

SUPERIOR MEN COMPLAIN

Insist Beatrice Has a Better Rate Than They on Grain.

DEPOSITIONS IN EXPRESS CASE

Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias Elects Officers for ensuing Year--Eagles to Hold Memorial Services Sunday.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 13.—Special—Elevator and grain men of Superior today held a conference with the railway commission and presented an informal complaint against the Burlington road an account of a charge of from 1 to 2 cents per hundred for the privilege of rebelling grain after it had been milled. They allege that other towns get a milling in transit privilege for nothing. The town of Beatrice is said to have this privilege, and Superior men say Beatrice draws indirectly from their territory. The railroad company hauls grain from the vicinity of Superior to Beatrice and the grain is later shipped to northwestern Nebraska. The complainants desire to be put on an equality with Beatrice. The road is obliged to haul grain three times as far when it takes it to Beatrice. The complainants are C. E. Shaw, D. C. Bishop, F. L. Myers and E. H. Rosemeyer.

Senator Randall today filed a formal complaint against the Northwestern road because it has discontinued Saturday and Sunday trains between Oakdale and Scribner, passing through Newman Grove, where the complainant pursues the occupations of banker and farmer.

DEPOSITIONS IN EXPRESS CASE.

Attorney General Thompson will go to New York Saturday, accompanied by C. E. Welling, accountant, to be present at the taking of depositions of officers of express companies before Judge J. J. Sullivan, referee, appointed by the supreme court of Nebraska, in the suit of the state to enforce the Sibley law. The attorney general will take depositions May 20 in two of the cases which were filed by express companies in the federal court, and will then take depositions in four of the cases in the state supreme court. The trip to New York is taken because the officers of the express companies and their records are in that city.

Senators Perfect Organization.

The organization of state senators perfected in Lincoln last night selected Senator Wilson of Pawnee chairman, Senator Thomas of Douglas, secretary, and Senators C. E. Anderson of Salina, Wall of Sherman and Laverty of Saunders, vice presidents. The plan was changed and all republican senators and ex-senators and the lieutenant governor and his predecessors in office will be admitted to membership. The organization will hold annual sessions and may in time take some part in shaping the policies of the republican party of the state through their annual meetings.

Pythians Elect Grand Officers.

Three officers of the Knights of Pythias grand lodge for Nebraska who have been serving the past year were re-elected at the forenoon session today. The election resulted as follows: Grand Chancellor—J. C. Cleland, Fremont. Vice Grand Chancellor—W. T. Denny, Omaha. Grand Scribe—John E. Chase, North Bend. Grand Keeper of Records and Seal—Will H. Love, Lincoln, re-elected. Grand Master of Ex-Cheques—John B. Walsh, Fremont. Grand Master of Arms—W. T. Morse, Fremont. Grand Inner Guard—C. N. Powers, Silver Creek. Grand Outer Guard—J. J. Gallagher, Beckwith. Grand Treasurer—W. E. Rosenkrantz, Elmwood, re-elected. For grand chancellor, Dr. W. L. Merriam of Omaha and H. E. Simon of Winnebago disputed with the successful applicant. The vote resulted: Cleland, 8; Merriam, 3; Simon, 3.

On recommendation of the committee on state of the order, the grand lodge passed a resolution recommending the Knights of Pythias sisters to be used in organization work. A resolution was offered by E. E. French of Omaha, past grand chancellor, touching the death of Past Grand Chancellor George H. Crager of that city, which occurred April 8. Crager was a pioneer in the Knights of Pythias, having planted the first lodge west of the Allegheny mountains at Omaha on November 23, 1867. The appointment of a committee to arrange for the erection of a suitable monument to his memory was authorized.

Eagle Memorial Services.

The fraternal order of Eagles of Lincoln will hold memorial services in the Lyric theater Sunday afternoon, May 24.

Proof is inexhaustible that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carries women safely through the change of life.

Read the letter Mrs. E. Hanson, 304 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was passing through the change of life, and suffered from nervousness, headaches, and other annoying symptoms. My doctor told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for me, and since taking it I feel so much better, and I can again do my own work. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me during this trying period."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Labor Commissioner John J. Ryder, president of the Lincoln union, who is one of the best orators on fraternalism in the state, will make a brief address. Mayor James Dahlman of Omaha, has accepted an invitation to speak. Mrs. English will sing, and other speakers and musicians will be on the program. Mayor Dahlman formerly lived in Lincoln. He has delivered many addresses on fraternalism and wherever he has spoken has been complimented on account of his earnestness.

Taylor Returns to Omaha.

