REVISING LAWS OF CHURCH

Letter Day Saints Complete Code for Church Court Procedure.

DEBATE OVER BOOK OF MORMON

Manuscripts From Which Original Book Was Printed Asserted to Be Now in Possession of Reorganized Church.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 17.—(Special.)—At the afternoon session of the conference of the reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints, the matter under consideration yesterday afternoon was continued, namely consideration of the report of the committee on procedure in church courts. After routine work the desired amendments were put in it, and it was finally adopted as a whole and ordered published as a supplement to the Saints Herald.

Bishop Kelley, chief financial officer of the church, asked for an order of the conference to sell certain properties in California which are now owned by the church. This order was granted in order to comply with the state laws of California, which require such an order.

By motion, certain recommendations made by the auditing committee were taken up. One of the recommendations was concerning the manuscript of the Book of Mormon which the bishop has carried as an asset to the amount of $2,450. The committee recommended that this be not carried as an asset, but be carried to the loss and gain account. This recommendation was in effect to give up the manuscript to the people. The $2,450 represents the price they paid for it. It has been held by George W. Swickie of Richmond, Va., who in turn received it from his grandfather, David Whitmer, who died some years ago at Richmond, and who had always held the manuscript as a sacred trust committed to him by the authorities of the church. Mr. Swickie, George W. Swickie, after considerable negotiations sold it to the reorganized church at a greatly reduced figure from what he had been offered by other parties.

Utah Church Wants It.
 It has been quite generally believed among Latter Day Saints that the Utah Mormons had offered large sums for this manuscript. They may not have done so openly, but Mr. Swickie was given to understand that if it was for sale, Utah Mormons had plenty of money to buy it.

The questions as asked today indicated that the Utah people have denied this was the original manuscript, and the chairman of the conference, President P. M. Smith, was asked, as he was one year ago, whether this was the original manuscript or not. The discussion drew out the fact that Elder Smith had been taken to task by the Utah people for claiming this was the original, but Mr. Smith at this conference retorted that from all evidence they had in hand everything pointed to the fact that this was the original manuscript from which the book was printed.

The manuscript in question is now in the custody of P. M. Smith of the first presidency of the reorganized church, who holds it as a sacred trust committed to him by the authorities of the church. It is in one of the vaults of Independence, and is indeed a rare manuscript, for which the church could doubtless get considerably more than the amount set opposite it as one of the assets. It is, of course, showing the effects of age and the edges are crumbling and have worn away to some extent by handling and hence the precious manuscript is not exposed to public view, but frequently parties will be formed and they are permitted to see it under the care of the church's legal charge.

Carefully Guarded Now.
 Some years ago the manuscript was placed in a glass case and on exhibit during almost the entire conference, but that was at the Herald at Lamon. Long exposure to light had a visible effect upon it, so that it is carefully guarded now.

The manuscript, however, is the shape as yet and with care can be preserved for many years yet.

In the upper auditorium tonight preaching was by Elder Alvin Kinsley, formerly of Canada, now of Independence, Mo., then by J. J. Shields of Canada. At the same hour in the evening, Bishop E. J. Kelley, chief financial officer of the church, conducted what is termed a round table in the basement of the church at which round table many questions were asked and answered concerning the financial laws of the church. It was a meeting in which many of the saints had a great deal of interest.

We're Here—Dear reader, we come before the "footlights" of your intellect as a stranger, an onlooker in the midst of a garden of roses as it were. Politically, the Times will be "not so wooted" through in the days to come as an independent paper—leaving Crossing Times.

Neway Nubbins—Ed Schneider has contracted another bad habit. We do not wish to mention it, but will try to talk Ed out of it. * * * J. M. Marine Intelligence—Comrade William Kille has about completed the construction of one of the largest and finest boats that ever floated the Blue. The commodore has been to great expense and no small amount of labor. It was his determination to excel and from what has been said by Comrade Kille, he has. The dimensions of this beautiful floating palace are thirty-six feet by twelve feet, double decked and propelled by a gasoline engine and he has chosen such a beautiful name—Atlanta. The launching of this boat will be the event of the season and will occur on or about May 12 and as there have been a large number of invitations issued the commodore is assured a large attendance.—Milford Nebraska.

