Playground Ball.

"Playground Ball" is the latest book published in Spalding's Athletic Library. This book treats in an exhaustive way of the latest innovation in the line of outdoor sports and has been edited by R. L. Welch, who is accretary of the National Playground Ball association of the United States Playground ball is a modification of the great national game so arranged that it may be played in limited areas. The cost of equipment is imagnificant and ten players constitute a side. It is distinctly a game for pleasure and recreation which may be enjoyed by young or older men. The diamond may be laid out on a school lot or a golf field.

Indians and Cold Weather Cost Lee-Glass Another Game, BENSON EAGLES MADE-BIG HIT

Appeared in "Mercy Widowa" to Play
Opening Game in New Ball
Park Opposite Krug
Park.

Although the sun did not do its share there was plenty of warmth in the opening of the intercity base ball league Sunday when the four games were played according to schedule. The cold wind kept the frans made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers.

That the Benson Eagles have the hearty support of that thriving suburb was shown by the attendance of the rans of Benson. The Eagles turned out in force on coatume, being adorned with Merry Widow hats with porgrepus decorrations. The new heart was a proper to the case of the proper to the proper t

Sunday.

Many of the mack shets of the country have arrived for the annual amateur tournament of the Omeha Gun club to be held at the Townsend Gun club grounds at the cast end of the Douglas street bridge Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Some of these participated in the shoot of the Pottawattamie Gun club Sunday after-

Amateurs are taking more interest in this shoot than in any similar shoot in years because of the conditions which gives the moderate shooter a chance as well as the more experts. The system of paying 19 cents for every target broken seems to be quite popular.

The cold and wind kept down the scores Sunday afternoon, George Rogers being the unly shooter able to register above the 30 mark:

The out-of-town shooters who have already arrived for the shoot are J. L. Dyson and party of Uehling, Neb.; O. W. Ford of Central City, Ia : George Maxwell, New York; Chris Gattleib, Kansas City; J., M. Shut Out Hasky Rivals in Good Game Hughes, Milwaukee; R. R.
