HOLLYS WIN FROM RIVERSIDES Game Pull of Sensational Plays and Long Hitting.

Despite the fact that the score was overwhelmingly in favor of the Hollys, the game between them and the Riversides was filled with many sensational plays and was exciting at all stages. The heavy wind favored the batters when they connected and as a result both outfields were kept moving. Frank Gibson, the Holly catcher, was the big chief with the big stick, as he landed a homer and a three-sacker among his hits. Stack hit safely four times. Twice Harshman's wonderful whip kept Riverside batters from going home after hits that looked good for the circuit McAndrews did his best pitching in tight pinches.

The last out of the game was the result of an exciting duel between Gibson, the Holly catcher, and Neno, the well known and speedy infielder, who will join the Nebraska Indians next week. Neno was on first and expressed his intention of stealing second. Four times McAndrews drove him back to first, but Neno would get away off for a good start. When the ball was pitched Neno lit out for second, but Gibson's throw was swift and true and the game was over. Not a Riverside player stole off Gibson, as he threw out every runner who attempted it. The work of Black in left field was much applauded, as his catches were made after hard runs. The whole Riverside team played good ball, but all the chances for spectacular play came to the Hollys. NOAH IS BUMPED FOR FAIR

Sioux Lam the Horsehide for Nine Runs in One Inning.

GAME PROVES A REAL BATFEST

Omaha Gets as Many Hits as the Stoux, but They Were Not Bunched as Effectively as Were the Visitors.

N is for nine and N is for Noah and nine is the number of runs Sloux City main off Noah in the fifth inning of the exhibition game at Vinton Street park Monday afternoon. The Soo simply had an other picnic with Ps, and his champs, and made it three straight just for good measure. The nine runs in the fifth were enough to win the game, but they made six more for good measure, while Omaha was able to cross the pan but eight times. The scores came in so fast in that fifth inning that even the acute lad who marks up the scores on the board at the lot lost

Omaha made as many hits as the Sioux but they were more scattered. The Sloux made most of their runs and lifts in one EVERY TEAM IN GOOD SHAPE inning, whereas the Omaha hits were scattered all through the game. Two home runs were made, Austin hitting the ball over the left field fence and Spencer driving to right field. The Soo made seven hits in the fifth inning. As has been the custom in all these exhibition games Omaha opened out as winners, but the start was soon lost.

George Clark, formerly manager of the Waterloo, Is., team, was referee, and did was the best in the history of the game," a good job, never having a decision disputed and being exceptionally good in his judgment on balls and strikes.

The Sloux certainly had their batting clothes on during the recent series and if what they have done is any criterion as to what they can do, the other teams of the league will have to look to their laurels. Spencer made five hits in five times up Monday, a home run, a triple, a double and two singles. The score: OMAHA.

Louis.

Many changes have been wrought in the makeup of these teams and the fan has to be pretty busy to keep-track of the trades and purchases which have been made. The cubs, winners in the National league, have about the same front and Detroit, the winners in the American, will present about the same lineup, but many of the other teams have changed sayeral men. Numerous trades have been made, so that patrons of the games will see opposed to them many players who were formerly in their home uniforms.

Meets with Three Umpires, Who Are Assigned for Opening and Enjoined Always to Make Things Go.

"We look for just as good a season, of better in baseball than last year, which ern league, who arrived in Omaha, early Monday morning to attend a meeting with Skinner, I Walton, E Green, Joh "I never saw managers so well pleased with their own teams as are the managers of this league. The big league teams all have surplus players and several have offered me some good players for this league. I have written or seen all the managers and they all wired and wrote back that they had their teams filled with good men. These players I had offered me were no mediocre players, but some for whom the big teams had paid good prices and who could be had for little money. so if the opinion of the managers count they will all have good teams.

"I have just returned from a visit to the two Colorado towns and both Manager Patterson of Pueblo and Manager Irwin of Denver think they have teams that will be able to keep the rest moving from the start. I met Ducky Holmes on the street this morning and all he could talk about was his new pitchers, First Baseman Severeid and Outfielder Spencer. He is most enthusiastic over the support he is getting before the opening of the season at Sloux City.

"J. F. Higgins, the new owner of the Des Moines team is a rich man and a great fan and bought the team simply to have something to do. He will spend the summer with the team and be with it all the time. Everybody knows he doesn't know any more about handling a team than any other fan who sits in the grandstand, but he has Charley Dexter as his captain and manager and writes that they will have a great team."

Meets With His Umps.

Mr. O'Neil met with his umpires Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Schlitz hotel and went over the changes in the rules with them, most of which are of a minor nature except the rule which prohibits players from wasting their time and the time of the spectators in soiling a new ball thrown into the diamond. Mr O'Nell impressed upon the umpires that it BIG LEAGUES START UP TODAY is their duty to see that the game is fast and clean and not to stand for delay or "oratorical stuff" which does not interest

"It is action we want and not delays," said Mr. O'Nell. "You have control of the field and it is your duty to keep the game moving right along from start to finish." It was decided that Jack Haskell would begin the season with Omaha and Des Moines at Des Moines; Brennan with Sioux

City and Lincoln at Lincoln and Davis with Denver and Pueblo at Denver. The umpires of the Western league are known as good umpires to the followers of the great national game. All were present at the meeting and assured the president that they would do all in their power to make the games go as he desired. President O'Neil goes to Lincoln for the opening of the sesson at that town Wednesday with a game between Lincoln and Sloux City. He will be in Omaha for the opening of the league season here April 23, when the Western league pennant will be unfurled at Vinton street park.

"No league is stronger than its weakest club," said Mr. O'Neil, "for if any club is weak and goes to pieces the entire league is apt to fall and for that reason all are interested in seeing that each club is strong. From the word I have received from the BREWERS DEFEAT THE LEAGUERS managers it looks like all the teams in this league will be classy this year. If any club is seen to be falling short it will be remedied right at the start, for there are plenty of good ball players to be had."