A New Amusement—Our attention has been called to the fact that a party or parties who are out shooting for pleasure have pleased themselves by shooting at monuments placed at the grave of friends in our little cemetery. Now, boys, there is a silent hand that marks all the evil deeds in the catchlight of your eyes as well as all the good deeds, and the eye is a fair indication of the man behind the throne and would you be willing that your own eyes should tell to the public how evil your heart is? ### STATE POLICE HOLD CHESTER

Men Fully Armed in Control of Strike Situation.

COMPANY AWAITS GOVERNOR

President of Corporation Says No Effort Will Be Made to Act Without Consent of the Authorities.

CHESTER, Pa., April 17.—The three troops of the state police which were ordered to Chester late yesterday afternoon by Governor Stuart because of the street car strike arrived at Media, a short distance from the city, during the night and will come into town later in the day. The troops, A of Greensburg, B of Wilkes-Barre and C of Reading, may create about 16 men. They will make their headquarters in the car barn of the Chester Traction company at Thirteenth and Edgemont streets, which will also be turned into a temporary prison.

The troopers, it is said, will search all suspicious persons for firearms, prevent crowds congregating and protect the cars of the company if an attempt is made to resume traffic. About 200 private detectives employed by the company also went on duty today and will co-operate with the state police. In addition to these the sheriff of the county has about 200 special deputies in service.

There was no disturbance during the night and the city today is quiet. The company may attempt to resume the running of cars this afternoon, under the protection of the state police.

John A. Rigg, president of the United Powder and Transportation company, which controls the Chester Traction company, has refused a request made last night by the Chester Board of Trade to arbitrate.

In Hands of Governor.

He said, "Chester is in the hands of the governor and the state police are mobilizing at Media. No cars will be started until the streets are cleared, nor will we run any cars while there is any prospect of bloodshed."

He also said that the company operated

NO LET UP AT KANSAS CITY

Sunday Prosecutions Will Be Continued by Court.

GRAND JURY TO BE KEPT BUSY

Judge Wallace Intends to Order Investigation of Acquittal of Thomas Taaf—Jurors Violated Oaths.

KANSAS CITY, April 17.—Judge William H. Wallace of the criminal court was well pleased today at the first conviction last night in a theatrical case growing out of his campaign for the enforcement of the Sunday observance laws of Missouri.

"Judge Porterfield's instructions to the jury in the case of L. A. Keller, the ticket seller convicted of violating the Sunday labor statute by selling tickets on Sunday, vindicates my position on the law and agrees with that of our supreme court," said he.

Judge Wallace had been quoted as saying he would ask the grand jury to inquire into the work of the petit jury that on Wednesday failed to find a verdict in a similar case, that of Thomas Taaf, a ticket seller.

"The defense offered no evidence that the defendant, Taaf, did not work," said Judge Wallace, "and the state had evidence that he did. Under these circumstances it seems inexplicable how the jury refused to return a verdict for conviction, unless some of them deliberately refused to obey their oaths."

The cases of the other indicted theatrical men will be taken up without delay beginning next week, and, according to Judge Porterfield, to whose division they have been transferred upon order of the state supreme court, they will be pushed to an early conclusion. In the meantime Judge Wallace, the latter says, will continue to seek the indictment from week to week of others who violate the Sunday law. There is to be no let up.

DIGESTS THREE THOUSAND GRAINS OF ANY KIND OF FOOD YOU EAT

Don't fool with indigestion but cure it and forever rid yourself of Stomach misery.

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2,500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at the number of cases of indigestion and stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do its work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested, or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That everything you eat turns to acid, Stomach gas and Stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canals, causing Biliousness, Headaches, Dizziness and Indigestion, Heartburn, Nauseous Breath, Intestinal griping, constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease what you will—Indigestion, Gastritis, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Catarrh of Stomach, etc.—you know the real cause, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour Stomach, which belches gas and erupts undigested food or

BUM WORD NOT TO HER LIKING

Corning, N. Y., Glass Blower Thereupon Kills Woman Who Applied Epithet.

