POLITICAL DEBATE IN HOUSE
Various Phases of Situation Are Discussed From Both Sides.

FORMERLY O. K. SCOFIELD BROS. CLOAK & SUITS. 1510 DOUGLAS ST. FORMERLY O. K. SCOFIELD CLOAK & SUITS.

Good Prospects of Capture.
Miss Pearl Taylor is still in a semiconscious condition and it is anything, a little worse than in the morning and her chances of recovery appear slight.

The twelfth annual session of the grand council Royal Arcanum of Nebraska completed its work at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening with the election of those officers:

The Editor of the Bee: I read the full text of the opinion of the court of appeals, as published by your paper, and have examined the questions somewhat, and while I recognize the "usefulness" of discussion, or locking the stable after the horse is stolen, still, if we are interested in the welfare of the city, we must have some ideas of the situation. Heretofore nothing has been offered in public to avoid the decision of the court of appeals, except the "low grade" condition of the water system. I will not offer that. If a humble individual found an excuse necessary before entertaining a belief that the decision of the court of appeals will be reversed, he can find it in the fact that their decisions have been reversed, and also in the fact that the supreme court of this state has of that tribunal differing, as often as they agree.

NEWS PRINT PAPER INQUIRY
John Norris Continues His Testimony
Before the Special Committee.

The purpose of this testimony was to show that the paper mills were not being shut down to prevent competition, and he quoted from various newspapers in substantiation of this view.

When the portion of the message referring to the multi-millionaire, whose son is a fool and his daughter a foreign princess, was read, there was a storm of applause, equally prominent on both sides of the house.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Ostensibly considering the tariff appropriation bill, the house devoted most of its time today to speeches covering a wide range of subjects, and concluded the session by giving an attentive hearing to the president's special message. Although nearly every member had read the message in his pocket, every member remained in his seat, fully following the words of the reading clerk.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—John Norris of the New York Times today continued his testimony before the house special news print committee. His testimony related especially to the shutting down of paper mills to prevent competition, and he quoted from various newspapers in substantiation of this view.

The gain in membership of the order during the year ending December 31, was about 1 per cent, with a similar gain for the year ending April 28. There has been a material decrease in individual subscriptions during the year, and no councils have been organized since the year ending December 31.

Need for further educational restriction in immigration was discussed by Mr. Birne of Alabama, who deprecated the condition of immigrants from southern Italy.
