BALTIMORE, May 21.-(Special.)-The

of the general conference were of rather a quiet and routine character. As in all large conventions, considerable time is lost by the making of motions of a character that does not forward the business of the gathering. A great deal of time has been lost by motions to seat various people on the platform. Nearly every morning a dozen motions have been made to seat as many delegates of former conferences on the platform. Amid great applause Dr. conference made a motion last Saturday to seat all delegates of former conferences on the plaform and the motion was carried