Detective Donahue of Omaha, who was in Lincoln yesterday to get James Taylor, returned this morning with the young man. Taylor Taylor is a brother to Ray Taylor of Havelock, who is supposed to have robbed a jewelry store at Omaha. It is charged that James Taylor is also mixed up in the affair. He said his brother gave his father thirty-two watches after returning from Omaha recently, but the pieces were not found by the officers. A. D. Taylor, the young man's father, was arrested yesterday, but was discharged today, as no complaint was filed against him. Ray Taylor escaped from the Havelock police when arrested Monday night and has not been located since. A young man named George McLaughlin, living at Omaha, was found with one of the watches on his person at Omaha yesterday and taken into custody. The case will be investigated.

BRIDE OF A DAY DISAPPEARS

Waterloo Woman Marries Grand Island Man and Cannot Be Found.

HASTINGS, Neb., May 13.—Special Telegram.—Three days after their wedding which was performed in Omaha last Saturday, Mrs. Adam Legler, bride of a patent gate manufacturer of this city, deserted him or was abducted from her husband in Grand Island. They were en route to their home in this city when Mrs. Legler disappeared.

Saturday morning friends of Mr. Legler here received cable announcing his marriage in Omaha, Friday afternoon, to Miss Evelyn McClintock of Waterloo, Douglas county, Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Legler went from Omaha to Grand Island and took apartments at the Palmer house. They were expected here on the afternoon train from Grand Island, Sunday.

Soon after dinner Sunday, Mr. Legler left his bride at the hotel and went to keep a business appointment. He expected to meet her at the depot in time to take the train for Hastings. She failed to appear at the depot, and, being unable to find any trace of her at the hotel or elsewhere, Mr. Legler notified the police about 10 in the evening. Willis Egelet and Ernest Larkin of this city were taken into custody while on their way to church and escorted to the police station to be examined relative to the supposed abduction of Mrs. Legler. They corresponded to the description of two men who were suspected in connection with the disappearance of the woman, but they immediately convinced the officers of their innocence and were released.

The police of Grand Island have discovered, they allege, that Mrs. Legler remained in hiding near that city until yesterday morning, when she boarded a train for Omaha, accompanied by two men. Mr. Legler set up the search Monday and went to Fremont. Nothing has been heard from him here. It is rumored that Mrs. Legler had some $300 of her husband's money when she disappeared Sunday. Mr. Legler denies this. Mr. Legler owns considerable property in this county, where he has resided thirty years.

WOODMEN HAVE A GRAND RALLY

Three Hundred Initiated at Session at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, May 13.—Special Telegram.—The Modern Woodman of America lodge at this district held a grand rally here today, in which 250 members were initiated. District Deputy E. C. Cross of Miller is in attendance and also Mr. Teddy, the Modern Woodman of America lecturer of Benson, Mo. More than 1,000 people and representatives from other lodges were here and special trains were run from Grand Island and North Platte to Lexington for the accommodation of all the lodges located between Grand Island and North Platte. The Lexington band, consisting of twenty pieces, furnished music for the occasion.

School of Expression Graduation.

UNIVERSITY PLACE, Neb., May 13.—Special Telegram.—Last evening in the auditorium of the Nebraska Wesleyan University the special day exercises of the graduating class of the school of expression were held. The program was divided into two parts, the first presenting work in the heavy classical drama and the second part presenting a light farce. The graduates presented two scenes from Hamlet, the first scene and the grave diggers' scene. In these heavy Shakespearean roles the amateurs did fairly well. R. D. McNeill impersonating Hamlet won the approval of the audience in a very enthusiastic way.

The second part of the program was a farce called "College Bread Pan," written by Miss Edyth Harris, a senior in the college of Liberal Arts. This farce was given a college setting and so well portrayed college life that it won the approval of adverse critics. The author of the play handled one of the most subtle parts, and her acting had a ring of the professional. The class of 1908 of the school of expression is composed of the following members: Olive Edith, Martha Garlock, Jennie Stewart, E. D. McNeill, Leslie McKay, Lizzie Herdin, Winifred Wilson, Edna Hines, O. H. Hays, Harry Williams, Elmer Vandenberg, Isabel Law, Edna, Abelsie Lyman and W. W. Hughes.

Former Nihilist Man Leaves Dakota.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 13.—Special Telegram.—After having been officially connected with the Edmund State bank, of Edmund, for some time, George L. Coleman, formerly of Nihilist, Neb., has sold his interest in the institution to A. N. Barber, president of the bank, giving immediate possession. Mr. Coleman with his family will leave the latter part of this week for Nihilist, where he will remain until he decides upon his future line of business. Himself and members of his family became very popular during their residence at Edmund, and their departure is regretted.

