Higher Cables and Cash Sales Bring Out Good Buying Orders.

OFFERINGS LIGHT AT THE START

Grain Values Advance Readily, with the Crowd Inclined to Be Bullish, and Enster Feeling Develops Later.

OMAHA, April 30, 1908. OMAHA, April 30, 1908.

Higher cabies and some heavy cash sales late yesterday brought out some good buying orders at the start this morning, and with light offerings, grain values advanced readily, with the crowd inclined to be buillah. An easier feeling developed later, and toward the close prices sumped back with some pressure.

Wheat opened strong in sympathy with higher cables and a heavy demand for cash wheat.

wheat.

Prices were advanced easily at the opening, but fell off gradually near the close on pressure of longs. May wheat opened at 95c and closed at 97c.

Corn opened nervous and ruled some weaker, owing to very little support. A good cash market strengthened values and the market strengthened values and the market steadied at the close, with values higher and showing good tone. May corn opened at 60%c and closed at 61%c.

Oats opened practically unchanged, with heavy offerings of the further futures for sale. May oats opened at 49%c and closed at 48%c.

Primary wheat receipts were 291,000 bushels and shipment were 329,000 bushels and shipment were 329,000 bushels, against receipts last 'gr of 56,000 bushels, and shipments of 500.0 bushels.

Corn receipts were 256,000 bushels, and shipments were 256,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 389,000 bushels and shipments of 481,000 bushels.

Clearances were 2,600 bushels of sorn, none of oats, and wheat and flour equal to 162,-000 bushels.

Liverpool closed 45d to 1d higher on wheat and 35d higher on corn.

Seaboard reported 102,000 bushels of wheat taken for export.

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO. April 30.—The local wheat market closed strong today because of a lively export demand, final quotations on the July delivery being up ic. Corn was $4.6% higher. Gats were ac lower and provisions 2½ hower to 2½ higher.

The wheat market was nervous, but bullish sentiment predominated. The market was firm early in the day because of cold weather in the west and southwest and for a time the market was strong. About the middle of the day prices declined about ic on the report of a local crop expert that it he fall-sown crop is one of the best ever recorded. Another sharp bulge occurred in the day on the improved demand for cash wheat and liberal sales in New York for export. The close was strong. July opened $4.00% higher at $3.42834c, sold off to $75c and then advanced to $94c. The close was at $75c. Clearances of wheat and fleur were 29.00 bu, against 546,000 bu, on the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 158 cars, against 48 cars last week and 42 cars one year ago. CHICAGO, April 20.-The local wheat rded. The corn market was strong the greater part of the day. Considerable weakness developed in the first half of the session owing to the general selling brought about by an estimate on the amount of corn to be exported from Argentina this week, which placed the total shipments at 2,40,000 bu., compared with 317,000 bu, the corresponding day a year ago. July opened inches advanced to sile. The close was at the contract grade.

Oats were quiet and steady, July opened unchanged at 454c, advanced to 55 c and then declined to 55 c, where it closed. Local receipts were 160 cars, with 32 cars of contract grade.

Provisions were firm early in the day because of a location and the price of live hogs. The close was steady, with July pork 25c higher at 13.50; lard was 25c lower at 8.50; ribs were a shade higher at 37.27447.30.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow are: Wheat, 20 cars; corn, 82 cars; oats, 192 cars; hogs, 15,50 head.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT Pair Tonight and Not Much Change in Temperature. OMAHA, April 30, 1998.

A very slight rise in temperature is shown this morning throughout the Missouri valley and west over the mountain districts. A moderate fall is general over the extreme northwest and the outlook is favorable for continued cool in this vicinity tonight and Friday, with probably light frost tonight. It is slightly cooler in the middle Mississippi valley and west gulf states. Killing frosts occurred in the middle Mississippi and Ohio valleys and lighter frosts in the lower valleys and throughout the southwest. Snows are falling in the Ohio valley and in Wyoming and Colorado. The weather is clear in the upper valleys and northwest and will probably be fair in this vicinity tonight and Friday.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Volume of Market Only About Half that of Wednesday.

