MACHINES ARE NOT AVAILABLE

Scaled Since City Election and Court Order Would Be Required to Open Them Until Expiration of Thirty Days.

The city officials have decided to allow the election for the telephone franchise to proceed under the Australian ballot system, instead of using the voting machines. One reason for this is that the machines were locked after the municipal election, and the thirty days required by the statutes have not yet expired. It would require an order of the court to release the machines before the required time. This action would require so much trouble that the old ballot was determined on, especially since the telephone company had requested that the old system of ballots be used. The reason for this is that the county bond election of the same date will use the Australian ballot. It will avoid confusion if the two elections are in the same form. No Conclusions Reached. The meeting of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners Thursday night was purely advisory," said A. H. Murdock Friday morning. "Several questions were reached no conclusions. We expected to

"As yet none of the saloon men has deposited his bonds nor paid his license fees. We will not take up the matter of protests until this is done. Several protests have been filed. These are chiefly by The Omaha Bee regarding legal advertising." The licenses protested are Joseph Uvick,

Jos Vosacek, P. J. Martin, G. G. Farmer, M. P. Brennen, Joe Pezdirtz. Dell J. Green. John Kiellan, H. H. King, Tem Lukowski, Christ Hansen, Barney Cogan and Mike Sexton. The ground of the protest is that the applicants did not advertise in the paper having the largest circulation in Douglas county as required by law.

With the advice of the board, Chief of Police John Briggs has issued to all merchants, business men and residents of the business districts strict orders to clean up the garbage which has accumulated in large quantities in many back yards of the city. The residence districts are for the greater part well taken care of already. These garbage heaps, if left, would soon become the breeding place of files and germs of all malignant warm season diseases. Prosecution will follow neglect of SENIOR FAIR IN FULL SWING Annual Function at High School is Largely Attended by Pupils and Parents.

The senior fair opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the high school with auspicious signs for its success. The fine weather arrived just in time to persuade the parents and friends of the students to come out to see the result of the last month's planning and effort, and they found themselves thoroughly repaid. The campus and building never looked handsomer and in the main hall a fair dream of flowery decorations in white, old rose and maroon greeted the visitors. The ceiling decorations consisted of a white trellis-work trimmed with innumerable colored chrysanthemums and handsome furniture and rugs with potted plants completed
