NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

Mrs. F. J. McShane and Miss McShane Give Afternoon Tea.

REVIVAL AMONG SOCIAL CLUBS

Numerous Informal Gatherings for Cards, Kensington, Luncheon and Other Social Affairs Occupy Rest of Week.

Largest among the affairs of Friday was the tea given between 3 and 5 o'clock by Mrs. F. J. McShane and her daughter, Miss McShane, at their home on Park avenue.

There has been a decided revival among the card clubs since the close of Lent, and these small, informal, though undeniably enjoyable gatherings will constitute the major part of the entertaining the rest of the week.

For the Club Husbands.

The members of the Comis club were guests Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George E. Townsend, it being the regular meeting of the club. The rooms were effectively decorated with cut flowers and the afternoon was devoted to high five.

Mrs. Ferris, Mrs. John P. Webster and Mrs. Townsend. The husbands of club members will be entertained at the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Townsend. It will be an evening party, and Mr. and Mrs. Cable will entertain with Mr. and Mrs. Townsend.

Friday Club. Mrs. John Guild was hostess of this week's meeting of the Friday club at her home on California street. Five hundred was the game of the afternoon, four tables being used. The club's membership includes Mrs. T. C. Bruner, Mrs. H. P. Deuel, Mrs. John Eyer, Mrs. J. D. Foster, Mrs. Guild, Mrs. Ed Haney, Mrs. Amelia Hayes, Mrs. F. B. Kennard, Mrs. L. H. Korry, Mrs. J. R. Manchester, Mrs. Ben Robidoux, Mrs. Fred Pearce, Mrs. Van Ness Smith, Mrs. Everet Smith, Mrs. Walter Wilkins, Miss Dunster and Mrs. E. Buckingham.

Thimble Club. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Philippi entertained the members of the Thimble club and their husbands Thursday evening at their home on California street, about forty guests being present. A program of music and recitations was provided by Miss Myrtle Moses and Miss Nickum, the latter reading chiefly from Field and Riley. The club is composed of women and meets fortnightly, with an occasional evening for the men.

For Mrs. Lighton. Complimentary to Mrs. William R. Lighton, Mrs. E. E. Westfield gave a small informal luncheon Thursday at her home in Dundee. The table was prettily trimmed with spring flowers and the guests included Mrs. Lighton, Mrs. Sylvester R.

Rush, Mrs. Orange, Mrs. J. J. Dodds and Mrs. W. S. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Talmage entertained at bridge Friday evening at their home in Dundee in honor of Mrs. Lighton. Three tables were used for the game and the guests included Mrs. Lighton, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester R. Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fahs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Car michael, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Yelzer, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kimberley. The game was followed by refreshments.

For Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton. In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, who have recently returned from their bridal trip abroad, Miss Mae Hamilton entertained at dinner Thursday evening at her home. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nash, Miss Mattie Robertson, Mr. Frank Keogh, Mr. Harry Tuttle and Mr. Lee McShane.

Mrs. Clarke Powell entertained the members of the Junior Bridge club Friday afternoon at her home on South Thirty-first street, three tables being used for the game.

Come and Go Gossip. Mrs. William R. Lighton, formerly of Omaha, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. R. Rush for the last week and much entertained, will leave Saturday for her home. Mr. and Mrs. Lighton expect to move to Fayetteville, Ark., in May to make their home permanently.

Mrs. Ed P. Boyer will give an informal Kensington afternoon Saturday at her home. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nash left Friday evening for a trip to New York.

Mrs. H. J. Ludwig and small daughter of Evanston, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Getten at their home, 3603 Harney street.

Mrs. Blackmore of Cincinnati, who has been the guest of Captain and Mrs. W. C. Bennett at Fort Crook, left Friday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cotton gave up their house Saturday and will take a cottage opposite the Country club for the summer, expecting to build again soon.

The meeting of the Friday Bridge club to have been entertained by Mrs. Eva Wallace this week has been postponed until Friday of next week.

PLENTY OF STRAWBERRIES

Country is saved by the good people of Van Buren, Arkansas.

Plenty of strawberries are to be had for the Sunday dinner, the third carload having arrived from Van Buren, Ark., this week. This last shipment costs 75 cents more a case than the first, owing to the rainy weather in Arkansas, but the dealers promise an abundance of berries next week at 15c cents a quart box.

The damp, murky weather has necessitated an unusual amount of repacking and handling of oranges and lemons, which has raised their price a trifle, but good oranges are to be had for 5c and 5c cents a dozen. Rhubarb and asparagus, home grown, are so plentiful that they will probably sell two bunches for 5 cents next week. They are selling for 5 cents a bunch this week.

More fresh tomatoes have been sold in the local market the last three weeks than during the entire season two years ago. The demand for fresh tomatoes the season through has become constant and forces even the smaller growers to keep the fresh stock on hand all the time. This is probably due to the fact that they have been of unusually good quality and comparatively cheap.

FRUIT IDEAL, SAYS SOLOMON

Prospects Could Scarcely Be Better for This Section of the Country.

"That fruit prospects could hardly be better than they are is the word brought by County Comptroller Solomon from his fruit farm near Benagh.

"I made a thorough examination of my peach and cherry trees," said Mr. Solomon, "and find the fruit is forming well and all indications are that the trees will be loaded if the weather stays right. It looks as if only a frost or some other unfavorable weather could prevent a monster crop. Apple trees are also in very good condition."

ANSWER IN EXPRESS CASE

Statement for the State is Filed by Attorney General in Federal Court.

Attorney General Thompson filed his answer in the United States circuit court in the five express company cases Friday morning. The answer is practically identical in each of the cases and embodies a general denial of allegations made in the bill of the express companies.

It sought to question the constitutionality of the Sibley act, holding that it involved the confiscation of the property of the express companies.

The answer affirms that the Sibley act was passed with a knowledge of the facts and with regard to fairness to the express companies, and that the act is constitutional and valid.

American Woman Artist. Few of the thousands of people who have admired the wall decorations of the New Amsterdam theater know that they are the work of an American woman, Miss Blanche Osterag.

After winning a number of student prizes while studying art in Paris, Miss Osterag returned to America, settled in Chicago, and beginning with designs for calendars, posters, book covers and other small forms of decorative art, worked up to the broad field of mural painting. One important commission which she has just finished for the Northwestern railroad is a series of historical panels at the Green Bay terminal, Wisconsin.
