

COLOMBO FASTS FATAL DAY

Must Spend Anniversary of Murder in Solitary Confinement.

NOR CAN HE EAT ANYTHING

This is Little Amendment Judge Sears Tacks on His Life Sentence and Convict is Satisfied.

For the rest of his life Servorio Colombo will observe the anniversary of the day he killed Joseph Fiorenza by sitting in solitary confinement in his cell and fasting.

This additional punishment was decreed by Judge Sears Saturday morning when he sentenced Colombo to life imprisonment in the penitentiary in conformity with the verdict returned by the jury.

The solitary confinement feature of the sentence is unusual in the Douglas county court, although it is a common punishment in the east.

Several of Colombo's Italian friends were in the court room and they declared they were satisfied with the outcome of the case, believing justice had been done.

Colombo was convicted of killing his roommate, Fiorenza, January 5, while they were out hunting near East Omaha.

Colombo admitted the killing, but said his gun had gone off accidentally inflicting a wound on the side of Fiorenza's head.