CORNING, N. Y., April 17.—Mrs. Edith M. Dutcher of this city, who was shot last evening by Arthur Borland, a glass blower, died shortly after midnight from the effects of her injuries. Mrs. Dutcher was 29 years old. Borland was a boarder at her home. For the past year Mrs. Dutcher had not lived with her husband. In her ante mortem statement Mrs. Dutcher says Borland came in for his supper last evening, grabbed hold of her and tried to wait with her. She says she told him to let her alone as she was busy. He then, according to the statement, grabbed her by the wrist and pressed her against the wall. He then called her a drunken bum.

He went up stairs like a shot, and returning, said, "I will give you two minutes to say I am not a drunken bum. If I am soon die now, and I will fix you." I tried to get out the front door and he held the door in the side. He pushed me over, and I was going down the steps he fired at me, striking me in the back of the neck. I ran in the lawn and when he grabbed me, I tried to get away, and fell. Then he shot me in the side and when he grabbed me, I grabbed my hand over the revolver and two shots were fired there. He attempted to shoot the fifth time, but the revolver missed fire.

Borland is under arrest.

ANOTHER PEACE MEASURE

Federal Means of Punishing Americans Who Molest Foreigners to Preserve International Amity.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)—Federal means of handling and punishing citizens of the United States guilty of lynching or mistreating foreigners will be advocated by former United States Senator George Turner of Spokane, in a paper to be read before the International Society of which Secretary of State Root is president, at its annual meeting in Washington, D. C., April 24. Mr. Turner will point out in detail that serious international complications sometimes result from these outrages, because of the manner in which offenders are punished at present by state and civic authorities, and in this he refers to the lynching of the Italians at New Orleans, several years ago. It is believed that some action will be taken, as it is generally recognized that embroglios with other nations can be averted if the matter of punishment is placed in the hands of the government. The International society is composed of lawyers and all the matters brought to the attention are national in character.

HUGE STEAMERS IN PROSPECT

Two Thousand-Foot Vessels in Contemplation by the White Star Line.

LIVERPOOL, April 17.—The new 1,000-foot steamship, the construction of which is to be commenced later in the year, for the White Star Line, will be named the Olympic. It is possible that two levitons of this size will be built and their speed probably will be twenty knots an hour. The vessels are destined for the Southampton-New York trade.

Nebraskan Declines to Take Sides in New York.

MACK HAS LONG INTERVIEW

Nebraskan Arrives at Rochester, Where He is Given Enthusiastic Welcome—Conners Slow in Arriving.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 17.—When William J. Bryan stepped from his train in the New York Central station today, he was greeted with cheers by a crowd of enthusiastic democrats who surged forward to grasp his hand. He posed for photographers on the steps of the car and was then taken to the Genesee Valley club, his headquarters while here.

After resting for a time he was driven to the Young Men's Christian association hall where addressed the Rochester ministerial association on the subject of inducing people to enter the church, and then making Christians of them. Returning to the club, Mr. Bryan was the guest of Judge John D. Lynn at luncheon. After lunch Mr. Bryan received the reporters for a few minutes before going to the University of Rochester to address the students on the general subject of ethics.

It was reported that W. J. Conners, chairman of the state democratic committee, would be in Rochester today to confer with the Nebraskan, but up to 2 o'clock he had not arrived.

Following his address at the university Mr. Bryan will hold a reception at the Powers hotel. Tonight's meeting in Rochester's new convention hall is expected to be the largest in the history of the city. Mr. Bryan will speak on general politics.

In the morning Mr. Bryan will go to Utica, where he will deliver an address tomorrow night. He expects to reach New York City on Monday, where he will meet Mrs. Bryan and return with her immediately to Lincoln, Neb.

Father of Rev. J. A. Bingham.

J. T. Bingham, father of Rev. J. A. Bingham, pastor of the Zion Baptist church (colored) in Omaha, died Thursday afternoon at his home in Atchison, Kan., following a week's illness from pneumonia. The elder Mr. Bingham spent the winter with his son in Omaha, returning but two weeks ago to his home in Atchison. He was then in the best of health and his sudden death comes as a shock to his colored friends in Omaha. Due to the absence of Rev. Mr. Bingham, Rev. H. Curry will hold services at the Zion church Sunday.

Several hours later, thinking he was overdrinking, she went to awaken him and found him dead. The cause of his death has not been determined. His widow and two sons survive him.
