GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Heavy Cash Demand is Feature of the Day's Affairs.

Corn Especially Goes Rapidly for Fancy Figures-Country Advices Are Quite Builish on Wheat.

OMAHA. May 23, 1998.

The feature of the grain market, sales were large and at fancy prices, and exceptionally so up corn. July option of corn was the only one to change and soid a Mchigher from the opening. The option market was dull and trading slow and neglected. Country advices are builish on wheat, and with continued wet wether corn is expected to hold its own. Elevator shipments of corn are the heaviest they have been for years at this market. Primary wheat receipts were 405,000 bushels and shipments were 405,000 bushels and shipments were 405,000 bushels. Carn receipts last year of 575,000 bushels and shipments were 465,000 bushels and shipments were 465,000 bushels and shipments were 465,000 bushels and shipments of 501,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 521,000 bushels and shipments of 531,000 bushels and shipments of 531,000 bushels and flour equal to 501,000 bushels.

Clearances were 18,000 bushels of corn, 3,000 of oats and wheat and flour equal to 501,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed %634d lower on wheat and 4d higher on corn.

Seaboard reported 480,000 bushels of wheat taken for export.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Fresh reports of damage to the new crop caused strength today in the local wheat market, the July gelivery closing at a set gain of 46%c. Corn was up $4c, oats were $4c higher and provisions from P$6c to be lower.

The wheat market was firm all day, with the exception of a slight dip at the start, due to lower cables and to liberal deliveries on May contracts. Additional reports of damage by drouth to the wheat crop in southern Europe and Kansas were chiefly responsible for the strength. The buige in corn, however, had some effect.

Provisions were easy on a 16c decline in live hogs. Local packers were the princi-pal sellers. At the close July pork was off 5c at $33.57%, lard was 5c lower at $3.42% and ribs were 2%c lower at $7.27%@

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT SALES LARGE AND HIGH-PRICED Showers Sunday and Not Much Change in Temperature.

Rains are failing this morning in the middle Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys and southwest and are scattered throughout the mountain districts. The rains are excessive in Okiahoma and Texas, the falls ranging from two to over four inches. The weather has cleared on the Pacific slope, the temperatures are lower over that section. Light to heavy frosts occurred on the northern plateau and in southern Colorado. Unsettled weather, with showers, will continue in this vicinity tenish and Sunday, with no important change in temperature and precipitation compared with the corresponding day of the past three years;

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Prices Collapse with Great Violence During Short Session.

UNION PACIFIC OFF SIX POINTS Drop Due Largely to Flood

Offerings Attracted by Arti-Scinlly High Level of Market.

NEW TORK, May 22 - Prices of stocks collapsed with great violence during today's short session. The outpouring of stocks was heavy in some quarters, but the strikwas heavy in some quarters, but the striking feature of the proceeding was the disappearance of all trace of the fostering measures of support which have been put through all stages of the preceding advance in prices and through the period of digestion of profits which has been going on this week. There were mixed opinions in Wall street as to the motives for this sudden change of policy in the conduct of market operations.

The filling of the suit by the government on this week. There were mixed opinions in Wall street as to the motives for this sudden change of policy in the conduct of market operations.

The filing of the ault by the government against the New Haven for violation of the anti-trust law was much dwelt upon as beliefing the much heard of assumption that a truce had been arranged between the administration and the corporations and an agreement had been reached for a softening of the movements against the railroads. Much was heard of this talk in the recent rise in stocks and it was credited with effect on the market. Another view of the collapse was that it represented the normal culmination of a movement under suspicion of artificial and manipulative origin in the outset. The news conditions today were more strikingly corroborative of the claims of general improvement, on which the rise in prices was professedly based, than at any time since it was undertaken. In spite of assertions recently of the continued shrinkage of railroad traffic, a decrease in idie car surplus was reported by the American Railway association in their statement published today as of May 13, the reduction in the number of idle cars in two weeks reaching 5.96 cars. This represents a turn in the tide of equipment going into dieness since March is, since which time there had been a large increase in each two weeks' period. Apparently these favorable developments have not altracted as much demand for stocks as was hoped for and as was relied upon to digest the profits of speculators who had bought in anticipation. A flood of stock came from these sources today and caused the break in the market, extending all the way to six points in the actual condition, but not in the averages, and the loan expansion serving at the same time to increase the reserve requirement, there results the first decline in surplus reserve which the banks have had to report since early in February.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, 1,455,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call for the week.

CATTLE-There was nothing doing in the cattle yards this morning, the market being bare as usual on Saturday. For the week of the week and prices steadily tended downward until they were fully 25040c lower, with some of the common and more grassy kinds 4050c lower. It will be readily understood that the slump on this kind of cattle has been due to the large supply of southwestern grassers at southern markets. Thus it should be understood that while the primest corn-fed steers have shown comparatively little loss, the common grades have slumped badly.

The market on cows and helfers has kept pace with the steer market. While the very choicest dry lot cows and helfers have bot declined so much, the common to medium grades which come into direct competition with southern grass cows and helfers have slumped the same as have grass steers. Many of the common to medium cows and helfers are seiling 75-251.00 lower than they were at the high time two weeks ago. The general run of buils and stags are Egible lower than last week.

The supply of stockers and feeders has been extremely light especially good to cholee fleshy feeders, which have been in fair request and which have been practically steady all the week. jury complained of constitute a cause of action.

2. A cause of action alleged in an amended petition, although founded upon the same injury as that described in the original, is a different cause of action if it is dependent entirely upon different reasons for holding the defendant responsive for the wrong alleged.

3. The original petition alleged a personal injury and consequent damages to plaintiff because of the negligence of a third party, and that defendant succeeded to the liabilities of such third person; the amended petition alleged that said injury was caused by defendant's negligence. Held that the amended petition stated a new and different cause of action.

6.00. Success Through Failure.

Many of our most successful men of to-day owe their success to their first failure. This may sound strange, yet every word of it is true. Their first failure taught them the lesson which they later in life applied so successfully that failure was never again to come to them. It taught them prudence, forethought and deliber-ation—three of the essentials to success. It is an old saying that a dollar lost is often a dollar made. The man who profits by failure, who is richer by the lesson learned from failure, is the one to whom when success comes it comes in generous ineasure.

measure. You lose a dollar in a business venture You lose a dollar in a business venture and you have learned a dollar's worth of experience; this experience makes you careful, you look ahead, you investigate and from that loss you have drawn out again. Every man who has attained wealth and position through his own hard work and skill will tell you that that wealth and position has not come to him without failures in the outset. He has, perhaps, forfeited his first thousand before his second, third or fourth thousand has come into his hands.—Spare Moments. ST. LOUIS.
