SUNDY CIVIL BILL READY

House Perfects Measure After Ten Days' Discussion.

WAGE SCALE ON PANAMA

Principal Discussion Hinged About Proposition to Limit Pay of Canal Employees—Proposition Is Defeated.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—After ten days' discussion, consideration of the sundy civil appropriation bill was completed by the house today, but putting it on the calendar until tomorrow was taken. The bill carries a total appropriation of $106,900,000 or $1,341,000 more than as reported by the committee.

The principal discussion of the day related to the salary and wage scale to be paid in the construction of the Panama canal. The committee had inserted a provision providing that such salaries and wages should not exceed 25 per cent of the salaries and wages paid in the United States for similar work. The provision was defeated 10 to 10.

In the course of the debate on another section of the bill, Mr. Sulzer suggested that the supreme court of the United States be unable to have any printing done because of its decision affecting the typographical union was ready and willing to do all the printing for the government or any department of it.

At 5 p. m. recess was taken until 11:30 o'clock tomorrow.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE

Forestry Provision of Agricultural Bill Is Discussed.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The forestry provision of the agricultural appropriation bill was before the senate several hours today. Senator Teller of Colorado denounced that service as unwise and its administration arbitrary, while Senator Dewey of New York spoke in advocacy of the extension of the work of the forest reserve.

An address in support of the bill to establish postal savings banks was made by Senator Culler of Texas called the attention of the senate to newspaper publication to the effect that the president and the interior secretary had agreed to allow the railroads to increase freight rates. This suggestion precipitated a discussion as to the power of the president or the commission to make such an agreement.

The senate passed a bill appropriating $5,000 toward the erection of a monument to Pocahontas at Jamestown, Va. At 5:45 p. m. the senate adjourned.

murders at the Guinness home. Miss Conklin is not accused of complicity, but her testimony is considered of great importance that she will remain locked up until the grand jury hears her testimony next week. It is said that Lamphere while talking to Miss Conklin made threats against Mrs. Guinness and said that he had information which, if disclosed, would hang Mrs. Guinness.

"He told me that Mrs. Guinness had to be good to him, or he would make it hot for her and send her to the gallows," said Miss Conklin to Sheriff Smutser.

She further said that she was ready to disclose all that Lamphere told her, but that "he was in love with and crazy jealous over Mrs. Guinness."

Coroner Mack has received from Ask Holgelein a deposition according to the statements in which Lamphere was called upon for an explanation of some statements he is said to have made.

Explanation to Be Demanded. Holgelein says in his deposition that Mrs. Guinness wrote him and in the letter said that Lamphere told her that he had met a man from Mansfield, S. D., who told him that Andrew Holgelein was in Mansfield and intended to stay there for some time.

Mrs. Guinness said in the same letter that she had been expecting to hear from Andrew Holgelein for some time and that he had been in Chicago for two days and had written her not to write him until she heard from him again; that he was going to New York and thence to Norway.

The statement of Mrs. Guinness does not agree with that of Lamphere.

Mrs. Guinness wrote Ask that the letter of Andrew was left in the kitchen when she went out to milk and that Lamphere had stolen it or it had been burned. She enclosed a piece of the letter, which was found in the barn where Lamphere had been.

In answer to a question as to how much money Andrew had she said she did not know, but she had gotten some of it and had given a mortgage on her place.

Conflicting Statements. Ask had made a search of the records at La Porte, but could find no trace of a mortgage.

Mrs. Guinness, in answer to another question, said in the letter that Andrew left her place about 1 o'clock January 15 or 16 and her 11-year-old daughter drove him into town, as he was going to Michigan City to remain over a day.

Several days ago Lamphere told the police officers that Andrew Holgelein left on the 5:10 train on the Lake Shore road, intending to go to Chicago.

Men Disturb Corpses. This afternoon two well-dressed young men broke into the shed where the bodies of the nine murdered victims are kept, present and seriously disturbed the corpses.