Nebraska News Notes.

BROKEN BOW—District court is in session this week, with Judge Bruno Hostetler presiding. As this is not a jury term civil cases only will be tried.

BEATRICE—The funeral services for the late David Chesler were held yesterday from the family home near Holmdel, in terms in Evergreen Home cemetery.

BEATRICE—Over an inch of rain has fallen in this vicinity the last few days. The ground is thoroughly soaked and in some places the farmers are unable to get into their fields.

BEATRICE—A reception was tendered at the Presbyterian church last evening to Rev. L. E. Young and wife. About 300 were present. Rev. Young recently came from Iowa to succeed Rev. W. H. Moore as pastor.

LINDSAY—The Flatie County Teachers' association had a very interesting and profitable session at the school house here Saturday evening. The session was held at the school house here Saturday evening. The session was held at the school house here Saturday evening.

KERRASKA CITY—Mrs. Clisabeth, a woman who was in Lincoln yesterday to get James Taylor, returned this morning with the young man.

LAMPHERE FREE WITH CASH

Dr. E. A. Schell Tells of Actions of Suspected Man.

BELIEVES MRS. GUINNESS ALIVE

Nearly All Evidence Obtainable at La Porte Has Been Made Public—Banks Will Aid Officers.

LA PORTE, Ind., May 13.—Mrs. Guinness' hired man, Ray Lamphere, vigorously denies today that he had made any confession or presented any to Rev. E. A. Schell or to any other person. Lamphere is under arrest here charged with complicity in the wholesale murders at the Guinness farm. Sheriff Smithe is authority for the statement that several more globules of gold had been secured by Louis Siding, the miner who is slugging the ashes on the Guinness farm. The sheriff is certain that the discoveries are portions of gold filling from the teeth of Mrs. Guinness.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 13.—Rev. Dr. E. A. Schell of La Porte, Ind., is speaking again today about the Guinness farm tragedy. Denied that he had said that Ray Lamphere helped to kill the Guinness children, but had no part in slaying any men except Helgeisen.

"I have made no statement regarding this case," he said, "and I am not speaking for Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere Had Much Money.

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

LAMPHERE FREE WITH CASH

Dr. E. A. Schell Tells of Actions of Suspected Man.

BELIEVES MRS. GUINNESS ALIVE

Nearly All Evidence Obtainable at La Porte Has Been Made Public—Banks Will Aid Officers.

LA PORTE, Ind., May 13.—Mrs. Guinness' hired man, Ray Lamphere, vigorously denies today that he had made any confession or presented any to Rev. E. A. Schell or to any other person. Lamphere is under arrest here charged with complicity in the wholesale murders at the Guinness farm. Sheriff Smithe is authority for the statement that several more globules of gold had been secured by Louis Siding, the miner who is slugging the ashes on the Guinness farm. The sheriff is certain that the discoveries are portions of gold filling from the teeth of Mrs. Guinness.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 13.—Rev. Dr. E. A. Schell of La Porte, Ind., is speaking again today about the Guinness farm tragedy. Denied that he had said that Ray Lamphere helped to kill the Guinness children, but had no part in slaying any men except Helgeisen.

"I have made no statement regarding this case," he said, "and I am not speaking for Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere Had Much Money.

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

"Mrs. Guinness, as I said yesterday, was an attractive woman in her way. She dressed nicely, and she was very intelligent. I had good taste, but her manner of talking and her speech itself—her vagaries of grammar—betrayed a low origin. She could be described as 'Mrs. Newrich'."

Lamphere is a man who drinks hard and has borne an unpleasant reputation. He was the assent of my interview was made by Lamphere, except to say that Lamphere's communications to me were wholly privileged and unless he shall himself make the statements to prosecuting attorney Smith it will be maintained as an inviolable secret."

Dr. Schell added that, like many others, he believed that Mrs. Guinness was still alive, but that he had no knowledge of the fact. It was merely his personal opinion.

Speaking further concerning the case Dr. Schell said:

Tornado Insurance

Before a Loss you need a Policy. After a Loss you need the Money. Cyclones seldom arrive on Schedule Time. They have already happened this season. When they do blow in the man who has a tornado policy can thank the agent for giving him the tip in time.

The man whose property is scheduled in the total loss column of a cyclone is usually the same fellow who was going to take his insurance out tomorrow. Better take it out today. The premium isn't large and the comfort's mighty big. Rates, 75c per hundred for five years on city and town property. Rates, $1.00 per hundred for 5 years on farm property.

