"Not the slightest criticism should attach to Mr. Mitchell in this matter," said a member of the Board of Supervisors yes-"The entire transaction as between the board and the county treasurer, was in perfect good faith and with the understanding that the board had the authority to pay such a commission for the collection of delinquent personal taxes. The 60 custom of allowing one of the county treasurer's deputies a commission of 10 per cent for the collection of these delinquent personal taxes had prevailed for years. When the attack was made by Mr. Wadsworth it was at the request of Treasurer Mitchell that the matter was referred to the county attorney, who decided that the board had not the authority to pay this commission. It was the county attorney who drew up the resolution providing for the payment to Mr. Vollstedt of the commission which was adopted by the unantmous vote of the board on December 4 of last year."

As the result of Mr. Vollstedt's efforts lose upon $19,000 of delinquent personal taxes which had accrued long before Mr. Mitchell assumed the duties of county treasurer, was recovered into the treasury of Pottawattamie county. Some of these personal taxes had been delinquent for as long as ten years. Many of the delinquents who, through Mr. Vollstedt's efforts, were compelled to pay up had left Pottawattamie county and are residents of Idaho, Washington, Colorado, Wyoming and other western states. Stolen Property Found at the Home of One of the Accused Parties, Who Insists His Wife Bought It.

The South Omaha police arrested four men on suspicion yesterday, whom they expect to prosecute for highway robbery. They were John Quincey, Thomas Dombrowski, Michael Dombrowksi, his son, and John Wabons. It is alleged the four men DES MOINES, April 15.—(Special)—While great deal more than the usual amount of Stock Yards company about Thirty-fourth leged to have visited the Bradford-Kennedy lumber yards and attempted to steal lumber. While they were engaged in this a watchman came upon them. They held conference of the miners and operators him up with a gun and ordered him back to his bouse. The watchman did not delay in getting away from the vicinity. He recognized two of the men, however. was so positive that the police immediately placed Dombrowski and his son under ar rest. Then they paid a visit to the residence and found the hay stored, and also may go to work at once pending perma- last Saturday night. This combination of evidence is thought to make a strong case against the Dombrowskis. The statement of the first two led to the arrest of the others.

The prisoners were put through the sweat box yesterday and were pretty well tied up in their efforts to explain how the stolen property happened to be in their possession. Dombrowski said his wife had bought the hay last Friday, but he could not tell how much she had paid for it. Johnson Gets in Wrong Red.