The men entered through a rear window when the watchman, who had been in another part of the grounds, discovered them. He seized and attempted to hold them and call for help. He was unable, however, to retain the men and both of them escaped. They are said to be from Michigan City and it is not known what object they had in forcing an entrance into the shed.

The intruders fled toward Michigan City. Word was sent to the police of that place and an attempt to apprehend the men will be made there.

The day watchman at the farm said that the men claimed to be doctors and were trying to examine the bodies of the victims on the place on professional grounds.

It is believed the intention of the intruders was to so disturb the bodies that they could not be identified. Matt and Oscar H. Budeberg of Iowa, Wis. sons of Ole B. Budeberg, arrived here today. The Budeberg brothers were accompanied from Iowa by Edwin Chapin, a business man of that place. They came following a summons sent by Sheriff Smutser.

MILWAUKEE, May 7.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Waupun, Wis. says: The letter which Carl Peterson of Waupun received from Mrs. Belle Guinness, the alleged La Porte murderer, is as follows:

Dear Sir: As I some-time ago received from you a letter asking me to write to you in the Scandinavian I will with pleasure answer the same.

The reason I waited for some time is that there has been other answers to the same. As many as fifty have been received and it has been impossible to answer all. I have picked out the most respectable and I have decided that yours is such

Increased Pay of Army Men

Provision for increased pay of the United States army officers was agreed to by the house in a senate conference April 29; benefit of six months' pay in case of death, was also agreed to.

The pay of officers of the army of the several grades is as follows: Major general, $3,000; brigadier general, $2,000; colonel, $1,500; lieutenant colonel, $1,000; major, $800; captain, $600; first lieutenant, $400; second lieutenant, $300; and the pay of the cadets at the military academy, $200 a year. The United States furnished mounts and horse equipments for all officers of the army below the grade of major, required to be mounted, but in case any officer below the grade of major required to be mounted, provides himself with suitable mounts at his own expense. He shall receive in addition to his pay, $100 per annum, if he provides one mount, and $200 per annum, if he provides two mounts. In no case shall the pay of a colonel exceed $5,000 a year; the pay of a lieutenant colonel exceed $4,000 a year, or the pay of a major exceed $3,000 a year.

The following schedule of pay of enlisted men under the new act has been prepared by Sergeant Major Harry Hostler of the Sixteenth infantry, Fort Crook.

First, I will tell that I am a Norwegian and have been in this country twenty years. I live in a little house about twenty miles from Chicago and one mile north of La Porte. I am the sole owner of a nice home.

There are seventy-five acres of land, also all kinds of crops, improved land, apples, plums and currants, and a fine house and road and have a twelve-room house, a windmill and all modern improvements, situated in a beautiful suburb of Chicago, worth about $15,000.

I am a pretty well paid for. I live in my own home, I am alone with three small children, I have a little but I am not a girl, all frisky and well. I lost my husband by accident five years ago and five since very much alone.

It is too much for me to look after things and things are not as I want them anyway. I feel of them to take a partner in whom I can trust everything, and as we have no acquaintances ourselves I have considered favorably must make a satisfactory deal of cash or security. I think that is the best way for parties to keep away grafters, who are always for such opportunities. I am friendly and experience with them, as I can prove.

Now if you think that you are able to handle my property, I will put up my matters over personally. If you cannot, it is worth while to consider? I would not care for you as a hired man, I am tired of that and need a little rest in my home and near my children. I will close for this time. With friendly regards,

MRS. P. S. GUINNESS.

OKLAHOMA ENJOYS A HOLIDAY

People of State Will Enjoy Congress to Change Method of Electing Senators.

GUTHRIE, Okla., May 7.—(Special.)—The state of Oklahoma today is a legal holiday in being observed. Governor Charles N. Haskell last week issued a proclamation declaring this day a holiday in Oklahoma and exhorting the people of the state to hold meetings and adopt resolutions calling upon the United States congress to pass legislation providing for the selection of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

The governor's suggestion was generally followed today by the people at large.

