PAPKE THE ONLY ONE IN SIGHT Ketchell Clears the Way for the Illinois Thunderbolt.

MEW YORK, May 23.-It looks now as if e only man in the middleweight division this country who stands a ghost of a show with Stanley Ketchell is Billy Papke the socalled Illinois Thunderbolt, Ketchell has finally succeeded in convincing the sporting fraternity of this country that he is neither a false alarm nor a counterfeit, but a fighter of real merit. In his battle with Jack (Twin) Sullivan at Colma, Cal., he clearly demonstrated his right to be classed among the best of the middleponent, which was to be expected, he nevertheless displayed all the qualities of a great fighter. The coolness and judgment he exhibited under a galling fire during the early part of the battle has never been courage, stamina and the ability to deliver a blow that is certain to bring home the bacon when it lands on the mark. Papke may be able to take his measure,

Don Carlos Ragan showed up one of his pitchers Friday by pitching rings around Ford. Ragan pitched a superb game and adopted new tactics. He did not waste the saw to it that the first ball was over the plate every time. This puts a bataman who is used to taking the first ball up against a hard proposition. Umpire Brennan, before the game Friday, said that he thought Niehoff, third baseman of the Desmones team, was one of with considerable interest, but that player did not have much chance to distinguish himself at the plate, although he did pick up a short hit about as clean as Jimmie
