NUMEROUS AFFAIRS AT CLUBS

School Set in Evidence with Dancing Parties at Field Club and Happy Hollow Last of Week.

Then and Now.

It fell upon a summer's day,
When all the world was bright and gay
(I'll ne'er forget!);
The birds were singing in the trees,
The bluebells nodded in the breeze—
And then we met!

It falls upon a winter's night.

When all the world is cold and white
(Poor little heart!):
The wind it means and groans and sighs.
The snow in drifts around us lies—
and now we part!

Knew He Was a Yankee. Once upon a time Supreme Justice Harlan was traveling in Virginia. He stopped at a newly constructed country hotel. The walls of his room had been freshly calcimined. They shone white as the lamp was stain. Someone had thrown a quid of tobacco on it and it had stuck.

"If I had that Yankee here who stained that wall I would wring his neck," said the "Why, how do you know a Yankee did the trick?" asked a friend. "How do I know it was a Yankee?" ex-