Fullerton Prepares a Lid. The city council last night passed ordinance closing all business houses on Sunday and prohibiting the keeping of billiard, pool and bowling halls within the city. The closing ordinance provides that hotels, restaurants, drug stores and livery stables may keep open doors and serve food and drink, but no club or saloon may be open for business.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—The "Royal Blue" express train on the Philadelphia and Reading railway had a narrow escape from being wrecked last evening at a switch near Nicetown, a suburb. Two men, said to be foreigners, jammed the switch with old iron just before the express was due. A towerman saw the men tampering with the switch and telephoned for a railway policeman, who removed the obstruction. Wenzey Kowal, a Pole, was arrested on suspicion. The towerman identified the culprit.

SCHLEY ON STRENUOUS PACE

Admiral Will Not Have an Idle Moment in Omaha.

GUEST AT THE MANDERSON HOME

Comes Friday and Leaves Monday with Mrs. Schley and Their Hosts for the National Capital.

Admiral Schley in Omaha.

Friday—Arrives in Omaha from Yankton, S. D., about 2:15 p. m., as the guest of General Charles F. Manderon. Mrs. Schley will accompany the admiral.

7 p. m.—Reception at the Hotel Rome, given by the Nebraska Commandery, Loyal Legion.

7:30 p. m.—Banquet at Hotel Rome in his honor by the Loyal Legion, to which all officers of the army and navy now in the city have been invited as special guests.

Saturday—Lunch at the Omaha club by certain of its members in honor of the admiral.

Afternoon—Reception and dinner to Admiral and Mrs. Schley at the Happy Hollow Country club.

Sunday—Admiral and Mrs. Schley will attend divine service at All Saints church in the morning. The grand lodge officers and members of the Royal Arcanum are also specially invited guests at this service.

At the close of the service Admiral Schley will receive the Arcanum in the parish house, he being a member of that order.

Evening—Will enjoy a rest at the home of his hosts, General and Mrs. Manderon.

Monday—Forenoon, a drive about the city under the direction of General Manderon.

Afternoon—Admiral and Mrs. Schley and General and Mrs. Manderon will depart for Washington, D. C.

The program to be followed by Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, hero of Santiago, destroyer of the Spanish war junkie and rescuer of the Greely Arctic expedition, during his coming visit to Omaha shows that he will "give some."

The strenuous program would reflect credit upon President Roosevelt himself. From the hour of his arrival in the city Friday afternoon until the hour of his departure with General and Mrs. Manderon for Washington Monday afternoon, there will be one continuous round of receptions, addresses and dinners.

At the single reception upon Friday evening, when, says the schedule, he will enjoy a rest at the home of his hosts.

The schedule indicates that though old enough to be retired from the navy, the admiral is still a vigorous man and a firm disciple of the Rooseveltian doctrine of strenuousness.

Schley Addresses Students.

YANKTON, S. D., May 7.—(Special.)—After a lively campaign of a week in which the students have paid attention to little else, the big annual election for the control of the Yankton Student, the college paper, has been decided. The successful candidate was C. R. Vols for editor-in-chief and Leslie Fox for business manager.

Admiral Schley addressed the students here at the college Wednesday and today a big open air program was arranged for at which the admiral made the closing address.

The largest crowd since registration days greeted Admiral Schley here Thursday afternoon in an open air demonstration. There was a parade nearly two miles long, speeches by prominent citizens of the state and Admiral Schley, who expressed pleasure at such a splendid reception, and his belief that American navy was the best in the world. The crowd was great and pickpockets were busy, many watches and purses being stolen.

Governor Brooks to Washington. CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 7.—(Special.)—Governor B. B. Brooks left today for Washington to attend the meeting of governors.