Nebraska Underwriters

Insurance Company of Omaha

Home Office, 1218 Farnam St. Telephone Douglas 31; Automatic A4331.

TORNADO INSURANCE

$1.50 Per $1,000

CALL US UP

Martin Bros. & Co.

BARKER BLOCK

Telephone Douglas 735. Independent A-2735

WHY NOT

Insure Against Loss by

TORNADO

Insurance

in

AETNA

Costs only $2 for $1,000 for three years.

Call on telephone or write

J. W. Robbins

1802 Farnam St. Tel. Doug. 529

TORNADO INSURANCE

is Not Expensive—See

Hutchinson-Bollard Co.

Paterson Block

17th and Farnam Second Floor

La Porte, Ind. Tell is said to have had $100 with him when he left the western town and his relatives have heard nothing from him since. The writer of the letter neglected to mention any physical peculiarity by which Tell might be identified.

One of the watches found in the ruins of the Guinness home was shown today to be a watch of Ole Budsberg, one of the supposed victims of Mrs. Guinness from Iowa. A letter was received today by Corner Mack from Iowa saying that Budsberg's watch was an open face gold time piece, No. 173956, with a No. 18 Waltham movement, seventeen jewels, No. 166234.

The description tallies, according to Prosecutor Smith, with one of the watches found in the ruins.

Prosecutor Smith said that the silver watch taken from Lamphere when he was arrested has been declared by Ask Helgeisen to resemble the one which his brother, Andrew, owned. Lamphere's watch was a present to him from Mrs. Guinness.

E. J. Hunter, the mail carrier on whose route the Guinness farm is situated, said today that Mrs. Guinness carried on her matrimonial business under three different names. He declared that he had delivered scores of letters to Mrs. Guinness under the names of "Mrs. Belle Brownson," "Mrs. Belle Guinness" and "Mrs. Jennie Hinkley."

Corner Mack has received the prison record and Bertillon measurements of Andrew Helgeisen, who served ten years in the Minnesota penitentiary for burglary and arson.

A Pinkerton detective, who gave out that he was going to Warsaw to appear before the grand jury, is reported to have gone in search of letters which Mrs. Guinness is said to have had addressed to her under various aliases.

SEVEN MINE WORKERS KILLED

Explosion in Mount Lookout Colliery Near Wyoming, Pa., Results Fatally.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 13.—Seven mine workers were instantly killed and more than a dozen injured today in an explosion in the Mount Lookout colliery, near the Temple Coal and Iron company at Wyoming, Pa. here.

The explosion occurred 600 feet underground and 1,800 feet from the shaft up which the miners make their exit. John Kosmuth, a miner, left a small gas "fog" here in the extreme end of a roadway all of last night, which set fire to the timbers and the coal. Early this morning when the fire broke started into the mine to make his rounds he discovered the fire. He at once reported it, and with three men tried to subdue the flames, but they met with gas while trying to do so. Shortly after an slight explosion occurred, burning the four men, but not seriously injuring them. They then came out of the mine and the inside foreman summoned a gang of men together and went into the mine to put out the fire. They worked all day around the flames in order to shut them off and stop them from spreading.

They then let air from another roadway in to allow the gas to escape, and while doing so a second explosion occurred, killing seven of the men and injuring the others.

IDAHO REPUBLICANS FOR TAFT

Governor Gooding and Two Senators Left of Delegation.

WALLACE, Ida., May 13.—Republicans of Idaho in state convention today elected Governor Gooding and Senators Heyburn and Borah from the list of delegates proposed by the national convention at Chicago and elected a delegation of laymen, headed by James H. Brady of Pocatello, the acknowledged head of the party, unopposed candidate for the republican nomination for governor. The delegation is pledged to use all honorable means to bring about the nomination of Secretary of War Taft for president.

The other delegates are: R. F. O'Neil Wallace; Warren Truitt, Moscow; C. C. Newnham, Boise; J. W. Hart, Minam, and E. M. Higgins of Weiser.

The convention was entirely harmonious and transacted all its business and passed 14 every action taken was by unanimous vote.

Liberal Tornado Policies

Issued by the

ORIENT INSURANCE CO.

AT CURRENT RATES.

Protect your property against loss by Tornadoes and Wind Storms by insuring in the

ORIENT INSURANCE CO.

ALFRED C. KENNEDY, Sole Agent, 209 First National Bank Building, Telephone 722.

DRINK WATER.

King of all bottled beers, L. Rosenfeld Co. distributors, Boston, Mass.

GERMANUM, BALVIAR, PANKEI AND VINEY, HERMAN BROS., FEARL 57

World Wags Well AFTER BREAKFAST On POSTUM "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville." in page.