

NEW MEN FOR PARK BOARD

Rome Miller, J. W. McCane and L. N. Gordon Are Candidates.

G. T. MILLS MAY BE DROPPED

Watson, Cornish and Berryman Seen as Candidates for Reappointment When the District Judges Take Action.

Campaigning for membership on the new Board of Park Commissioners has begun and three named candidates are in the field for the possible two vacancies, three of the present five members asking for reappointment.

The north side is impatient upon having representation on the board. The names of Rome Miller and John W. McCane are being advanced. On account of his long residence in the city and large property holdings in the vicinity of Miller's park in the extreme north part of the city it is urged by Mr. Miller's friends that he is the very man for the seat on the board.

Judges to Name New Board.

The present Board of Park Commissioners was appointed by the mayor, but the district judges have decided that the members should be appointed by the judiciary.

In session Friday the board advised a resolution establishing the present number of park boards, the board having been advised that the public does not know a purpose for which the fund is created.

Believed that in case said bonds are issued that said fund will be used by the board exclusively in paying for improvements on streets and boulevards and improvements on property adjacent to said parks and boulevards.

C. J. Ernest Named for Place.

Carl J. Ernest, treasurer of the Burlington railroad, is being urged to accept an appointment as member of the Board of Park Commissioners, the German element being back of this move.

GREEN STAYS BY OMAHA

See He Could Not Afford to Leave This City for Mexico Permanently.

"I wish you would express the impression that I have an intention of making my future home in Mexico," said W. H. Green, "I have no such intention. It is true that I have some extensive interests in Mexico, but they are not of such a character as would induce me to abandon my home in Omaha. I have a family here, and you can see for yourself that Omaha really is a good place for a permanent home. I am not going to Mexico to make my home. I may be absent about a month, or possibly longer, but I shall return to Omaha, which is a good enough home for me."

HOW HAVELY GOT THE MONEY

Desk Sergeant Hits Bull's-Eye with Blank Cartridges.

When Tom Ring is Discovered Behind the Scenes with an Iron Bolt Striking the Gang at Every Clip.

"Was a great Mike Desk Sergeant Harry Harty and John Tom Ring had on Captain Dunn at the police station. Or did the captain have his side on them, I don't know. There is considerable interest in target practice with revolvers at the police station and he can hit the bull's-eye once out of six shots at the target, in the gymnasium is considered a good shot.

When Harry proposed to Captain Dunn to give the captain a dollar every time he missed the bull's-eye if the captain would give him a dollar every time he hit Captain Dunn's revolver back him up at once, considering it easy money.

"During a little talk in the business of their regular hotel party and the captain, accompanied by some officers who were invited to the party, which was made of shot iron and pointed white to show where the bullets strike.

"It's a shame to take your money, Peter," said Captain Dunn as the sergeant took his place.

"Oh, don't mention it," said Peter calmly. "I'm not here to take your money, I'm here to take your money."

IMPROVEMENT CLUB SOCIAL

County Officials Guests and Several of Them Make Short Addresses.

All present voted the social session of the First Suburban Improvement club a great success. The session was held at Brodsgard's hall, Fifteenth and Farnam streets, Friday night, and over 100 members and guests gathered at the banquet.

The club had as its guests the county commissioners and other county officials. A. C. Harte acted as toastmaster. Music was furnished by an orchestra and by the Scandinavian girl club. On behalf of the club Fred Brodsgard, the president, welcomed the guests, and he did it in a way that left no doubt they were welcome.

One feature of the program was a series of three-minute talks by the invited guests, these representing being County Commissioners M. J. Kennard, W. G. Vre and J. H. Rags, E. G. Salmon, county treasurer, J. P. English, county attorney, Robert Smith, clerk of the district court, D. M. Haverly, county clerk, Ed Bradley sheriff, and W. A. Yoder, county superintendent of public instruction. The talk of Mr. English was most interesting, being along the lines of the beauty of owning a home, which he characterized as one of the safeguards of the republic.

On behalf of the Ladies' First Suburban Improvement Social club Mrs. Will Brandt asked permission to speak and in a few well chosen words presented President Brodsgard with a handsome bag.

The closing feature of the social evening was "Mad Hatter" by Carl Roster. "Dance" was an fortunate enough to know Carl Roster or have heard him tell some of his character stories they will imagine how and they were. He took the audience by storm and was forced to repeat in three separate recitals.

Let by the band and President Brodsgard, the members of the club selected the guests of the evening to the act and all acted to the words he sent his eyes and pulled the trigger. Again the gang struck. "Booming shot," said the captain and turned his back to the target, discharging the gun at the opposite brick wall. Again the gang rang.

This was certainly wonderful shooting. But when Tom Ring emerged from behind the target still carrying an iron bolt in his hand and wearing a smile on his face that revealed that of Peter, and when the revolver was found to be loaded with blank cartridges, the mystery of the wondrous marksmanship was solved, and everybody saw that Peter could indeed have gone on hitting the bull's-eye all day if Captain Dunn hadn't caught sight of Tom Ring playing his ace on the game every time the gun was discharged.

objected to his testifying, but Judge Swann overruled the objection and let him testify. Now he urges the same ground as one reason for granting a new trial. He also bases his motion on a number of technical grounds.

KILLING FROST DOES COME

Gardens and Orchards Caught After Almost a Week of Warmth.

Frost at last got to the vegetation and fruit Friday night, after a week of almost a week of wind and clouds. The damage about Omaha to the gardens will be heavy. The unexpected visit of winter has now well covered the west and completed its work by turning the Missouri valley after visiting large areas from Texas to North Dakota.

Between Nebraska City and Sioux City grapes, strawberries, currants, potatoes, sweet corn and grapes suffered Friday night. Apples, cherries and other fruits high above ground escaped serious damage. Garden truck loaded in in the morning during the early hours of Friday morning and by noon the sun had withdrawn some of it and many leaves turned brown.

Several growers of garden truck believed the frost would take 50 per cent of the early garden stuff and the strawberries which escaped are those which are not yet set out, all others being damaged to an extent which will make the home-grown crop short.

Frost was little expected Friday evening and Council Bluffs growers who had kept up fires to wither and vineyards during the first nights of the week lost by failing to keep the "smoke" going Friday night and early Saturday morning. Fruit growers say the damage will mean a loss of thousands of dollars in grapes, which were treated particularly rough by the winter visit.

Reports received by the local weather office say that killing frost visited places as far south as Lawrence, Kan., while from Minneapolis a report was received that garden and fruit greatly damaged at almost all Minnesota points.

TRIAL MAY TURN ON NAME

Had That Old, Worn Question as Likely to Be Settled.

The ancient query, "What is a name?" may receive an answer in criminal court. John Brennan, who was convicted of burglary Friday has asked for a new trial and one of the grounds is that Aaron Palmer was allowed to testify under the name Abraham Palmer. The law requires the name of witnesses to be entered on the information and Palmer appeared as Abraham. On the witness stand he said his name was Aaron, but he was incorrectly called "Ab." Don't Purge the Bowels—Do as Nature Does Nature gets her laxatives from food. If you are plenty of fruit, coarse food and green vegetables, you would get her laxative enough.

But you eat fine food, and too much of it. And you exercise too little. So it is vital that you help the bowels in another way.

But don't use salts or pill cathartics. Never employ harsh physic. Nature does all things gently. Give her gentle help.

Cascarets are vegetable. They have just the same effect as a laxative food. They never gripe, as you know they don't irritate.

They act in Nature
