WASHINGTON, May 22 .- No bill to modify the power of the federal courts in injunctions will be passed at this session of congress. It was decided tonight at a conference of the republican members of this a good location for a plant. the house that to enact such a measure would be unwise. The conference was in session from 8 o'clock until 11:30. The various so-called anti-injunction bills that have been introduced were discussed and various amendments to them were proposed. Between 11 o'clock and the hour of adjournment three votes of the caucus were cast. The first vote was on a motion by Mr. Fassett (N. Y.), to adjourn the caucus sine die. This motion was lost, 68 to 69. Fifteen minutes later Mr. Tawney (Minn.). moved to take a recess until tomorrow night. This motion also was lost, 62 to 64. At 11:30 Mr. Sherman (N. Y.), made a motion to adjourn sine die and it prevalled, by a vote of 75 to 63.

As indicated by the several votes taken onight, sentiment for and against a modification bill was pretty evenly divided and those who led in the debate took part with much vigor and spirit.

CASE INCURABLE

Whole Body Raw with Eczema-Life was Intolerable-Was Even Incased in Plaster-Discharged from Hospitals as Hopeless.

SUFFERED 14 YEARS CURED BY CUTICURA

"From the age of three months until fifteen years old, my son Owen's life was made intolerits worst form. He was all right until a red rash broke out on his fore-the rash began to spread over his head and shoulders, and it caused him great discomfort. I sook him to a doctor and tried half a dozen him to a doctor and tried half a dozen other treatments, all with the same result: no improvement at all. The disease gradually spread until nearly every part of his body was quite raw. We had to strap him down in bed, for he used to tear himself dreadfully in his sleep. The agony he went through is quite beyond words. No one thought we would rear him. The regimental doctor, a very clever man, pronounced the case hopeless; at least, he said the only hope was that he might, if he lived long enough, outgrow it to some extent. We had him in hospitals four times and he was pronounced one of extent. We had him in hospitals four times and he was pronounced one of the worst cases, if not the worst, ever admitted. From each he was discharged as incurable; in fact he got worse under the successive treatments. At one hospital they incased him in plaster, and this seemed to aggravate the soreness terribly. He looked so hadly that no one liked to wheat him. the soreness terribly. He looked so badly that no one liked to go near him and his life was a burden to him. We and his life was a burden to him. We kept trying remedy after remedy, but we had got almost past hoping for a cure. Six months ago we purchased a set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent Pills and persevered with them. The result was truly marvelous and to-day he is perfectly cured, his skin not having a blemak on it anywhere. and to-day he is perfectly cured, his skin not having a blemish on it anywhere.
