OMAHA GETS LAST OF SERIES

Makes it an Even Break with the Men from the Mountains.

RAGAN HOLDS HEAVY HITTERS

Adams for Denver Holds the Rourkes Safe Until the Fifth, When Four Runs Are Scored and Then the Rain Descended.

Rain and hail showered in chunks by Jup. Pluv. put an end to the final game of the Denver series just after the required number of innings had been played to make it a regular game and just after Omaha had braced and made enough runs to win the game. There was no foolishness about the way the rain and hail fell, and several hundred fans tried to find some dry nook in Pa's commodious grandstand, but before the rain quit it was not to be had and all got more or less wet. Just as everybody was on the verge of starvation the rain quit and all went home more or less happy.

The hail was something fierce and the tales which will be told about that hailstorm will be marvelous, but they will not be believed by those who stayed away from the game because it did not hail in the central part of the city to any such extent. Hailstones as big as base balls threatened to spoil all of Pa's grass.

The game was short and sweet, a regular pitchers' battle until in the last half of the fifth inning, when Adams decided to weaken. The result was that every player but Austin faced him, three hits were made, two bases stolen and he passed two, all of which were responsible for four runs.

Ragan was in fine fettle and the heavy hitters who had been knocking the cover off the ball during the two previous days, forgot their cunning, and they all looked alike to him. They made but two singles and then the runner did not get beyond first base.

Where Trouble Commenced.

The whole play came in the fifth inning. Welch flew out and Gonding made his second hit in two times up. Belden drew a pass and they each advanced a base on Ragan's infield out, making two out. King drove a hard one right past the pitcher's noodle and Gonding and Belden scored. King started to steal and McDonough threw straight across the base to catch him, but no one was there to receive the ball and King went on to third. Captain Franck drew a pass and he took a hand in the stealing game, going to second. Two more runs were driven across the sack by Autrey's two-sacker. Householder struck out, and it began to rain and did not stop until after 6 o'clock.

Because of the shaky throwing King did Monday Captain Franck moved him over to second and played short-stop himself. King did not have a fielding chance on second.

The score:

PUEBLO WINS IN THE NINTH

Des Moines Infield Goes Up in Air After Two Are Out.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 12.—It all happened in the ninth. After two were out the Des Moines infield went up in the air and an error and wild pitch brought in three runs. Patterson worked the sequence play in this same inning for one of the runs. Des Moines came right back with three straight hits. Yeager knocked a fly to left and Fourney brought in the second run with a bang against the back fence. McLaughlin knocked a pop up and Hopkins was caught stealing second. The Pueblo team played fine ball and Nichols pitched a star game. Score:

LINCOLN WINS FROM SIOUX

Jones' Spit Ball is Too Much for Home Team.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., May 12.—Jones, he of the spit ball, was in the box for Lincoln again today, and as usual had the locals at his mercy most of the way. The visitors won, 5 to 4. However, he had one bad inning, the eighth, when the locals landed on him for three runs and would have got away with the game but for Andreas' error, which let in two runs in that same inning. Jones had gilt-edged support, while Corbet was not quite so fortunate. Score:

GAMES IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE

Philadelphia Wins from Chicago by Good Stick Work.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—Philadelphia won today's game from Chicago by hammering the curves of Owen and Altrock and through the effective twisting of Plank, which offset the home team's poor fielding. Nichols pulverated his feat of yesterday by getting four singles. Score:
