FARMER HAS CLOSE CALL

Wakes Up to Find His Room in Flames.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 24.—(Special.)—A Farmer, a Union Pacific engineer running between Omaha and this city, awoke in his room at the Altoona house last night to find himself surrounded by flames. The fire was already in his bedclothing and, crawling upon hands and knees to escape the flames as much as possible, he made for the door, to find that he could not open it. He was making his way back to the window when the door was burst open from the hall, occupants of the hotel having discovered the fire in the room from the smell of burning paper. In breaking the glass of the door and putting his head through it Parmenter was quite badly out about the head. He did not inhale any of the flame, apparently, and, although suffering intensely from numerous burns about the body, it is believed that he will recover. The fire was confined to the room and quickly extinguished without great damage.

Fire in Cherry County Destructive.

VALENTINE, Neb., April 24.—(Special.)—Later developments of the prairie fire which occurred twenty-five miles west of here Tuesday are that a man named Ballard was burning brush on his garden patch when the fire got away from him and swept northward over the prairie with a high wind. John Werch was the last man to see Max Franke alive and was talking to him when the fire was about a mile away. Werch hurried off to his home and saw Franke go back to his shanty to get some money and valuable papers. It appears that Franke stayed by his house and tried to save it from destruction, until his clothes caught fire and the blinding smoke probably suffocated him. He was found about sixty feet from his shanty, lying face downward. The deceased was 36 years old and leaves four daughters and a son, living in the eastern part of the state. Other ranchers who sustained losses from the prairie fire are: J. F. Phillips, burned out completely, house, barn and improvements; H. Buttinhaus, lost barn, out-buildings and hay; Mr. Tennis, completely burned out. The fire cut a path four miles wide. The grass was high and the wind strong.

Bowel Complaint Cured at 94.

Mr. John Adams, 94 years old, of Gardner, Mass., praises Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for curing him of severe bowel complaint, which had troubled him for over a year.

Mr. Adams now enjoys health and vigor of both body and mind, thanks to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. For this he is grateful and recommends it to all his aged friends.

"I write to say that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey helped me very much in a severe bowel complaint, from which I suffered for more than a year, and to express my deep thanks for the relief I feel. I enclose $2.00 for two more bottles. I am so grateful for the strength of mind and body your remedy has given me that I am inducing all my elderly friends to try it if they wish to enjoy a good appetite, good sleep and good health. You may use this communication for the benefit of the public if you wish. I am almost 94 years of age. With the warmest wishes for the success of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, I am, JOHN ADAMS, 52 Prospect Street, Gardner, Mass., October 15th, 1907."

It is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It cures nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as the great family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Look for the trademark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Write Dr. K. Curran, Consulting Physician, for a free illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.