VALUES SHOW REACTION

Opening is Lower and Last Prices Show Further Material Decline -Demand of Shorts Satisfied.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The shrinkage of half in the volume of today's stock market from that of yesterday was significant of abatement in the demand for stocks. The reactionary tone, at the same time, was more pronounced than yesterday, most of the day's sales being effected at prices below the closing of the day before, and last prices showing material declines. It is well understood that the disclosures in connection with the latest stock exchange failures have served to force opvering by the bears understood that the disclosures in connection with the latest stock exchange failures have served to force covering by the bears to an unusual extreme, many lenders of stock making peremptory demands for their return by borrowers for delivery against short sales. These disclosures have had a disquieting effect on the speculative temper also owing to the fears that they would discourage operations by the general public through commission houses. The practice by commission houses of short sales in a stock which their customers are long on is discountenanced, and the suggestion that some of the recent short covering was of this character has caused an unpleasant impression. The net result has been an unusual exhaustion of the short interest and this was held largely accountable for the drooping tendency of prices today. Of the more active factors, the most important was the rapid accumulation of idle freight cars reported by the American Rallway association's committee. The number of these on April 15, 375,770, is pronounced the greatest total in the history of American railroading, having risen from 37,642 on March 16, when increased freight movement had been bringing additional cars into service and comparing with 34,328 on February 5, the highest figure touched in the depression following the panic. So emphatic an evidence of renewed trade reaction did not pass unheeded in speculative circies. Amongst the less tangible influences in the day's market was an impression sought to be created that powerful banking and financial interests which have supported the market had achieved the desired purpose of securing the underwriting of proposed bond issues and saw no further nefinancial interests which have supported the market had achieved the desired purpose of securing the underwriting of proposed bond issues and saw no further necessity for fostering the rising tendency of prices. This view obtained added force from the action of new issues on the outside, where they are dealt in, when and if issued. Quotations for the Pennsylvania Consolidated 4 per cent bonds and the Interborough Rapid Transit notes both reacted in that market. Reading's poor report of March earnings affected one of the conspicuous leaders in the recent market movement. On the other hand, the statement of March earnings of the Harriman roads gave signal evidence of the effective measures of economy in force, which over-reached the fall in gross earnings in the cases of Southern Pacific and went far to meet in the case of Union Pacific. Copper receded in London again. Crop news was favorable. The weak return of the Bank of France hardened the open market discount rate there, and lowered the London exchange, thus adding to the pressure for gold in New York. London exchange here, however was heavy although but little chamsed in price.

SHEEP—There was a fair run for Thursday, but the quality on an average was not overly good, that is, there were not many really good killers. The market, as a whole, was without any new or interesting features. It might best be described as a slow, steady market, without any very noteworthy change in any direction. Most everything was cleaned up in fair season in the morning.

RAILROADS, ELEVEN MILLION

Value of Tangible Property in Douglas County for Terminal Tax.

SHRIVER COMPLETES ASSESSMENT

County Assessor Goes to Lincoln to Present His Returns to the State Board of Equalisation.

Columny Assessor Shriver Thursday, completed his assessment of railroad property n Douglas county, exclusive of South Dmaha, whose assessment is made by a tax commissioner there, under the new terminal taxation law, showing the value of railroad tangible property in Douglas county to be $11,072,.080. Until the State Board of Equalization adds Douglas county's share of the franchise value of the roads and their rolling stock, no figures will be available for comparison with last year, but as the tangible valuation greatly exceeds the total valuation for last year it is certain the assessment of railroads for taxation purposes in this county will greatly exceed that of any previous year. Last year the assessed valuation of railroad property in the county for taxation purposes was $1,661,007, figured on a onefifth basis, or $7,805,185, on a full basis. If County Assessor Shriver's figures stand the assessment of tangible property alone will amount to $2,314,416, figured on a onefifth basis, or $11,072,080 on the full valuation. Mr. Shriver went to Lincoln Thursday morning to deliver the returns to the state board. Tols board will proceed to fix the value of the intangible value, such as the franchise right, and the rolling stock and prorate it according to the number of miles of main track each road has in the county. This amount will be added to the value of the local tangible property. The figures of the county assessor represent an increase of $1,127,396 over the figures returned by the railroads. The railroad returns totalled $9,944,684. Practically every road in the county was increased substantially by the assessor over the valuations it returned. This increase amounts to about 12 per cent. Trackage of Each Road.

The following table shows the amount of trackage each road has in the various precincts of the county, the columns showing the trackage, the double tracks and the side and spur tracks;
