppress my indignation over so flagrant an advocacy of defiance of the law as is attributed to certain members of the Board of Regents. If they have advised this, I not only endorse every thing that has been said by Commander Creigh, Captain Adams and Colonel Ehrhardt and others, but I will go farther and say that I stand to contribute to any fund that may be necessary to be raised to prosecute to a finish any violation of the Memorial day law, be it countenanced by the Board of Regents or anybody else."

Judge Leo S. Estelle: "I cannot put my indignation too strongly over this alleged and reported advice of the State Board of Regents. I hope it is not true. If it is true, the Board of Regents or such of its members of the university faculty that recommend a defiance of the law regarding the appropriate observance of Memorial
