Lincoln's only runs came, one through an error of Captain Franck and the other through an error of King. Franck Changes Batting Order. Captain Fox trotted out a southpaw and as a consequence Franck changed his batting order that all his left-handed hitters might not be bunched. Fox made the first run for Lincoln by a series of comedies. He was walked to first, went to second on a passed hall and scored when Franck iet an easy one go between his legs. In the fourth inning Lincoln scored another when King booled a grounder from the bat of Thomas. Thomas was sent to second on a balk and scored on Fitspatrick's single, the only hit made by Lincoln until the last inning, when King hit one over second base. Two runs were made in the second inning for Omeha, Zackert was tiving to keep am away from the plate for Householder so he hit him instead. Austin falled on an attempt at sacillice, but he made up for it stealing second and then, while the visiters were napping, he also purloined third. but way caught at the plate when Gonding rolled one to third.
