COUNTING CONTEST

Given Away to Counters $5,000.00 Given Away to Counters

Do You Want to Win a Prize by Using Your Brains? If so, Enter the Great Counting Contest of the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co.

Prizes Will Be Awarded as Follows:

One celebrated Steger & Sons piano, valued at $400; one celebrated Cabinet Piano Player, valued at $250; one beautiful high top Schmoller & Mueller organ, walnut or oak case, fully guaranteed for 25 years, valued at $125, $25 IN GOLD, and other prizes amounting in value to $4,200, in order of merit, making a grand total of $5,000.

Remember it costs nothing to try, except the use of your brains. Our reasons for distributing these valuable prizes are as follows:

- 1st—We want the name of Steger & Sons to become a household word in the musical families of this city, Nebraska and the West. 2d—We want to test the relative advertising value of the Omaha newspapers. 3rd—We want everyone who is intending to purchase a piano or organ to call at our sales rooms, 1311-1313 Farnam St., and examine our matchless stock of high grade instruments. 4th—We want to convince every intending purchaser and visitor that we have the largest stock of instruments, that we are the oldest and most reliable Piano house in the West, and that we grant the most liberal terms of payment—One Dollar a Week.

The conditions under which this great contest will be held are as follows:

It Is Easy; Use Your Brains. Just Count the Dots that Appear in the Outlined Steger Piano.

The correct number of dots is only known to the judges, the representatives of the three daily papers of Omaha. The correct answer has been deposited at the Bee Office by the manufacturers. We do not know it.

First Prize, $400 Steger Upright

Each answer will be numbered consecutively as soon as received, and will remain sealed until opened by the following representatives of the three daily papers of Omaha: Mr. E. H. James, of the Bee; Mr. S. J. Ranger of the World-Herald, and Mr. W. J. Mahoney, of the Daily News.

Any one residing in the United States, is entitled to one answer. When more than one answer is received from the same party, all but the first will be discarded.

This contest positively closes Wednesday, May 6, 1908, at 6 P. M. Every one entering the contest will receive a Souvenir Scarf Pin, also a Neat Little Book Mark. All answers must be written plainly and the coupon filled in, giving name and address. Also state whether you have an organ, square or upright piano, giving name. No one engaged in the music business, nor any one employed by this firm will be allowed to enter the contest.

More than 10,000 People Attest to Our Fair and Honest Dealings, who have purchased pianos from us since 1859. We can say beyond successful contradiction that we have the largest piano business in the west. The prices on the famous lines of pianos we handle are well established, and are marked in plain figures. We carry by far the largest stock of pianos in Omaha, comprising:

Form for SCHMOLLER & MUELLER PIANO CO. with fields for Name, Address, Upright/Square/Organ, Name of Instrument, City, State, Date, and Coupon B.

DE SAGAN AND DE GINZBERG

Letter Supposedly from Prince Helie Calls Baron Faker.

DENIES HIS CLAIM OF KINSHIP

Missive is Received by Superintendent Ferrer of County Hospital Telling of Baron's Record in Transvaal.

GREEKS WARNED BY COURT

One is Fined Hundred Dollars for Annoying Woman and Others.

GUILD ON THE LINCOLN CASE

Thinks Decision Spikes the Bill Capital City Voted on Congress.

DE SAGAN AND DE GINZBERG

is addressed to the "Superintendent of the County Hospital, Omaha, U. S. A."

The story of Baron de Ginzberg was telegraphed from Omaha to the New York papers and the fact the letter was mailed just before prince de Sagan sailed from New York, lends color to the belief that he himself wrote it.

Did Prince Helie de Sagan find time in the midst of his courtship of Mme. Anna Gould to write a letter denying the claim of Henry Louis de Ginzberg of Omaha that he is really a French baron and a second cousin of Prince de Sagan?

Kergost was arrested on the information of Miss Bertha Smead of Sheldon, Ia. She charged the Greek with threatening her in her room about midnight Tuesday.

Another evidence of the identity of the writer is the fact that he evidently knew the Omaha "baron" and is conversant with his life from the time of his birth, through the Boer war and down to the present.

"The real De Ginzberg family," the letter continues, "lives in Paris and is not acquainted with this fakir."

Whoever the writer is, he evidently has run across the Omaha "baron" before, and not only knows him, but has some very decided feeling against him, as the tone of the letter and some of the information it contains indicates.

ELEVEN INDIANS IN JAIL

Omahas and Winnebagoes Are Brought Down from Reservation for Bootlegging.

Deputy United States Marshal John Sides brought down from the Winnebago and Omaha reservations Tuesday evening eleven Indians and locked them up in the Douglas county jail under indictment for introducing liquor onto Indian reservations.

Little Bird pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and ninety days imprisonment in the Douglas county jail, upon arraignment before Judge W. H. Stunger Wednesday morning.

The decision of the Interstate Commerce commission, if it is correctly quoted in the dispatches from Washington, makes one thing clear to me," said Commissioner J. M. Child of the Omaha Commercial club.

"But the decision, if correctly stated, shows there are cases in which a rate may be lower for a long haul than for a short haul, even when the given point in the short haul is intermediate with the long haul point, as in the case of Lincoln and Omaha."

"It is to be hoped that we will hear no more demands for upsetting the rates of the country by asking congress to adopt an amendment making the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce law valid."
