Corn Opened Strong and Working Higher Closed at 61 3-8 Cents -Onts Active and Other Grains Strong.

OMAHA, April 11, 1908. With demand for eash grain improving values work higher on good buying and he apparent desire of holders of long stuff to increase their holdings.

Continued dry weather brings in buying orders and the pit crowd was inclined to he buying the built side.

Continued dry weather brings in buying orders and the pit crowd was inclined to the built side.

The east has been good buyers for the last two days and as offerings are light the sample market is showing a firm tone. The wheat market was tight, with values nervous but strong. Offerings were very light and commission houses favored the buying side and the market shows decided congestion. May wheat opened at soign and closed at 20%.

Corn opened strong and worked higher on the strength in wheat and improved damand. Cash offerings light and receipts gradually falling off. May corn opened at align and closed at 10%.

Oats strong and more active with other grains and strong bids for cash grain. May option opened at 30c and closed at 20c.

Primary wheat receipts were 215,000 bushels against receipts last year of 674,000 bushels and shipments of 425,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were 38,000 bushels and shipments were 331,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 683,000 bushels and shipments of 683,000 bushels and shipments of 683,000 bushels and shipments of 683,000 bushels of corn. 1000 bushels and shipments and shipments and shipments of ones and wheat and flour equal to 190,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed 3d to 3d higher on wheat and 4d higher on corn.

reported in this morning, which means that there was the usual Saturday's holiday in the cattle division. there was the usual Saturday's holiday in the cattle division.

The receipts this week have been very light, showing a heavy falling off as compared with last week and a still heavier decrease as compared with a year ago.

While there has been a sprinkling of all kinds of cattle corn-fed beeves have been in the majority, constituting a very large a proportion of the total arrivals. As the season advances the quality of the cattle is improving, so that more good heavy a cattle have been seen in the yards of late than was the case a few weeks ago.

The week started out with a big beem in beef steer prices. The markst on Monday was not only decidedly higher, but was very active. It appeared later on in the week, however, that the buying strength, was preity well exhausted on Monday.

From that day on prices tended steadily downward, so that all the advance was wiped out and more too. The demand throughout the week was the best for the light and medium weight steers of good quality, and at the close of the week liey are not very much different as regards applied on the other hand a decrease in the demand for shipping and export account or caused heavy cattle to be more or less neglected, with the result that they not only lost all of the advance of Monday, but at the close of the week are logible lower than one week ago.

Receipts of cows and heirers were very moderate all the week there being no sur-lower than one week ago.

Receipts of cows and helfers were very a moderate all the week, there being no surplus on any one day. In consequence of this good killers sold freely, with no great change in prices, the market at the close of the week being about where it was one week ago.

The demand for stockers and feeders was disappointing all the week. The result was that the trade lacked anap and still prices so far as the good kinds were concerned did not show very much changes. Light stock cattle were extremely hard to move all the week and in consequence the feeling was weak on anything of that description.

steady with yesterday. The receipts this week have been very moderate, showing a large decrease, as compared with last week, and a still heavier loss as compared with the corresponding week of a year ago. The market throughout the week was entirely against the selling interests. The break in eastern markets has brought on a sharp a decline at all selling points, and at the close of the week prices are on an average so lower than they were one week ago. This is true of both sheep and lambs, which have suffered in about equal preportions. Unsettled business conditions at eastern consuming points, which have cut down the demand for high priced mutton apd at the same time the rapid marketing of Colorado lambs have been undoubtedly responsible to a large extent for the heavy shrinkage in the market. The Colorado method of marketing lambs results almost every year in breaking the market temporarily at least and in causing sheepmen a heavy loss. Instead of holding their lambs at home until finished and then sending them forward a few trains at a time direct to market, they ship to eastern feeding and shearing stations, stopping at the markets at different points enroute, where they are each time counted, thus helping to swell the receipts and to make it appear that the country is full of lambs. The lambs are held at the big selling stations, where their number act as a constant bear influence on the market. Hence the market may now be described as suffering from its annual Colorado break.

"When I was connected with a certain western railway," says a prominent officer of an eastern line, "we had in our employ a brakeman who, for special asyrvice rendered to the road, was granted a month? a brakeman who, for special service rendered to the road, was granted a month's vacation.

"He decided to spend his time in the Rockies. We furnished him with passes.

"He went to Denver, and there met a number of his friends at work on one of the Colorado roads. They gave him a good time, and when he went away made him a present of a mountain goal.

"Evidently our brakeman was at a less to get the animal home with him, as the express charges were very heavy at that time. Finally, however, hitting upon a happy expedient, he made out a shipping tag and tied it to the horns of the goa! Then he presented the beast to the office of the stock car line.

"Well, that tag created no end of amusment, but it served to accomplish the end of the brakeman. It was inscribed as follows:

"Please pass the Butler. Thomas f.

iows: "Please pass the Butler. Thomas J. Meechin. Brakeman, S. S. & T. Ry." All at One Haul.

Wesley Jacobus, a farmer living on Hook Mountain, near Towaco, N. J., shot recently into a flock of wild geese which nose from a marshy inlet of the Passaic river, and brought down two. He was surprised a moment later to see another goose rise into the air thirty feet again and again, only to fall to the ground.

Upon investigation he discovered that the goose was caught on a set-line nearly file feet long, with fifty hooks set at intervals A section of the line was on the land and the goose had swallowed one of the baits of this section.

Following up the line Jacobus found it drawn down into a hole under a stump. Pulling the line, he dragged out of the hole a snapping, smarling otter, which in some way had been catualt by one of its feet of a took.

But this was not all, for on that part of the line still in the water hook. Jacobus found a sight en-pound German carp.—Newark Advertises. DULUTH. April 1.-WHEAT-No. 1 northern, 804c; No. 1 northern, 804c; May, OATS-10.
